CHAPTER I-A

MR. BIXBY frowned slightly "Yes, you are to start tonight. I thought that point was definitely understood. As you know, Miss Marshall leaves Saturday. We want you here the tol-

"Go up to my office," Mr. Bixby went on, "and Miss Birney will take care of your expense money.

She's wired for a hotel reservation and ordered your transporta-need this afternoon to go home and pack or for shopping." With un indulgent smile he dismissed

Eve knew that this trip to New York meant that the management at Bixby's had almost certainly decided upon her as the successor to Alice Marshall. When she accepted the expense money for the trip, she felt she had sealed her fate. It was the thing she had wanted, of course. She had slaved to get where she was. Eve's work always had come before her pleasures and ever since she began working she had bent all her energy toward one goal-to become manager of an advertising office. This promotion was a long and important step toward that

The expense money exchanged for Travelers' checks and tucked safely into the chamois bag with

This decision was prompted en-and provided room and board at nite purpose.

an exultant yet frightened Eve.

tion. Take whatever time you lowing Monday.

or the OVE of EVE

With a quick look to see that no one was near, Dick gathered worry about on that score.

remembered regretfully that good-"

fast busy, happy months of her seemed to her that he would ahead.

through Eve's life. Now she meant so much to Esther. With lump of paused contritely before that pic- Eve marriage was important, but with her mother out from any impor- the agencies and all the stores ture of Kate Bayless. It was so was her career.

For the LOVE of EVE by Lucy Walling

CHAPTER I

I'F was a brief and burried mar riage ceremony, not at all the mposing affair Eve Bayless had ireamed her wedding would be Just she and Dick, at the Little Stone Church, with the rectory nousekeeper and a young civil en elneer whom Dick knew for wit besses. Monday noon-and the astily performed ceremony was like an anti-cifmax to the passion ste scene of parting Thursday night when Eve had decided she wanted to be Dick's wife with az little loss of time as possible.

And now, even while she was being married to Dick, there was the menacing ghost of the moun ; ing hovering between her and her bappiness.

To Eve her wedding was ifke a disturbing dream. Would she get back to the store before Mr. Barnes sent for her? Would Dick be angry and storm when she told tilm what had bappened that morning? Or would be be hurt tell him until she had learned for sure-this evening after dinner. No use to spoil the afternoon for him. She tried to focus her attention on the words that were binding her to Dick, but there were so many thoughts that kept interfering.

tender, pressed to hers. Eve's spied that corsage! They could heart meited. In that moment scent a wedding months away. she was almost ready to give up altar as a sacrifice.

it was Dick who broke the spell. Abruptly his arms rethe ring is the chamois envelope leased her. It was he who sug- which guarded her money and ging to my family about the highgested, simost brusquely, that trinkets. Eve had told no one they'd have to hurry or they at Bixby's that she was to be marwould be late to work,

BUT by the time his roadster know. last night-that's what I want. this now. and a garden and-a baby-"

"Dick," she pleaded, "let me again. At least not here. Not now. Wait for me here this evening. I'll try not to be late, but I don't know. Something came was no one in the advertis- Arlene's fervent reply. "I'm fully eventually depends largely upon up in the office this morning- ing office except Marya Vlad, the as domestic as Marya, here, and something unexpected and ter-fashion artist, who was working twice as domestic as you, Eve. ribly important. I'll tell you at her drawing board in a corner But do the men see that? They about it this evening. 'Bye, by the window. Perhaps Marya do not! I'm all right to play

EVE BAYLESS

Now the earnest young rector the brown costume and the cor- Eve entered. was giving them his blessing, sage of creamy, fragrant rosebuds Dick's ring was on her finger, with tawny orchids that Dick had Marya knew of the conference better to see you, my dear," Dick's arms were around her, sent, put away in her locker, with Mr. Barnes, scheduled for Dick's lips, possessive yet very Thank goodness none of the girls two o'clock. whom she knew at Bixby's had

She slipped off her wedding everything for Dick. Her work, ring, the little circlet of pale yelthe coveted goal almost within low gold engraved with orange reach, the career she had dreamed blossoms which she had chosen of through her girlhood-these matched the golden lights in her she was moved to heap on love's amber eyes and honey-colored hair and harmonized with the ried today. She would not tell them for a while-not until she was certain she wished them to had nosed its way through Oh, she should have waited the moonday traffic to the side en- until June to be married, she told trance of Bixby's department herself unhappily as she went store, where Eve was employed as into the office. If only they could a copy writer in the advertising have been married Saturday inoffice, Dick's mood had changed stead of today, it would have again. His hand closed over hers, helped the situation some. But Eve, sweetheart, don't go back! the state law had been changed I don't want my wife out earning and a three-day notice was reher living. Let me take care of quired before a marriage license A little house with a fireplace nerves steady and her mind clear for that conference with Mr. We can't thresh that out conference conference.

was not so oblivious to what went around with but when they beshe reached the third floor. She haps her candid blue eyes were ment ring they have some sweet did you definitely decide that I'm Eve consulted her watch when on about her as she seemed. Per- gin to shop around for an engagehad just five minutes to change more penetrating than her fellow young thing like you or Marya to go tonight? I could go a little from the brown ensemble which workers realized, but at any rate in mind." was her wedding costume into her she was too courteous and con-

for Sales Tax Relief

Is Doubted

RALEIGH, Aug. 7 .- Comments on the organization of a North

Governor Ehringhaus will find it hard to ascend to other great pc-sitions if he decides to go out for vanced a new reason for going ard's proposed campaign is expressed. Mr. Leonard thinks sufficient campaigning may force the calling of a special session of the of itself publish calamity. Nobody wishes any more legislatures un-tion to convene here. And any a foretime his purpose to assenble the legislature in extraordi-

THE AND A

Another view as to Paul Leon-outside the state to trade.

they concur in the opinion plished in the allotted time and merely looked up and smiled as

"Did any one ask for me?"

today, Eve."

'Oh. I'm glad you think so! I have a special reason for wanting to look well today."

"Is that so?" echoed a voice in gay raillery and Arlene Smith, Earle Barnes' stenographer, entered the office, only a few steps behind Eve. "Don't tell us you October browns and yellows that are turning to such tactics to land were her favorite colors. She put a promotion," Arlene went on. 'Not after th' way I've been bragmindedness and all-around superiority of this office force!" "Goodness, no!" laughed Eve.

"The promotion, if any, hasn't a thing to do with my wish. I just came in from a date with a very special man. He's the marked victim of my fatal charm-not Mr. Barnes, nor yet Mr. Bixby." "Ob, I know," said Arlene, go."

"The strong, silent one who parks that yellow roadster at the side to articulate. entrance at quitting time about to pass up this madhouse in ex- give you talking points for many you, darling. You know—the could be issued. She knew she kind of marriage we talked about should not be thinking about all operating a kitchenet and can marriage we talked about this new talked about the could be issued. She knew she change for a permanent seat in weeks to come. Women read details that roadster and the privilege of partment store advertising prichange for a permanent seat in weeks to come. Women read deopener for that young man you'd better grab off the prize."

"Sometimes I really believe you

"Just watch me help myself to the first chance at sweet domes-

Eve laughed uneasily cates of it would submit to continuance to a vote at the next W. N. C. FARM election. The offer was spurned. The 1932 election might have determined the state's feeling on the subject.

Representative Coffey of Lenoir county warned during the legislature that a constant agitation against the sales tax would make the people terribly tax conthe state. It is that almost result which probably will weaken the efforts of the organization to fight the tax to death and repeal,

DISTRICT BAR

E. Frank Watson of Burnsville, was elected president of the state test farm there. Senator probably would have done tion at a meeting of lawyers of the program will begin at 10 to senator probably would have done to clock. The Rev. J. R. Owen, paster than the senator probably would have done to clock. The Rev. J. R. Owen, paster to control to control to the state test farm there. The administration to of French Broad Avenue Bapter to country. North Carolina to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The administration to control to the state test farm there. The senator probably would have done the state test farm there. The senator probably would have done the state test farm there. The senator probably would have done the state test farm there. The senator probably would have done the senator probably would have done the state test farm there. The senator probably would have done the sena the district Saturday afternoon o'clock in the morning. Presiding did well by the state in the earlier tist church, Asheville, will con- lina, to obtain an absolute divorce premises, to-wit:

elected chairman of the meeting farm at Swannanoa. with N. C. Harris of Rutherfordton, secretary. By-laws were adopted.

W. E. Breese of Brevard, was general assembly, but that would ed secretary-treasurer.

sonville, was elected councilor of til one is compelled by constitu- the State Bar.

versation was on dangerous ground. It had been on the tip of her tongue a moment ago to tell Arlene and Marya about the wedding that noon in the Little Stone Church, but she was not yet ready for that disclosure. Too many things were crowding themselves into this day. . . .

THE second of the most important events of Eve's life was to take place within two hours after her wedding. Two sharp sounds of the buzzer summoned her to the office of Earle Barnes. advertising manager of Bixby's. Although her work took her to Barnes' office many times each day, Eve felt half-sick with trepidation this time. She trembled involuntarily, and her head throbbed with a dull ache. Yet she strove to maintain an appearance of outward calm. A swift glance in the wavy old mirror hanging over the washstand in the corner reassured her, and the group gathered about Barnes' desk little suspected that the lovely, flushed face and eager bright eyes of the girl joining them masked real fright. Eve's chin was held high, however, and she managed a smile as she acknowledged the salutatory nod of white-haired Mr. Bixby, founder and owner of the store. So much depended upon the outcome of this conference.

Barnes drew up a chair for Eve next to Alice Marshall, who was first assistant advertising manager. Mr. Bixby brought from his vest pocket a pair of Oxford glasses which he unfolded and adjusted on his dignified nose. "The with the aid of those powerful lenses he could pierce through "No one. How lovely you look to her innermost thoughts and discover her secret.

"Miss Bayless," he began with customary dignity, "you are undoubtedly aware that it is the policy of the Bixby store to watch carefully the progress of each of its employees. From the time you joined us we have noted with satisfaction your spirit toward your work, your co-operation and your initiative." Mr. Bixby smoothed the narrow black ribbon attached to his glasses before he went on. "Miss Marshall is leaving us, as you, of course, know. And it becomes necessary for us to choose a successor to fill her position. Mr. Barnes and I discussed the matter of the New York trip after my talk with you this morning, Miss Bayless, and it has been definitely decided that you are to "Oh-how nice!" Eve managed

"It will give added interest and five evenings a week. Listen, importance to the launching of dearie, any time you get a chance your special column and ought to I've always contended, however, that in addition advercounting on you to make Bixby's advertising chatty and interesteventually depends largely upon yourself-the selling power of your copy, your initiative and the ability you display in other ways." "Thank you. I'll do my very best," Eve promised. later just as well." Eve was praying in her heart, "Not tonight.

sort of dependable, industrious considered a daring, preposterous penitent, as she slipped her arm young man to please the most thing. She went to Bixby's, most through his. And something reexacting parents. Nothing to exclusive store of all, and begged assuring, protecting, in his an-Mrs. O'Berry Is

ASHEVILLE, Aug. 7.—Be-Added to List of Carolinians Given Jobs

The Times-News Bureau Sir Walter Hotel at the State Test Farm at Swannanoa on August 17.

The principal speaker for the the Principal s RALEIGH, Aug. 7 .- Governor event will be Congressman R. L. of this bureau made ten days ago Doughton of Laurel Springs, of and the selection will be hard to Morgan, wife of the Rev. Ralph

L. E. Gardiner of Raleigh, state ley was stirring considerable in- about three weeks. ments for the event is S. C. Attorney General chose J. Craw- Rev. O. L. Robinson, pastor of required to appear at the office of general of Saluda Methodist church.

The morning session will be MacLean landed first assistant's her marriage Miss Fannie Ran- Hendersonville, N. C., on the 9th thence North 76 with the line of the control of the Clerk of Superior Court of said County in the Courthouse in the Co

the State Bar.

Pat Kimzey of Brevard, W. T.

Morgan of Marion, George Valentine of Hendersonville, E. B.
Cloud of Columbus, Charles

Cloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus, Charles

The Morgan of Marion agent. AthCloud of Columbus agent. At burdens that it has carried when relief was going out in such quantities and to such large numbers of people; but the need of discriminating judgment will be all the 21st day of August, 1933, at the greater and the appointment the Henderson county courthouse; of Mrs. O'Berry will be ideal in one pool table, to satisfy mechanreflected proudly. Her father, her but merely put her on her thetic about the way she ap-the first time she had ever shut she had made the rounds of all been told that she was going.

SALUDA, Aug. 7 .- Mrs. R. H. the ninth congressional district. beat as a concession to the wom- H. Morgan, pastor of Saluda Ban- IN SUPERIOR COURT. Among other speakers to be en.

Among other speakers to be en.

Heard will be R. W. Graeber of It has been known a long time at 6:30 o'clock at St. Luke's host of the long time at 8:30 o'clock at St. Luke's host of the long time at 8:30 o'clock at St. Luke's host of the long time at 8:30 o'clock at St. Luke's host of the long ti Raleigh, state extension forester; that Senator Josiah William Bai- pital. Tryon, after an illness of

But there is a lot of other conversation to the effect that overagitation may result in a deal of foreign business, that in order properly to present the odium of

But there is a lot of other conat the Isothermal hotel at Ruthover the meeting will be Arthur choices of major officials. Presiduct the services. He will be ason the ground of two years' sepadent Roosevelt named Josephus sisted by Dr. E. E. Bomar, pastor ration; and the said defendant paniels minister to Mexico, the of Tryon Baptist church, and the sproperly to present the odium of

Table Michael Schools was

Clark director of the State Test

Clark director of the State Test

Clark of Superior Court of principally taken up by speeches. place. Then Dr. W. E. Dodd, pro-dolph, of Landrum, is survived by day of August, 1933, and answer Demonstrations, contests, inspec- fessor of history in the Univers- her husband, her mother, Mrs. J or demur to the complaint in said tion of crops and other features ity of Chicago, was made ambas- H. Randolph, Landrum; two sis- action, or the plaintiff will apply elected vice-president, and J. S. are held during the afternoon, sador to Germany. Dr. Dodd has ters Mrs. L. C. Schumpert, Green-to the court for the relief demand-ville, S. C., and Miss Annie Randon willed the said complaint. bring their lunches and spread a North Carolina citizen with an dolph; one brother, W. I. Ran-James E. Shipman of Henderonville, was elected councilor of he State Bar.

James E. Shipman of Henderonville, was elected councilor of he State Bar.

John James E. Shipman of Henderonville, was elected councilor of he women's meeting which begins at 2 o'clock in These places pushed other womniece, Miss Dorothy Carpenter, niece, M

the opposition to the sales tax Dowell and Rutherford, and all will be ready in time for the an-her in, pressed her hand and closed the door. When he behind the wheel and started the motor Eve leaned over and kinsel him. With a quick is that no one was near, he ered her in his arms for a brief ustant and as quickly in

"Better wait vill we say

And Eve was glad for the lay. It was not going to to tell him. They fell-Dick driving at the remiles an hour to keep with the green lights and avoic stopping on the slippery aspinit Eve was sick with worty. She Enurgied as closely as the dared to Dick's arm.

"Happy?" he asked "You know I am." him and managed to smil-They drove to Mission lan for their wedding dinner, Eve was glad that Dick had selected this Earle Barnes, the advertising charming place. The evergreens Suddenly Eve was conscious of manager, to give her a trial, outside the imposing, the model that cheap, nondescript frame "Never mind discussing salary stuceo building were mould safely into the chamois bag with that cheap, nondescript frame "Never mind discussing satury with Christmas-like whiteness, her precious wedding ring. Eve that held her mother's picture. now," she had said. "Let me linside, soft organ music came went to the Y. W. C. A. where Always she had planned to buy a work two weeks. Then give me from the chapel.

she had roomed ever since com- better one, but always there had what you think I'm worth." And ing to Lake City, and packed a been something she had wanted that astute gentleman, who prided for herself. Now she was ashamed himself on his shrewdness in The small, shabby room at the that Dick should see her mother's judging an applicant's character fornia influence for which Missing Y that she had occupied these picture in this frame. It almost and ability, had told her to go Inn had been named was ever more in evidence. A stand ceiling of heavenly blue shut of girlhood already seemed a little know about the various things "But remember," he warned the winter night and storm was strange, a little deserted. Eve she had bought for herself with her, "I'm not prom'ting you a defit teria trailed along the caves and had stayed on here even after she money that might have bought a nite job. There isn't an opening hung in purple clusters. Enter could have afforded more attracframe. She would buy a new one make a place for yourself, saucily at the diners from their tive and comfortable quarters. in New York -a levely, silver one. Browse around here and there in ringed perches near the fountain, the store. If you see merchan- Here was a lemon tree in a richa dise that looks to you like news, tub and there an orange tree or was conveniently near her work, AS she packed for the trip Eve write about it. If you make an oleander. The air was fragrant with exotic blossoms. On And Eve had made good. Now a wrought iron balcony above sat a very reasonable rate. Eve pre- she really had very little beside Barnes was demonstrating his a senorita in yellow, wearing a ferred to economize thus and put her clothes to take to ner new faith in her ability by giving her black ince mantilla and a red rose the money saved into pretty home. She had never, as do so a column in Elxby's daily adver- in her hair. She was picking out ment. Eve was careful; thrifty.

She did nothing without a defiher sister, had dozens of lovely give the column an impressive worried as she was. Eve realized gifts to take with her when she start, Eve was to have a week in that she was hungry. She remem-From the little table that married. But Esther had had a New York. Two days with Freda bered now that she had eaten served as a writing desk the pic- leng engagement to a home town Carter, the dress buyer, on her nothing since breakfast. She tured face of Eve's mother smiled boy, showers, engagement parties, filled with gowns from the Rue its unusual piquancy of flavor, at her from its cheap frame- and a wedding to which a wide do la Paix, and the rest of the for which the inn was famous and the warm, steady mother-smile circle of relatives and friends week to look about for herself, ate with relish the baked squab that had been unfailing all were invited. Those things Eve's heart should sing, she told which was another specialty of herself, instead of lying like a the place. When the dessert arinterfering rived-frozen cream molded i Ler heart the form of mission bells-she should sing because she was looked thoughtfully across the

"Our wedding bells, Dick," she written to her mother that she started at Bixby's. Determined the evening of their weddingwas marrying Dick today. It was to get a foothold as a copy-writer, out him. And Dick had not yet "I like it this way," he said. "Without all the fuss and excitement. Just we two in a world

"y our 'ves . . . by oursely Eve murmured. Then she took

And of course her mother was needed a beginner and frankly from Bixby's. Dick was waiting. the plunge. certain to approve of Dick, Eve told her so, had not discouraged There was something almost pa-"Darling."

(To Be Continued)

said estate please make settle-ment at once with the undersigned. This July 24, 1933. MRS. M. L. JEFFRESS,

By virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed in

Henderson mentioned

Hendersonville, at BEGINNING at a North bank of Mus mon Osteen's corne ning thence with

J. H. YELTON, Truste

smart but simple black office siderate to ask questions that slipped a fresh sheet of paper Dear God, don't let it be tonight!" The change was accom- might prove unwelcome. She into her typewriter. The con-GERMANS PUSH Special Session of Solons Would Prove Unpopular CAMPAIGN OF AIR DEFENSE Wisdom of Extra Sitting

Systematic Drilling of Border Civilians Also Going Forward

BERLIN, Aug. 7 .- (UP) .-Germany is combining her demands for an effective defensive Carolina Just Tax association agree almost universally with the air force with a systematic campaign for civilian protection in predicate of unpopularity, and case of bomb, or gas attack from Sensational reports printed recently that strange foreign planes had appeared over Berlin and dropped anti-Nazi propaganda literature have added impetus to the movement.

Recently in Berlin authorities inaugurated a course of instruction in civilian defense. At the same time in Silesia extensive tests were being conducted in practical measures against attack Breslau, chief city of the section, is only 16 minutes from the border, and would be particularly vulnerable to an enemy air force. The tests, which lasted a week. included all conceivable emergency measures. It is planned to continue them in other parts of the Reich in an effort not only to develop the best means of defense campaign manager who published but to impress the civilian population with the importance of protection from air attack.

Meanwhile, however, the government will continue to campaign for a defensive air force strong and fast enough to combat enemy

There is no substitute for newspaper advertising.

PICNIC IS SET

tween 1500 and 2000 farmers and their families from various scious and stimulate trade outside parts of Western North Carolina are expected to attend the annual farmer's picnic to be held extension horticulturist; and J. terest in Washington for Mrs. Funeral services will be held at W. Hendrix of Statesville, directory in a federal position. The the First Baptist church, Landwill take notice that an action

Relief Director

work may not carry the heavy teaching at 18 years of age. recovery. Persons indebted to 7-24-Mon.-4tp. Marie II LIKE II that respect.

Illness Fatal to Mrs. Morgan

her breath

I will sell to the highest bidder for cash at 12 o'clock noon, on ic's lien for repairing same, and costs of sale.

W. J. MAXWELL, Hendersonville, N. C. 8-7-Mon-2tp

NOTICE SERVICE BY PUBLICATION NORTH CAROLINA.

> ALLIE LINDSAY H: S. LINDSAY

HENDERSON COUNTY.

This 10th day of July, 1933. J. P. FLETCHER, Clerk Superior Court, Henderson County, N. C.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

ble the legislature in extraordinary session brings extraordinary resentment down upon his head.

Nor would the average states man undertake now to offer the substitute revenue measure. The substitute revenue measure. The substitute revenue measure. The auditorium at the revival in business may settle that question. In the celebrated 1931

The auditorium at the test teemed her. The women were solvession. Frank L. Dunlap, leading the counties of Transylvania, ago, is now being rebuilt and residuent of the counties of the waiting for her.

. The November day had turned stormy and Eve brushed the show reached his roadster. How hand.

swer that he would always on is well have it over clothes r d educational advance many girls, bought pretty things tisement to fill with chatty com- seft melodies on a golden harp.

wrong, of course, not to have Eye recalled how she had Dick's wife. But t' is evening - lable at Dick.

she was going to New York with- smiled wistfully.

tant event of her life. True, she in Lake City before she reached Pick had decided hearing Birbr's. The fact that no one and Dick had decided hastily. Bixby's. The fact that no one haste and excitement, emerged been trying to tell you for a too. Dick Rader was exactly the mettle. Then she did what she proached him. "Oh, Dick, I've hour. I-nothing has ever been begin-but would you feel dread.

fully if I had to leave you?"

7-24-Mon.-6tp.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE

trust executed by Mrs. Lucik Hodge to the undersigned true tee, dated the 19th of October, 1931, and of record in book 116 at page 41 of the county deed in trust and morteage records, to secure the debtedness therein mention and default having been made in the payment of the debt and interest as the same became det and payable, at the request the owner and holder of the note secured by said deed will sell to the highest bidder for e door is cash at the court ho on the 22nd day of the following described land and feet to a stake on Spring Greek: then creek bank South minutes East 197 f thence still with South 29 degrees 230 feet to a 24 lar 'tree; thence South 84 degrees West 260 feet to isix inch wild che

Ewbank & Weeks, Attorney