SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Have you made your contribution to the new dormitory?

The cold weather of this week sent the price of cotton up.

Miss Lila McCue has accepted a position at Klauber's dry goods store.

This section was visited by a killing frost Tuesday night of this week.

See what is needed to complete the new dormitory and tell the committee you'll do your part.

The chain gang is now in camp near Ehrhardt, and is at work on a road in the Hiers section, East from Ehrhardt.

People generally have little idea of how many packages are received at the Bamberg office each day by parcel post.

The first cold weather of the season came this week with a rush. Overcoats and fires were very comfortable. There was snow in the upper part of the State.

A leading citizen from another county recently remarked, on being shown over the plant of the Carlisle School: "Nothing helps a town as much as a school of this kind."

The fixtures for the post office will be shipped in about three weeks, and as the building is now nearing completion, it is expected that the new office will be occupied by December first at the latest.

Among the pleasant social affairs of the past week were the showers given in honor of Miss Oattie Simmons, who was married yesterday evening to Mr. Robert A. Ayer. One was given by Mrs. G. O. Simmons and the other by Miss Ethel Black.

Mr. James Mathew Birds, of Chicago, and Miss Amelia Marjorie Armstrong, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Weeks, of this city, will be united in matrimony on Wednesday, Oct. 22, at 7 a. m., in St. Peter's Episcopal church. No cards.—Fernandina News.

The record of parcel post packages kept at the Bamberg office from the first to the fifteenth of October shows that this office is doing as much business in this line as that of any town the size of Bamberg, and possibly more than many of the same population.

Mr. C. B. Garrett and Miss Hattie Bessinger were married in this city yesterday afternoon in the office of the Judge of Probate, Judge G. P. Harmon performing the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. R. Bessinger, of the Govan section, and won several prizes in the contest recently conducted by this newspaper.

Polk Miller, a well-known entertainer, died suddenly at his home in Richmond, Va., last Monday, the 20th instant. Mr. Miller was sixty-nine years old. He had visited Bamberg several times and gave entertainments here. He was a contributor to the Confederate monument erected in Bamberg by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Condemnation proceedings will be held to-morrow for a right of way for the railroad from Bamberg to Ehrhardt, the land being situated in the town of Ehrhardt. This right of way is necessary, in order that a connection may be had with the Atlantic Coast Line at Ehrhardt, and is the only land needed to complete the road into that town.

Dr. F. B. McCrackin spent a few days in the city last and this week. He has bought out the Bamberg Pharmacy and will assume charge of the business in a few days. He has returned to Charlotte, N. C., to wind up his affairs there, but will return this week, accompanied by Mrs. McCrackin and their little daughter. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back to Bamberg.

The Cotton Market.

Cotton is selling in Bamberg today (Thursday) at 13 1/2 cents the pound. Receipts for the week 1,143 bales. Receipts for the season 8,143. There is lots of cotton open in this county yet, and many people are not near through picking. Some people think Bamberg county will produce this year the second largest crop in her history.

Accidentally Kills His Mother.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Jennings Williams, 66 years old, was accidentally shot and killed at her home tonight by Walter H. Williams, her 19-year-old son. Walter was cleaning a revolver and had taken four of the five cartridges from the weapon and placed them in his mother's lap. The fifth cartridge was difficult to extract and the boy was trying to pry it out with a pair of scissors when it exploded. The bullet entered Mrs. Williams' left temple. She died almost instantly.

MARRIAGE AT EHRHARDT.

Miss Inez Lemacks Weds Mr. L. P. McMillan.

Wednesday at high noon St. James Methodist Episcopal church at Ehrhardt was the scene of the nuptials of Miss Inez Wilson Lemacks and Mr. Laurence Preston McMillan. Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of this popular couple. 'Twas truly a palm wedding, and the color scheme was green and white, the walls being artistically covered in handsome palmetto palm leaves forming an attractive background to this beautiful scene. Potted palms and ferns also were used in the lavish decorations, and over all swung the large silver marriage bell. At the end of each aisle was a graceful arch of green tied with white ribbons, marking off the family reservation of seats.

Miss Edna Burns, of Charleston, was at the piano, accompanied by Miss Annie Lou Byrd, of Bamberg, on the violin. As the strains of Lohegrin's wedding march sounded, the ushers preceded the bridal party in the following order: Right aisle, Mr. A. M. Denbow, of Bamberg, and Mr. T. S. McMillan, of Charleston. Left aisle, Mr. G. D. Ryan and Dr. H. J. Stuckey, of Bamberg. The couples crossed in front of the altar and took their positions on opposite sides. Following them came the attendants. Left aisle, Miss Kate Rentz with Mr. B. D. Carter, of Bamberg; right aisle, Miss Ollie Lee Dobson, of Gaffney, with Mr. James McGowan, of Bamberg; left aisle, Miss Dreka Wilder, of Beaufort, with Mr. E. B. McLaurin, of Bamberg. Then came the dames of honor, Mrs. J. C. Lewis, of Bamberg, and Mrs. George McKenzie, of Ehrhardt. The little ring bearer, Miss Katherine Lemacks, sister of the bride, preceded the bride, who came in the right aisle on the arm of her father, Mr. F. G. Lemacks; the groom and his best man, Mr. D. M. Eaves, of Bamberg, entering at the same time the left aisle, crossing as did the other couples in front of the altar but going on the rostrum where the officiating minister, Rev. J. Lemacks Stokes, awaited them, and while Schumann's exquisite Traumerel was being played, the beautiful ring ceremony that made Inez Wilson Lemacks Mrs. Lawrence Preston McMillan was performed. When Mendelssohn's glorious wedding march was sounded, the couples came out in the opposite order to which they entered.

A more beautiful tableau cannot be imagined than this proved to be—the bride gown in a most becoming Copenhagen blue chiffon broadcloth coat suit, with plush hat and shaded plume and shower bouquet of bride rose buds; the bridesmaids in soft Copenhagen blue crepe de chine and black picture hats, carrying armfuls of large pink chrysanthemums, the little ring bearer in a dainty frock of lingerie, and the gentlemen in their natty black suits, against the artistic background of green and white, the soft candle light over all, was a picture not soon to be forgotten.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lemacks, of Ehrhardt, and is well known in Bamberg, where by her gracious charms she won friends by the score. She made this city her home for the past two years, where as milliner at Rentz's Millinery Store, she was most popular with all. She will be an addition to the social life here, and will be most graciously welcomed.

Mr. McMillan is one of Bamberg's most highly respected young business men, being book-keeper and salesman at H. J. Brabham's store, and he is also one of the most popular young men here in a social way. He was recently elected a member of city council, and is mayor pro tem of that body.

Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, accompanied by the bridal party, went to the depot in Ehrhardt where they took the A. C. L. train for a short wedding trip. In a few days they will be at home to their friends at Mrs. J. C. Lewis's, in this city, where they will board for the present.

The many friends of this popular young couple was attested by the large number of prominent people of Bamberg who went down in automobiles to attend the wedding, as well as the array of beautiful and costly presents in cut glass, silver, etc., which they received.

A beautiful reception was tendered the bridal party on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

The New Dormitory.

Have you seen the new dormitory being erected at the Carlisle School? It is a building that would be a credit to any town or any school in the State. Bamberg might well be proud of it.

One of our leading business men, while looking at this building the other day, said: "This is one of the biggest things Bamberg has ever done." This is true, it is one of the biggest things from every standpoint.

The building committee reports that they have just about enough money in hand and arranged for to complete the building. About $3,000 more is needed to install the steam heating plant and for furnishings. A goodly number of our citizens have not yet contributed to the building fund, promising to do so in the fall. It is hoped that these will see some of the gentlemen in charge of this work and make their contributions at once. There may be those who would like to increase their contributions!

We have had a prosperous season and the money needed to complete the work ought to be easily realized.

Every citizen of Bamberg ought to have a part in this!

See the committee!

U. D. C. Meeting.

The Francis Marion Bamberg Chapter U. D. C. held their regular monthly meeting October 14th with Mrs. John Jones. There was a large attendance of members present, and much business was transacted at this meeting.

After the usual hour of business was over the program consisted of an instrumental solo by Miss Urna Black, a paper on the Battle of Fort Sumter by Mrs. W. P. Jones, and a vocal solo by Miss Kate Rentz. This concluding the program for the afternoon, the hostess served a delicious salad course.

Negroes Accidentally Shot.

Last Monday afternoon, while they were in a buggy coming to town, Roland Jennings and Reuben Morris were wounded by the accidental discharge of a shot gun. Jennings was seriously wounded. It appears that there were three negroes in the buggy, and that Moor was holding the gun, when it slipped out of his hand and in falling the hammer struck the step of the buggy and it was discharged, the load tearing a large piece of flesh out of the thigh of Moor and lodging in the face of Jennings, on the right side, making a fearful wound. His face was horribly mangled, and the physicians had to remove his right eye and perform an operation on his skull. He was carried to the hospital at the Voorhees School, and is doing very well, the chances for his recovery being favorable. Jennings and Moor are both negroes and live on Mr. W. M. Brabham's plantation, near town. As soon as possible after the accident the negroes were brought to town and their wounds dressed, later Jennings being taken by Mr. Brabham in his automobile to the hospital where physicians performed the operation.

Bitten by Mad Dog.

Some days ago the little son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kinard was bitten by a pet dog, which had been acting a little strange. The child was bitten on the hand while playing with the dog. Later on the dog bit a dog belonging to Mr. C. J. S. Brooker, and then suspicion was aroused as to whether the dog was afflicted with hydrophobia. The animal was shut up and a few days later died, showing symptoms of the disease. The head was sent to the Pasteur Institute in Columbia, and the report of the physicians there was that the dog was affected with rabies. Dr. H. J. Stuckey at once took Mr. Kinard's little son to Columbia for treatment, but later he was brought home and is being given the treatment here

Hospital Assured.

It now appears that a hospital for this county is assured. The committee of seven appointed as the result of the mass meeting Tuesday evening of last week, held a meeting last Thursday, at which definite plans were made. Plans and specifications are now being submitted by various architects, and as soon as the style of the building is decided on and some other matters of importance to the project, another mass meeting will be called and the definite plans of the committee submitted. From the financial support already in sight, it seems certain that the hospital will be built, and if the plans of the promoters are carried out, it will be a success after it is erected. The plan is to put the institution on a solid basis to begin with, and no doubt this can be done.

WHETHER YOU USE CALOMEL OR NOT.

You Will Realize How Much Better for You This Safe Vegetable Remedy Will Be.

The liver is such a delicate organ that most people have learned from experience the danger of flogging it into action with the dangerous drug calomel. The Peoples drug store sells and recommends Dodson's Liver Tonic, a pleasant-tasting, harmless vegetable liquid that encourages the liver, relieves constipation and biliousness without restriction of habit or diet.

There are no bad after-effects from taking Dodson's Liver Tonic. It does just what it is intended to do and no more. Dodson's Liver Tonic cannot harm either children or grown-ups and is an excellent preventive of chronic liver troubles.

The Peoples drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tonic for 50 cents per bottle and every bottle sold is guaranteed to give satisfaction, and you get your money back without a question if it fails you. Some remedies are sold in imitation of Dodson's Liver Tonic—look out for them. Remember the guarantee.

The Youth's Companion in 1914.

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made her famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practised in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia. And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stanwood Pier's fine serial—"His Father's Son." Full announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies.

For the year's subscription of $2.00 there is included The Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1913, dating from the time the subscription is received.
