That movie producer who called his wife a rotten actress had no idea how well she'd act up in

SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS

VOL. 52-No. 279

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1933

ENFORCEMENT OF CODES IS FORECAST

not Be Looked to for Relief if State Forced to Share in Cost

ALEIGH HOPES FOR AMENDED RULING

Nov. 22. - With in readiness to put men to work on hunad improvement proj ghout the state, under civil works administraam, plans have already nag and may be held up it was learned here while the state highblic works commission 500 and 600 projects submit to Mrs. Thomas now civil works adminthe state, and while ed the work, the quesether the civil works adn will supply all the ded for these projects, the state must pay a ming to expect the state, municipalities ut 30 per cent of the cost projects, or to furnish mway and public works comadmits that if the state buy all the material and ment needed or pay for 30 ont of the cost of these projhat it cannot do this out of appropriations for main-For this appropriation ced from about $12,000, ear to only about $6,000, ear by the last general asthus leaving it inadequate the most necessary main-There is enough n the highway funds to the state to use some of these civil works projects, revenue for the highway past year has increased estimates made during eral assembly. But since al assembly appropriated designated amount for this amount only used, even if there are sevin highway revenue state treasury, it is pointed meone can figure out how this unappropriated revebe used, everything will Chairman Jeffress said. so far no one has been able is and it doesn't seem likeat any one will." equently if the civil works insists that the ear a given portion of the inued on page three)

Owan Vote Bars 13 New Volumes acing Of Horses

LISBURY, Nov. 22.—Horse sterday in a countyn by a small majorby return from 31 recincts.

sing precincts are For the proposition, ame in from the rural world peace. Unofficial returns ion, 2734; against

Walter F. McCanless, Rowan County Fair

Cincinnati, New Orleans & las Pacific Railway declares dividend on common, first lent since May, 1932. Geo. Hormel & Co. reports net ne for year ended Octo-28 of $635,780, against 9 in preceding fiscal elieved, from the first in doleful poses such as this, often uation is just as likely to weaken concerning the attributed to her a secret sorrow, the price structure as to strength he civil works adminis- The reality of this sorrow was en it. It is a blind force that it would provide all revealed the other day when the raises world prices automatically necessary to carry on demure screen star, who always but just as automatically penalizes ects to give employ-state's quota of 68,-d that the state, coun-nicipalities would not but a very small por- Kosow. She charged Kosow with QUIT GOOD JOB TO ost of these projects. attempting to extort $18,00 from JOIN BRAIN TRUST loped since, however, her under threat of having her eivil works administra- adoption by Dr. Sigmund Sidney Prof. O. M. W. Sprague, execu-

'Secret Sorrow' Revealed

Two More Divorces Given Secretary Woodin took a leave of at Current Term Superior Court

In the superior court yesterday bank, and that the defendant was entitled to a preferred claim against the liquidating agent of

J. W. Drake was given a judgment against the Richbourg Motor Co., in the amount of $300. The court granted two divorces, bringing the total for this term to four. Euna Bell Orr Reese was Reese, and Allie Lindsay was granted a divorce from H. S. to this country as an adviser in

In City Library trust.

Studies

Thirteen new volumes have just been added to the International Il not likely change Mind alcove at the public library, five Salisbury pre- as a further contribution of the Property of Frank Besse-Carnegie Endowment for Internaast, 819, but this ma- tional Peace, in its efforts toward entirely obliterated as intercourse and education for Six of these books will be of precincts gave: For special interest to children, while seven are of appeal to the more on was sponsored and are most timely additions, dealing totally destroyed by fire of unas they do with Russia. Another Maple Grove stables is an interpretation of the French and 1 o'clock this morning. national spirit and two more will and the dollar.

nese family aboard a family boat on the Yangtze river Kees-a story of adventures in Holland: Ali Hassan-the story of a Persian boy; Totaram-the story of a village ooy in India; Nam and Ding-revealing life in Siam; and

NO CHANGE AS TO MONETARY POLICY AHEAD

Sprague's Resignation and Denunciation of Set Up Without Effect

ROOSEVELT, JOHNSON

22.—(UP).—Unperturbed by the resignation of Dr. O. M. W. tional recovery program with General Hugh S. Johnson. Administration advisers were quick to point out that Sprague's retirement didn't indicate any change in the present monetary policy.

SAYS ACTION GREAT PUBLIC SERVICE

CHICAGO, Nov. 22 .- (UP) .-Prof. O. M. W. Sprague "is performing a great public service" in calling attention to the basic fallacies of the administration's in-flation policy," Harland H. Allen, Chicago economist said in a state-Hollywood, seeing Sylvia Sidney needs to realize that dollar devai-

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (UP) tive assistant to the secretary of the treasury and an outstanding advocate of "hard money" resigned yesterday and wrote a letter to President Roosevelt denouncing the administration's dollar devaluation program.

He said the gold policy threatened a "complete breakdown of the credit of the government." will be placed on from time to time. Sprague's resignation is the fourth change at the treasury in a week. as Woodin's assistant, and Henry Morgenthau, Jr., was appointed to as follows:

Acheson's post.
Thus the battle lines were drawn sharply between the advo-velt, revealed he had been pushed to the background in the formulation of the recent financial policies of the administration, and he said "I have now reached the conclusion that there is no defense from a drift into unrestrained inflation other than an aroused and organized public opinion."

Mr. Roosevelt studied economic under Sprague in Harvard, and

RY, Nov. 22.—Horse pari-mutuel betting sterday in a county-LOST BY FIRE lieu Wiped Out After Midnight

known origin between midnight

Mr. Besselieu, formerly of Saenlighten the reader as regards vannah, Ga., is now a resident of finance, one dealing with interna- Hendersonville. He had heard tional debts, the other with gold nothing of the fire until advised by this correspondent over tele-The volumes of interest to the phone about 10:30 o'clock today. young, as giving insight into the He advised that the property was luda fire department.

GOVERNMENT'S GOLD PRICE IS UNCHANGED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (UP) The government fixed the price of the county commission.

Ching—another story of Chiese children, who make their ese children, who make their (Continued on page three)

Continued on page three)

C. W. Justus, associate member of the county commission.

G. W. Justus, associate member of the county commission.

H. Ramsey, attorney, Brevard, Service in a Baptist Church," by of the county commission.

H. Ramsey, attorney, Brevard, Service in a Baptist Church," by of the tremendous Duke for the stated that a joint meeting ounce today, unchanged from yes—

(Continued on page three)

C. W. Justus, associate member of the county commission.

H. Ramsey, attorney, Brevard, and A. H. Harris, engineer-lumber of the tremendous Duke for the three committees would be berman, Brevard. nese children, who make their ounce today, unchanged from yes-

Will Leave Soon

sador to See Roosevelt Soon

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (UP). With yesterday's announcement American negotiations was fore-WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. goodbye this afternoon

ence between the state department and Maximum Litvinov.

Roosevelt said a formal statement will be given out at Washington late today concerning con- homemaking to be found in our blind of North Carolina. versations between the state department and Commisar Litvinov.

Made in Memory of Mrs. A. G. Witherspoon resources of the Public Library here has been announced in the creation of the Witherspoon Memorial fund, through the oneration of which a number of books have recently been added to the library and by which more books with the products which fill our refrigients of the products which fill our refrigients and pantries and pantries and which which a program will be form-An interesting expansion of the will be placed on the shelves absence; Dean Acheson resigned plate, in addition to the usual purchased by this fund will be week at the Carolina theatre. "Urge your readers to Dies In Hospital; Funeral Held Up As Bomb Found of Her force.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 22 .-Sprague was tempted away (UP). - Funeral services were from a lucrative position with the leld up here for George Moody, Bank of England last April when alias Jack McNair, Nebraska, the administration was looking for when federal agents found nitroadditional talent for its brain glycerine bombs, a blasting fuse locked in a segregated cell from tuberculosis.

pending developments.

Litvinov's Task NEW FOODS, PRODUCTS AND Nearly Complete; RECIPES TO BE FEATURED ON EVERY DAY OF SCHOOL

Bullitt, New Soviet Ambas- Nationally Known Lecturer Sends Special Invitation

Early conclusion of the Soviet- of the Cooking School which will be held next week at the Carolina shadowed here when the state department announced that M. Theatre, the office of The Times-TO CONFER FRIDAY Dartment announced that M. News received several inquiries Secretary of State Phillips to sav from local merchants and markets WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. in some way. "It's fine," said one 22.—(UP).—President Roosevelt merchant, "to bring a famous lec-will meet with William C. Bullitt, turer here to tell the women about Sprague as treasury adviser, President Roosevelt made plans for a newly appointed ambassador to new ideas in cookery. But can't Bullitt will come to Warm we get in somehow, so these wom-Springs and is expected to out- en know what wonderful things the Blind, in co-operation with line developments of the confer- are really to be had in their own the North Carolina State School

The merchant was right, for not come from all over the world. Teas from India, spices from elsewhere in the Orient, fruit from the South Seas, and from California and Florida, fine flours from the great wheat fields of the Middle West, rich dairy products from our finest farms, superb cookery essentials which are the First Additions of Books American manufacturers are also face of the globe.

afternoon Patterson's Inc., was given judgment in the amount of a preferred claim of $3,894.91 against Gurney P. Hood, commissioner of banks, on the relation of the First Bank & Trust Co.

In answering the issues the jury held that J. Mack Rhodes, former president of the bank, had made presented to the bank had made presented to the bank had made plaintiff on the condition of banks, on November 5, 1930, when the money was deposited in "Separation on November 5, 1930, when the money was deposited in "Separation on November 5, 1930, when the money was deposited in "Separation on November 5, 1930, when the money was deposited in "Separation on November 5, 1930, when the money was deposited in the support of a so-called sound currency and the group headed by Gastonia and Jack Bank and which is in sympathy with Mr. Roosevelt's attempt to a preferred claim of $3,894.91 against Gurney P. Hood, commission of a so-called sound currency and the group headed by Morgenthau which is in sympathy with Mr. Roosevelt's attempt to a preferred claim of $3,894.91 against Gurney P. Hood, commission of the proposal placed on the shelves of the public library.

"This fund is given to the library by Mrs. E. G. Parker of the proposal placed on the shelves of the public library.

"This fund is given to the library by Mrs. E. G. Parker of the proposal placed on the shelves of the public library.

"This fund is given to the library by Mrs. E. G. Parker of the proposal placed on the shelves of the public library.

"This fund is given to the library by Mrs. E. G. Parker of the proposal placed on the shelves of the proposal placed on the shelves of the public library.

"This fund is given to the library by Mrs. E. G. Parker of the proposal placed on the shelves of the proposal placed on the shelves of the placed on the shelves of the proposal placed on the shelves of the placed on the shelves, who placed on the shelves, who placed on the shelves, who place

"Urge your readers to plan Name be school girls again next week. I want every woman for a pupilnot just because I have so much to tell her and show her, but because a good teacher learns from her pupils, too. I hope the women of Hendersonville will come out in

RIOTERS SEGREGATED

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22 .and torch lips in his property at last night with a detail of Philathe marine hospital where he died delphia police aiding the prison from tuberculosis.

delphia police aiding the prison guards. The riot, closely follow-Fingerprints of the dead man ing an attempt by 300 men to were taken and sent to Washing- scale the walls last Sunday, was The body is being held described as "serious" by Warden

TWO COUNTIES CHOOSE MEN FOR INQUIRY INTO FRENCH BROAD VALLEY PROPOSALS

seven are of appeal to the more mature reader, and of these two are most timely additions, dealing totally destroyed by fire of the late das. B. Buke, totally destroyed by fire of untiture because the more dwelling and furniture was believed and furniture was believed to Act But Preliminary Examination of Federal Development Problem Expected

"Looking Unto Jesus for Motives in Church Work." Miss Ethen birthday.

For this young lady, who has to Take Place in Few Days Intelligence or fact-finding com- held within the next few days so by Chorister Junius Huggins.

mittees have been named in Hen- that the members of the joint derson and Transylvania counties committees might exchange inphone about 10:30 o'clock today.
He advised that the property was partly covered by insurance. The property is located just out of the town limits and therefore no assistance could be given by the Saluda fire department.

In Scity, according to Dr. L. B. lows: Judge J. Foy Justice, attended number of militows: Judge J. Foy Judge J. Foy Justice, attended numb life of foreign peoples, are:

| partly covered by insurance. The this city, according to Dr. L. B. lows: Judge J. Foy Justice, at| property is located just out of the this city, according to Dr. L. B. lows: Judge J. Foy Justice, at| property is located just out of the this city, according to Dr. L. B. lows: Judge J. Foy Justice, atadjoining counties on the French Hendersonville and Etowah; L. Broad river. Buncombe county L. Burgin, farmer, Horse Shoe; Bear Wallow B.Y.P.U. has not announced its committee. Harry M. Roberts, farmer and Dr. Morse was in Henderson-traveling salesman, Fletcher: F. Work in My Church," James K 000,000. ville today when he conferred Carl Allison, farmer, Brevard; J. Ramsey, of Fruitland Institute. with T. L. Durham, chairman and C. Wike, mayor, Brevard; George -The government fixed the price G. W. Justus, associate member Maxwell, farmer, Brevard; Ralph for an opportunity to participate Civic Club Leaders to Hear Field Worker at Skyland Thursday 3:30 P. M.

The American Foundation for for the Blind and interested groups of citizens, are endeavoring to collect information regardonly are the obvious necessities of ing the number and needs of the Mrs. grocers' shops, markets, the dai- George Moland is vitally interries, bakeries and other stores but the supplies available to every ed a meeting of the presidents the supplies available to every woman of Henderson county include wonderful assortments which cial, civic, religious and political organizations of Hendersonville to meet Miss Lotta S. Rand, the foundation's representative, who will speak on "How and What to do for Those Who Live in Dark

This meeting is to be held in the sun room of the Skyland hotel, Thursday, Nov. 23, at 3:30 products of American industry p. m. The meeting is not for the and which are so excellent that purpose of raising money but rather to organize plans for makexporters, sending these same ing a thorough survey of the products to every country on the number and needs of the blind in North Carolina. Every person Living so close to these won- who reads this announcement is ders we lose sight of their impor- asked to send at once the names tance and quality. Next week's and addresses of any blind or erators and pantries, and which sembled a program will be form make the meals our families love, ulated endeavoring to help the Mrs. J. Watson Shockley urged blind of North Carolina to be-vention will be in charge of Rev. The world's largest airplane, just The announcement concerning this paper to repeat as often as ing marked with a memorial book so purchased being marked with a memorial book sign of the cooking school will be to solve the cooking school will be sion of the cooking school will be | Following is a copy of the odist church. The opening serv- cording to dispatches reaching their housework so that they may Address

> B.Y.P.U. PLANS ASSOCIATION tion to meet these services. MEET SUNDAY DORIS DUKE

(Continued on page three)

To Open at Baptist Church 2:30 P. M.; Miss Pressley to Preside

The Carolina B. Y. P. U. associational meeting will be held in this city at the First Baptist church Sunday, November 26, observing a formal program which has been arranged to begin at (Copyright, 1933, United Press) of the 200 CCC workers.

2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(UP). 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. day's program has been planned is daughter of the late Jas. B. Duke, follows:

2:40 p. m.—Devotional — Miss Thelma Drake, Beulah B.Y.P.U. 2:50 p. m.-Special music. 2:55 p. m .- Roll call and announcements.

3:45 p. m.—Special music.

Will Confer on Blind in Area

Miss Lotta S. Rand, above, asso- ing the success of certain codes. ciate director of the field service of the American Foundation for pointing out "it is fundamentally the Blind, with headquarters at New York, who will meet social tent" of the Recovery Act that and civic leaders here tomorrow in efforts to relieve any distress from this source.

Four-Day Convention Will Be Held at Church, Opening Thursday

The western district of the The music of the entire con-library markings has been made recipes demonstrated for the first make this census a complete and at 7:30 p. m. with an address of dent were not available. "A number of new books, the purchase of which has been made possible by the recently donated Witherspoon Memorial fund, have been placed on the shelves of the wellows a courage one.

"Eabor saving devices," said being seriously defective eyesight or is service will be in charge of the welcome by the local pastor and host, Rev. Dewey O. Miller. Rev. A. E. Belk, B. D., will follow with the response. Communion the shelves of the welcome by the local pastor and host, Rev. Dewey O. Miller. Rev. A. E. Belk, B. D., will follow structure with six motors and was built to carry 120 passengers. With the response. Communion the seriously defective eyesight or is service will be in charge of the welcome by the local pastor and host, Rev. Dewey O. Miller. Rev. With it response. Communion the seriously defective eyesight or is service will be in charge of the welcome by the local pastor and host, Rev. Dewey O. Miller. Rev. With six motors and was built to carry 120 passengers. The dead included Michael Snegirof, one of the best known available.

The plane was an all-metal structure with six motors and was built to carry 120 passengers. The dead included Michael Snegirof, one of the best known available.

Carolina conference, Rev. J. A. were made throughout the prov-

Clement, will be present throughout the convention and present building barricades at strategic new plans to the pastors. He will also arrive a day earlier and hold the first quarterly conferclude any person whose eyesight ence tonight with the local s so impaired that he or she is church. There will be three services each day at 9:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. There will be no afternoon service Saturday. The public has a cordial invita-

Wealth and Great Responsibility Come to Quiet Heiress Today

The theme around which Sun- Doris Duke, tall slender, blonde

The program for Sunday is as | ica's richest girl," it means far less of wealth and luxury than it 2:30 p. m .- Song service, led means the coming of responsibil-

> Under the provisions of her father's will this is what the day brings to Doris:

She comes into possession in her own right of property worth 3:05 p. m.—"Worthy Motives an unestimated number of milhaps a guess at the amount Doris 3:25 p. m.—"Why I Like to receives might be made at $10,

She becomes a trustee of the Duke Endowment, which, by her 3:50 p. m.—"Opportunities for father's will and by trusts he set

ARMS PARLEY GOES OVER TO MID-JANUARY

Russian-Built World's Biggest Plane Crashes With 14 Fatalities

PINAR DEL RIO IS ALARMED BY REVOLT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (UP) Recovery Administrator Johnson made it clear that the NRA will enforce codes in cases where industries themselves prove unable to do so.

Following up his recent swing around the country on which he found lax enforcement threatenwithin both the letter and the inthe code administration be carried out as much as possible through code authorities and trade associations, but, it is equally fundamental, he said, "that the ultimate responsibility for an efficient code administration lies with the NRA."

PRIVATE NEGOTIATIONS

WILL BE NEXT MOVE GENEVA, Nov. 22 .- (UP) .-The steering committee of the world arms conference voted today to adjourn the parley until mid-January. It held only a formal 10-minute session and passed Arthur Henderson's motion for adjournment without debate.

The parley now enters a new phase, one of complex private diplomatic negotions among European powers, exploring the possi-

MOSCOW, Nov. 22 .- (UP) .-

ince today. Troops were active in points.

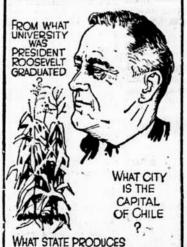

FASSIFERN FRIDAY

Fassifern School announces that it takes great pleasure in bringing to Hendersonville Miss Polly Vaughan, a young reader, of Attion to meet with this church in lanta. Miss Vaughan will appear in the school auditorium Friday evening, November 24, at 8 o'clock, in an attractive program of readings in costume with music accompaniment.

Miss Vaughan has planned beautiful and appropriate stage settings and lighting effects which add greatly to the interest and attractiveness of her program.

TORNADO HITS CAMP

ANNISTON, Ala., Nov. 22. (UP).—A tornado struck Civilian Conservation Corps Camp No. 468 near here last night, injuring nine

THE MOST CORN ? For correct answers to these questions, please turn to page 5.