Frightful Cataklysm on the Pacific Coast -- Two Earthquake Shocks Followed by Awful Conflagration.

Hundreds of Lives Lost and Millions of Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

LAST EDITION

By a special Cabinet dispatch.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 4:49 p.m. -- The proud city of San Francisco is doomed. Another earthquake shock occurred at 2:20. This put the final straw to the back. People fell before their noses. The lay swarms with bones.

Two ships sank in the bay at 1 o'clock.

Ten ran on the banks was awful. The First National bank collapsed as 1,000 people were inside the doors claming whistle and running.

The death list will run far into the thousands.

Shocks continue at intervals. The old thought now is safety.

The flames can not be checked and the whole city is doomed to total destruction.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 11 a.m. -- The Postal Telegraph is preparng to evacuate its buildings. This will shut off all telegraphic communication with the outside world.

The whole city is threatened with destruction. There is no way of estimating Funes. The property loss so far is estimated in the neighborhood of fifty millions.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 11:20 a.m. -- The Postal Telegraph empleado have been forced to leave the office.

Chicago, Ill., April 18. -- Authorities report this afternoon from San Francisco say it is certain that the death list will run into the thousands.

ENTIRE CITY DOOMED.

Unions. Wind Springs Up From west to Blow Flames Toward the Bay.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 11 a.m. -- Unless a wind comes up from the west, the fire may be blotted out in many cases.

The ex-destroyed building is in flames and the back of the eleven-storied Monadnock building near completion, has fallen out. The well by Sacramento, California, Platte and Farnsworth streets, is doomed. The damage is already extensive. A block of forty houses. The following buildings have been destroyed: Pacific States Telephone Co., Radio, The National, the hydrographic Mutual Life building.

The bodies are in the morgue. Mayor has appointed a relief committee of fifty. Military are patrolling the streets, ordered out by General Pershing, guarding banks and other establishments, with orders to shoot anyone molesting the dead. The banks are open and there is a rush of departements draw out money. All saloons are closed.

FRIISED, CLIMBING, Being Destroyed by Fire.

CERES.

Toward the bay.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 11 a.m. -- A fire comes up from the west, where the fire is ascending toward the bay, west.

This can stop the destruction of the city. The west north is wrecked and the flames are spreading in all directions. The ex-post-office building is in flames and the back of the eleven-storied Monadnock building near completion, has fallen out. The block bounded by Sacramento, California, Platte and Farnsworth streets, is doomed. The damage is already extensive. A block of forty houses.

The following buildings have been destroyed: Pacific States Telephone Co., Radio, The National, the hydrographic Mutual Life building.

The bodies are in the morgue. Mayor has appointed a relief committee of fifty. Military are patrolling the streets, ordered out by General Pershing, guarding banks and other establishments, with orders to shoot anyone molesting the dead. The banks are open and there is a rush of departements draw out money. All saloons are closed.

CERTAINLY HORRIBLE.

Dead May Number Thousands. Catastrophe Grows Worse.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 4:49 p.m. -- Advance news from Ferry to Front street on one side and Pacific and Market street and out to Seventh with special fireworks in the park section and the western districts.

There is no way of estimating the dead. It may be hundreds.

There is hardly any water and it is impossible to say when the fire will stop. Postal Telegraph operators remain at their posts. The red cross of their lives, as the building is threatened with collapsing, and the fire is within a block of Oakland, across the bay, as soon as a boat can be procured to carry operators there. The fire is so fierce now between Market and Clay, however, as to make it impossible to reach a boat at present.

At Market, corner of Clay and Merchants, has collapsed, killing six.

The Grand opera house is burning fiercely and a ten-story building adjoining it is apparently done as are other buildings between the theatre and St. Patrick's church.

Many people are seen from the Palace hotel. The gas works, south of Market street have blown up and started another big fire in that section of the city.

A portion of the Mission, several miles from the burning section, is in flames. A fire began at seventeen-storied and is raging over a hundred.

Fire covers the entire southern section of the city.

In Oakland fire companies were killed by the collapse of the Empire building.

The once block at Market and Polk is in flames, and will probably be a total loss.

GENERAL POSTS CALLS OUT All available troops.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18. -- General Pershing has called out all available troops for service if necessary. The board of supervisors will meet immediately to take measures for relief and protection of sufferers. Chief of Fire Department Sullivan is in a precarious condition. Both he and his wife were injured.

CITY NOW UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Seems that Entire Section of San Francisco Must Be Burnt Down.

San Francisco, Cal., April 18, 11 a.m. -- A brutal disaster is in progress. Mary Schmitz has called for the assistance of the entire organized fire department and ordered that all dynamite available be used in blowing up buildings in order to save the fire.

At 11:45 it was reported that a serious fire is burning at the newspaper office, where the state university is located.

FIVE HUNDRED BUILDINGS ALREADY IN MOURNE.

Hundred of People Fleeing From San Francisco, Los Angeles Hours.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 18. -- It is reported that five hundred buildings are already in the morgue at San Francisco.

The citizens have been brought to constantly have firemen being sent out.

The telegraph offices have been destroyed; the Examiner, Call, Biallo, Postal and Western Union buildings.

General Pershing has declared martial law.

At Sacramento, Too.

Sacramento, Cal., April 18. -- A severe earthquake shock occurred here early this morning. There is great confusion. No loss of life is reported.

Slight Damage at Sacramento.

Sacramento, Cal., April 18. -- No damage reported. All buildings are said to be intact. A number of buildings have been reported damaged, however.

At Portland, Oregon.

Portland, Ore., April 18. -- A good many buildings and houses have been damaged in every direction and people are moving out of the town section. The loss of life is not reach the hundreds. One man was killed.

The district lying between Market and Howard streets, from Bay to east on the river side, is badly wrecked. Hotels in the vicinity of Third and Market streets are completely wrecked.

The same is reported of the Western Union and building.

At Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., April 18. -- Much damage reported. A number of buildings have been damaged as the result of the earthquake. It is reported that hundreds of buildings in that city have fallen and that fires are destroying the city.