Married, Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the New Zion church, Miss Alice Baker and Mr. D. McFaddin.
The better the day the better the deed, is the old saying; so on last Sunday afternoon while taking his dogs out for exercise, Mr. Joe Wells discovered three coons in one tree. Mr. Wells is a great coon hunter, but he never makes a practice of hunting on Sunday, at the same time he could not resist the temptation of leaving three big fat coons in the swamp. He carries a pistol along while strolling about in the woods to protect him from snakes, and with this weapon he took a crack at Mr. Coon. The varmints jumped out, and then Mr. Wells and the dogs and the coons all got in a free for all fight. When the fray was over there were three dead coons lying on the ground. Mr. Wells was the next worse off, as he had a badly lacerated foot, and his Sunday suit was full of mud. The next thing Mr. Wells was up against was to get his game home. Our good old coroner came along in his buggy, and gave a helping hand by taking the coons in his buggy and safely landing them at Mr. Wells' house. Mr. Wells is guilty of catching coons on Sunday, and Coroner Tobias is an accessory to the crime, if there be a crime, as he wound up the job by taking the coons home.

MRS. E. E. RICHBOURG
Died at the home of her son, B. E. Richbourg, near Jordan, Tuesday, September 6th, Mrs. E. E. Richbourg, wife of the late R. N. Richbourg. She was aged 86 years and 3 months. She leaves to survive her, one son, B. E. Richbourg, and a number of grand and great-grand children.
The deceased was laid to rest at Bethlehem church on Wednesday, September 7th.

In a lonely church-yard,
About a mile away,
Lies my dear Grand-mother
In the hard-cold clay.
She is gone, but not forgotten,
Sweetest memories linger yet,
Though some day we hope to meet her
In the Great Beyond.
Grand-daughter.

PUBLIC HEALTH NOTES
Mr. Stukes has agreed to work with Miss Moore in the interest of Home Service Work.
Miss Moore will give a talk on Tuberculosis at the Colored Methodist church tonight at 8 o'clock.
Plans for the T. B. Clinic are progressing and the date will be announced later.

PEACE TREATIES TO BE OPPOSED
Washington, Sept. 20.—Announcement from the White House today that the new peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary would be transmitted tomorrow to the senate was followed by information that they would encounter opposition from several Republicans as well as some Democrats.

Senator Borah (Republican) of Idaho, who began the battle against the treaty of Versailles, is planning to wage a fight against ratification of the new treaties and is said to have assurances of support from a few Republicans and some Democrats who were foremost among the critics of the Versailles treaty.
Despite the promise of opposition, administration leaders in the senate tonight said they were confident of early ratification, and the opponents did not express much hope of overcoming the administration support combined with the Democrats who already have declared for ratification.
President Harding is expected to transmit the treaty without any detailed explanation, confining his statement to a brief note of transmittal.
The plan of some Republican leaders to have the treaties debated behind closed doors also is threatened with opposition. An effort to have the debate in the open is expected to precede the controversy over the treaties themselves.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION
The next examination for teachers will be held at the court house on Friday and Saturday, October 7th and 8th, beginning at nine o'clock. This examination will be held under the new rules and regulations adopted July 1st, 1921, and will embrace three groups of questions.

Which was Repaired?

They look alike but one of them has seen months of wear. That's the way we do it. We rebuild them with our factory methods. But when you put them on you feel the difference. And when you get your feet you will be glad you had them repaired first.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT
Whereas, God in His all-wise providence has seen fit to take from earth the sweet young life of Miss Lillie Plowden, and
Whereas, she loved the church and the Sunday School and proved her devotion by a life full of faithful, efficient, and loving service, and
Whereas, our hearts have been saddened by her going, and in token of our love and sympathy we offer these resolutions:
First, That we bow in humble submission to God's will, knowing that He doeth all things well.
Second, That we extend our sympathy to the members of her bereaved family, praying that in their sorrow they may find the peace of God that passeth all understanding.
Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, to the Southern Christian Advocate, and to The Manning Times.
