More Cabinet Talk.

CANTON, Ohio, Jan. 16.—Judge Joseph McKenna, of California, prominently mentioned as the leading slope cabinet possibility arrived here this morning and was an early caller at Maj. McKinley's house. The fact that Judge McKenna is on the United States bench and made the trip from California at this time, seems to indicate that he will be offered and accept a cabinet portfolio.

Senator Quay, Senator-elect Boise and Penrose, of Pennsylvania, arrived here this morning and the proposed appointment of Charles Emoy Smith, of Philadelphia, to the cabinet was discussed. Senator Quay is not personally opposed to Mr. Smith.

The Fishermen Saved.

MENOMINEE, Mich., Jan. 16.—Yesterday afternoon a strip of ice ten miles long extending along the Lake Michigan shore from the mouth of the Menominee river southward was broken loose from the shore by a heavy wind, carrying off thirteen fishermen into the middle of the lake. Four men were saved by boats, but the wind changing into a gale broke up the ice floe, and it was feared the others would perish during the night. The ice was blown against Green Island, where all were safely landed.

What the President says.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—President Blair, of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railway company made a statement today in reference to the appointment of receivers, for that road, saying that the difficulties of the company result chiefly from the extremely low rates in bituminous coal traffic, which comprises more than one half the company's tonnage. Strikes and bank failures did the rest. The property, however, is in excellent condition, and the interest on the bonded debt will be punctually paid.

Raising the Scale.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 16.—The national miners convention today, elected Michael Patchford of Ohio, president; John Kale, editor of the Mine Worker's Journal, was elected vice president, and W. C. Pearce, the secretary-treasurer, was re-elected. The scale of wages was completed, and February, 1897, fixed as the date to take effect. Advanced wages for all mine employees are to be paid by day in the same proportion as wages paid by the ton.

Bishop Keane Promoted.

ROME, Jan. 16.—Bishop Keane, formerly rector of the Catholic university at Washington, but recently appointed by the pope as bishop assistant to the pontifical throne, has also been made councillor to the congregations of the Propaganda. It has been observed in Vatican circles that Bishop Keane enjoys the special favor of the pope.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The weekly statement of the associated banks of New York shows the following changes: Reserve increase $8,181,075; loans increase $283,000; specie increase $928,000; legal tenders increase, $9,859,800; deposits increase $9,384,100; circulation, decrease $163,900. The banks now hold $52,099,523, in excess of legal requirements.

Stock Market.

WALL STREET, Jan. 16.—Stocks opened strong and in good demand. Active issues advanced 1/4 to 1/2 per cent in first transactions, general electric leading. The appointment of receivers for the Wheeling and Lake Erie road naturally had an unfavorable influence on the stock and common fell 1/2 per cent to 2 1/2.

A "smart creak" in his canvass for another paper takes the trouble to inform a bright business man that the service now given by the HERALD is not a day service, but is called from the Associated Press night report. If that is the case why is it that the HERALD publishes the news first? May be the HERALD is unduly favored to the detriment of its morning contemporaries. The matter by all means should be investigated.

DAN STUART'S DEPARTURE

His Point of Destination is not Given to the Public.

D. A. Stuart was a west bound passenger on the Texas and Pacific train yesterday morning, says the Dallas News. He carried away with him two large sized grips, a big trunk, a map of the possessions of Porfirio Diaz and also a map of the United States. His intimate friends were close mouthed. One said: "Dan has gone to Mineral Wells. He has great faith in the medicinal virtues of mineral springs water." Another said: "Dan has gone to Mexico. Billy Wheelock is in the City of Mexico buying parrots, and I think Dan has gone down to the capital city of the Montezumas for his health." Hugh P. Kane remarked: "Mr. Stuart did not take me into his confidence, but it is likely that he has gone east, perhaps to Chicago, to unfold all his plans and divulge all his secrets to the newspaper correspondents, in order to quiet their nerves and make it possible for the boys to get a little sleep at night. Really, I have no knowledge of Mr. Stuart's plans, nor can I throw any light on just where he has gone."

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—This afternoon was set apart for the delivery of eulogies upon the late ex-Speaker Crisp, of Georgia. The opening hour was devoted to the consideration of business under unanimous consent.

Trying to Clich 'Em.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Carlos Roloff, secretary of war of Cuban junta provisional government and Dr. Joseph Luis, accused of aiding and abetting in the Cuban filibustering expedition, were before United States Commissioner Shields for examination today. General Roloff is already under indictment, on a similar charge, but this is Dr. Luis' appearance before United States authorities. After consultation the case was adjourned until next Saturday.

The Bombay Plague.

Over half the population of this city, estimated at about 900,000, has fled from the plague. It is estimated that 800,000 persons are encamped at Andheria, whence they will soon be forced to migrate, owing to the lack of water and sanitation threatening to breed cholera. The greatest difficulty is experienced in burying the dead, friends and relatives refusing to carry the corpses. A large number of plague corpses have been eaten by vultures.

The Official Returns Show that up to last evening there were 3,294 cases of butonic plague and 2,356 deaths from that disease.

The Atchison Will Get It. Arrangements, it is said, have been made whereby the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad company will acquire the western division of the Atlantic and Pacific, which runs from Albuquerque, N. M., to Mojave, Cal., a distance of 834 miles. This will give the Atchison absolute control of a through line to the Pacific coast, as the Atchison's main line connects with the Atlantic and Pacific at Albuquerque, and the Southern California, which the Atchison controls, makes connection with the Atlantic and Pacific at Barstow, Cal.

Interesting Runaway.

Zeke Newman and W. D. Howe started to attend the Fort Bliss hop the other night, but were somewhat, as it were, delayed, or words to that effect. Zeke had got into the buggy, and Howe was just starting to precipitate himself thereon also, when the horse plunged, reared, kicked, and behaved in a highly unseemly way generally.

Howe on seeing what was up, thought discretion the better part of valor, and retreated from further attempts to enter the vehicle, and presently as Newman was grabbing at the lines, the horse gave a wild dive, and sped down San Antonio street like a streak of greased lightning. Zeke held on manfully and mightily, and as the horse reached the Baptist church, he circled the building thrice, and then dashed up town again where the stalwart young baseball player from the Brown university nine, by a herculean effort, managed to stop the fiery steed, and a new one was substituted.

This anomaly carried the young men safely to the fort, but to, and behold, when they came to leave, they found to their dismay that the horse had pulled up the hitching post and gone home. He was tired of waiting for them to get through dancing. So the young men had to borrow whitts to return home on. Zeke's arms are still sore, but he manages to get around.

The Corralitos cattle company's suit against the Texas & Pacific for damages for detentions in shipment of cattle, was given to the jury this afternoon.

ON A MOVE.

CUBAN GENERAL GOMEZ GETTING READY TO ATTACK HAVANA.

Severe Loss at the Battle of Santa Clara. The Insurgents Are Steadily Coming Up.

The New York Press of yesterday claims to have received news through private channels that General Maximo Gomez, who stormed and captured the important city of Santa Clara January 9, is now moving on Havana with 18,000 men. The famous cavalry leader, Quintin Bandera, was mortally wounded, the Press says, and General Luque, commanding the Spanish, was also wounded.

News received last night said the losses were: Spanish estimated killed and wounded, 900; prisoners, 700; cannon captured, 18; battle standards, 4; rifles in Spanish arsenal, 5,000, with plenty of ammunition.

Cubans killed and wounded, 1,500, which is 600 more than the Spanish loss. The Press quotes Carlos Roloff saying the report is credible. The junta has no news.

Late reports from Havana indicate an invasion of Havana province soon. The insurgents are near Havana, and large parties are seen daily near the suburbs, five to ten miles from the capital. Calvarious, less than ten miles from the city, was sacked Saturday, the insurgents driving out the Spanish garrison of 700 men and then burning nearly half the place. They seized a large amount of supplies, destroying all they could not carry off.

Two large field pieces that they could not take with them handily, not having horses, were spiked and rendered useless to the Spanish. These two guns had just been received by Weyler, and one had been sent there last week. By the irony of fate one bore Weyler's name, and was inscribed, "To aid Weyler's glorious deeds." The retiring Cubans defaced the inscription, and placed a placard on it reading "Butchers only need cleavers."

General Weyler is greatly worried over the attacks made by the insurgent bands so near the capital, and the Havana papers have the strictest orders not to mention anything of the kind under the severest penalty. It is common news in Havana, and the people, while outwardly loyal to Weyler, are in reality biding their time to overthrow him and get Campos back. Weyler's campaigns are made the jest of the officers in private, and his entire army is disloyal to him, on account of his neglect of it. Two hundred wounded soldiers came into Havana Friday and Saturday. All information regarding them was refused, and they were hastily sent to the hospitals.

In less than a week the advance guard of Gomez's army has destroyed by fire 21 of the most valuable estates in the province of Matanzas and the work of destruction continues as the army moves along. The people of Havana are at least becoming thoroughly alarmed at the situation and all that possibly can have already left the place.

Those who have been detained are making preparations to leave with all possible haste. Many of those who have been outwardly loyal to Spain have lost all confidence in General Weyler's ability to handle the insurgents, and they now actually fear for the safety of Havana. Skirmishes occur every day in Pinar del Rio.

Grip Raging in Texas.

North Texas is suffering from an epidemic of grip, and in Fort Worth one physician says there are 5000 cases. From the county and from many of the smaller towns in adjoining counties come similar reports. Judge Charles Davis, collector of the port of El Paso, who has just come from San Antonio and that part of Texas, says the trouble is worse there than here, and he was informed that there were 8000 or more cases there at one time under treatment—Fort Worth dispatch in Globe Democrat.
