SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Dr. O. D. Faust has our thanks for some very nice pecans, which he kindly left at our office while we were out.

Clean up your back lots and remove all trash from your premises before Christmas and thus help to prevent fires.

Mr. B. F. Folk and family, of the Spring Branch section, have moved to town and are occupying the Pearlstone house.

Patrons of the postoffice are asked to mail their packages before the Christmas rush. Wrap and tie all packages securely.

Christmas time makes no difference to an editor or postmaster. He has to work just as hard or harder than usual all during the holidays.

Mr. G. D. Ryan has sold his moving picture show, the Rex Theatre, to Messrs. Culler and Wolfe, of Orangeburg, who are now operating it.

The graded school and Carlisle School will suspend exercises Friday of this week for the Christmas holidays. Two weeks' holiday will be given.

Mr. F. E. Copeland announces the marriage of his daughter, Sophie, to Mr. W. G. Muller, of Islandton, the marriage to take place at the home of the bride in January.

Read The Herald advertisements. Those who use our columns will appreciate your trade and have something to offer you or they would not pay for space to tell you about their goods.

The entertainment given at the graded school building last Wednesday evening to raise funds for the school library was well attended and quite successful in every way. The receipts were something more than fifty dollars.

Last Saturday the Governor issued an order disbanding the military companies at Bamberg, Barnwell, Bennettsville, and Conway. This action was taken because of the poor showing made by these companies at a recent inspection.

The bazaar given in the court house last Thursday afternoon and evening was a most successful affair. It was given to raise funds for furnishing the lobby of the new brick dormitory at Carlisle School. A nice sum was realized.

Messrs. Cecil R. Culler and Lenair F. Wolfe, of this city, have bought out the moving picture show in Bamberg and will run it from now on. Both of these gentlemen are hustlers and we wish them success.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

Bamberg is without a military company at present, the Bamberg Guards having been disbanded by the governor. We trust this condition will not exist long, and hope the young men of the town will soon get together and organize a good military organization.

Mr. Arthur M. Kittrell, who is well-known and has relatives in Bamberg, died at Landrum, Spartanburg county, last week. He leaves a wife and several children. Mr. Kittrell was cashier of a bank in Florence for a number of years, but moved to Landrum when his health broke down.

It is right hard to say when we will move into the new post office. We expected to move the latter part of this week, but owing to the delay in getting the tile laid in the lobby, we cannot do so. Maybe we will move before Christmas, and while we certainly hope so, it is by no means certain.

The congressional investigating committee, which had in charge the probing of the charges of political corruption made against Congressman Richard S. Whaley by Mayor John P. Grace, has dismissed the proceedings and the chairman of the committee states that the matter is at an end so far as his committee is concerned.

All persons who wish boxes at the new post office will please see the postmaster or one of the clerks at once. There are not so very many boxes left, and while there will no doubt be enough for all, still we want everybody to get a box if they wish one, and there is nothing like being on time. Select your box without delay.

Editor Knight says in The Bamberg Herald that "Motoring over to Orangeburg to attend plays has become a popular pastime. Several from here attended a play there last Friday night." The Bamberg folks are always welcome in Orangeburg. When you finish that postoffice building, Brother Knight, we want you to come over, too.—Orangeburg Sun.

Jones Bros. and J. J. Smoak each received a car of stock during the past week.

The man who has nothing attractive to offer the buying public does not advertise.

There has been considerable moving in Bamberg recently. M. H. F. Bamberg has moved into the residence lately occupied by Mr. R. S. Simmons; Mr. G. A. Jennings has moved into the McCrackin residence, and Mr. J. J. Smoak has moved into Mr. Jennings's residence.

ELECTION AT BAMBERG.

Orman Lodge, A. F. M., Chooses Its Officers for Year.

Orman lodge, No. 38, A. F. M., elected the following officers last Friday night to serve for the ensuing year:

Charles F. Black, W. M.; Clarence E. Black, S. W.; Thomas Ducker, J. W.; Willie A. Dickinson, Treasurer; Robert Black, Secretary; Henry H. Stokes, S. D.; B. Tillman Felder, J. D.; C. R. Gillam and Henry L. Hinnant, Stewards; D. W. Phillips, Tiler.

The foregoing officers were also installed, and two candidates were raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason.

About 8:30 o'clock the members and visitors of the lodge repaired to the Garland hotel, where a banquet had been prepared. Several short after dinner speeches were made, and the occasion was enjoyed very much by all present.

The lodge of this city is in a flourishing condition, there being an unusually large number of young men who take an active interest in everything appertaining to it.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The subject for Sunday morning will be: "The Coming of the Christ Child." At the evening service Mr. M. W. Brabham will make an address.

Each member of Trinity Sunday-school is invited to come Thursday evening, December 25, to the church and bring some gift for the Epworth orphanage children. Come, let's all play Santa Claus and learn what a good time old Santa has; because, you know, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Bring in Your Copy.

The Herald will no doubt be printed early Wednesday morning of next week, as the cotton mill will shut down at twelve o'clock that day and remain closed until the following Monday. As the mill engine runs our generator, we will have no day current after the shut down, so our paper must be printed early Wednesday morning. Get your changes of ads. in early, as we may print late Tuesday night, but certainly not later than early Wednesday morning. The Herald office will be open all the week, and the editor can either be found at the post office or at The Herald office. Fact is, we are about in from 9 a. m. until 9 a. m.

Some Fine Work.

We had the privilege a few days ago of seeing a photograph of a sea wall which is being constructed in Philadelphia under the management of Lieutenant D. Graham Copeland, U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Copeland, of this city. The sea wall is being constructed in connection with the extension of the navy ship yards there, and the letter describing the work makes it intensely interesting even to a laman. After taking a course in the technological school of the government at Troy, N. Y., Lieut. Copeland is now connected with the engineering department of the navy, being with the department of yards and docks.

Meeting of Music Club.

The Apollo Music Club met with Miss Mae Brabham on Wednesday afternoon, December the third, Beethoven being the subject for study. After the regular business, during which time a new programme committee was nominated and elected consisting of Miss Franke Folk, Miss Mae Brabham and Miss Leonard Folk, the following programme was rendered:
