A Tombstone Genius.
The Phoenix Republican says: "The ambitious liar whose work on the Tombstone Prospector is commanding territorial admiration, has just published a story of a Phoenix man, an imaginary E. E. Baker, who has brought suit for divorce against his wife, alleging in his complaint her inordinate use of buttermilk, four gallons a day. The author is the same man who some time ago anticipated the Klondike craze by setting the mining world afire with the story of some cow near Tombstone which sweat gold absorbed by licking an auriferous rock composed of saline matter." This must be the same genius who bodily swiped the HERALD's rules for the dramen's bare ball match the other day, and deliberately took the credit himself.

Nearly half a million of Mexican pesos passed through this city last evening by Wells-Fargo express from the Mexican Central to the Southern Pacific for shipment west. The money was mostly in boxes and loaded down with large drays. Agent M. B. Davis sat on the high seat of the rear wagon with a revolving cannon watching his charge, and prepared to defend the same with his life—if need be. Only there was not any "need be." This treasure went through perfectly safe.

THE MUTUAL LIFE is the oldest company in the United States and the largest and strongest on earth. Its dividends to policy holders have never been equalled by any other company.
It is the only company in existence that has paid $3,000,000 on a $1,000 policy or $30,000 on a $10,000 policy. This has done in every year for the past twenty years and is still doing on old policies maturing.

S. H. NEWMAN, Mutual Life.

The old barracks and jail that have done service for 100 years and more at Juarez, Mexico, are to be abandoned soon, and a new jail and barracks will be erected with all the modern safeguards and conveniences in the rear of the custom house. The old quarters have a wonderful history, and have done service for the principals in all the revolutions for a century in Mexico. Within a stone's throw of these old buildings, President Benito Juarez had his headquarters when his army had dwindled to 30 men and an orderly. Colonel Cutting, the American who came so near involving the United States in war with Mexico ten years ago, was confined in this bastille. Cattle thieves, smugglers, murderers, and every class of criminals and political prisoners have been confined within its walls.
Every one seems glad that it is to be torn down and succeeded by better buildings.

The Canutillo picnic party returned this noon covered with sunburn, happy looks, calico dresses and overalls, and loaded down with "bull rushes," "cat tails" and an interesting experience.

C. R. Morehead has decided to Lucile Davis for 19, 20, 21, and 22, block 18, Franklin Heights, for $1030.

Suspects Captured.

TRINIDAD, Colo., August 25.—On Saturday Constable Green and Deputy Sheriff Coker, of Colfax county, N. M., placed in the Las Animas county jail, four more men supposed to have been implicated in the killing of Deputies Green and Kelly. The prisoners are Kelly killing, while Archuleta and enings from shoes, buttons and teeth.

Jingo's Fairy Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 25.—It is learned from Paul J. Henning, an employee of the Pacific Phosphate company, that the American flag is flying on Clipperton island. He and two other men living on the island successfully resisted the attempt of Captain Mc-Murtry, of the ship Kinkora, to hoist the British flag there three months ago. The Kinkora was wrecked and the three Americans held as wreckage nearly 1,000,000 feet of lumber which was washed ashore. H. M. S. Comus visited the island later, but did not disturb the stars and stripes, or enter a claim for the valuable lumber.

The Lutger Case.

CHICAGO, August 25.—The work of securing a jury in the Lutger case is progressing slowly. Not one has yet been secured. The defense offers many objections on which to base an appeal case if there should be a conviction.
When the case was opened this morning half a dozen expert criminologists occupied seats close to the blonde athletic prisoner. A great crowd of curious interested people where present. The majority of the spectators today were well dressed women.

When court adjourned this afternoon four jurors were sworn in.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, August 25.—The crisis in the big coal strike was reached in Cleveland today when it became a tained Judge Bantz in the irrigation injunction suit.

The message from Santa Fe reads:

firmed. The supreme court announces that our plea is sustained, and will file
