Northern Race Prejudice.

A mob at Carlisle, Ind., has chased all non-resident negroes from town, and the press dispatches report that all resident negroes will be driven out. The homes of all negroes in the village have been visited, and partly demolished.

This assault upon all the negroes of a community was incited by the shooting of a white man by one negro.—Atlanta Journal.

Several statesmen who have been much in evidence in the legislature through their much talking and otherwise have been retired as the result of the primary. Some were defeated and some stood for other offices. The primary system is not wholly bad after all. Sometimes it accomplishes good.—Columbia Record.

Laurens Editor Discouraged.

Take it all in all, the delegation to the lower house of congress nominated in these primaries is probably the weakest that South Carolina has had since 1876. The material offering was for the most part commonplace in character. In at least one district, the sixth, the man immeasurably superior to his three opponents tailed the ticket.—Laurens Advertiser.

IN PRAISE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

"Allow me to give a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Bamberg Pharmacy; H. C. Rice, Denmark.

Election Figures.

The vote in the second primary was larger than expected, more than ninety thousand votes being polled. Earle beat Mobley badly for railroad commissioner, the vote being: Earle, 50,728; Mobley, 40,293. For congress in the sixth district J. E. Ellerbe received 7,735 and J. W. Ragsdale 5,730. For solicitor of the fifth circuit Geo. Bell Timmerman received 8,656 and Geo. R. Rembert 4,546. For congress in the second district the vote stood as follows:

	Mayfield.	Patterson.
Aiken.....	1,541	2,116
Barnwell.....	645	1,870
Bamberg.....	846	281
Beaufort, (unofficial).....	182	450
Edgefield.....	682	945
Hampton.....	570	794
Saluda.....	1,105	695
Totals.....	5,522	6,651

Card of Thanks.

Friends and fellow citizens of the Second Congressional District:

To my friends, I desire to express my gratitude for their loyal and generous support in the recent primary, but since words are so inadequate, I will simply say, I thank you.

To "mine enemy" I have only to say, that I will endeavor to unburden my memory of the injustices that they have practiced upon me.

To the friends of my opponents, I wish to express my hearty commendation for having stood by their friends.

For the great mass of citizens who acted without prejudice in casting their ballots for one or the other of my opponents, for reasons that appeared sufficient to themselves, I have no feeling but that of hearty good-will and regret that we have not known each other better.

And, however much of a disappointment defeat may be to me, your verdict against my further public service at this time is accepted without bitterness.

Of my two opponents I also wish to say, that I am not only without malice towards them, but on the contrary, my personal regard for them is higher than when we entered the campaign together.

Adv. L. J. WILLIAMS.

THE STOMACH IS THE MAN.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold by H. F. Hoover.

A Vital Question.

"I understand," said Col. Kaintuck, "that Judge Parker cultivates a good bit of rye."

"Yes," said the man who was soliciting the colonel's interests, "he does."

"Also some corn."

"Yes."

"That's all very well," responded the blue grass leader, "but tell me this. Does the Judge raise any mint?"

A POWER FOR GOOD.

The pills that are potent in action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any pill I ever took and the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are an ideal pill." Sold by H. F. Hoover.

The Bare Facts.

"Anyway," said the Cheerful Idiot as he looked over the Tired Citizen's shoulders at the picture of an Igorrot dogfeast "that's one part of the canine they don't seem to fancy."

"What's that?" asked the Tired Citizen, accommodatingly.

"The pants," replied the Cheerful Idiot with loud laughter.

"Why don't you see a physician?"

"No, siree," answered Farmer Cortosel. "If I git cured it's got to be by patent medicine. Nobody gits his picture in the paper fur being cured by a regular doctor."

"We want a man for our information bureau," said the manager; "but he must be one who can answer all sorts of questions and not lose his head."

"That's me," replied the applicant. "I'm the father of eight children."

The way of a politician was illustrated by Senator Dietrich, of Nebraska, who was asked by a friend in New York as to how he was getting along. "Well," replied the Nebraskan, "the men whom I gave positions when I was governor still call me governor. Those whom I have helped since I was elected to the Senate, call me Senator. The rest all call me 'that damn ingrate.' I guess I'm doing as well as the average."

For Your Health's Sake
Drink Chick Springs Water

Impure water is responsible for more sickness than any other one cause. Hundreds of deaths occurring annually in this section of the country are directly traceable to the drinking of water from bad wells, springs or from the water supply of cities. Thus is clearly seen the necessity for absolutely pure water.

Chick Springs Water has undergone the most severe tests for purity and eminent chemists say it is absolutely without impurity of any kind. It is an ideal table water, delightful to the taste, full of life and sparkle and vim.

But it is the medicinal qualities of Chick Springs Water that make it particularly valuable. It is a certain and speedy cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and other disorders of the digestive organs. It has been found invaluable in the treatment of Kidney and Bladder Diseases and for Diseases of Women is without a peer.
