PILOT POINT.

A Big Day for the Cotton-Sellers—Seventy-Five Wagon Loads in Procession.

Special to the Gazette.

PILOT POINT, TEX., Oct. 23.—Rev. A. L. Dotson, colored, of Fort Worth addressed the colored people this evening in Harrison's hall.

Mr. E. R. Harris, who is operating Smidtz & Co.'s furniture business here, has rented the new hotel just completed and will take possession next week. It has been christened the Star hotel. Your reporter bespeaks for the new hotel and new proprietor a grand success in his new business venture.

Messrs. Roark, Burch and Montgomery, a committee from the farmers of Cooke county, were in town this morning to receive a bid from our cotton buyers on 200 bales which were on the wagons a few miles from town awaiting orders from the committee to move forward. They had previously received bids from Gainesville and Sherman. Messrs. Neuby & Co., W. S. McShan, Baird & Co., J. P. Cooper, Ham & Wilson, N. Wilson & Co., T. S. Johnson, Nunn & McFarland, representing the Merchants' Protective association, proposed an offer of 8 80, which was accepted, and at noon about seventy-five wagons, moving in procession, took complete possession of the square. After waiting a short time for James & Moffitt, photographers, to take a negative of the scene, they moved on to the yard. The farmers were given a free dinner and enjoyed the hospitalities of our city to the fullest extent. The committee, in behalf of the farmers of south Cooke county, tendered their thanks to the business men of Pilot Point for the liberal bid and other courtesies received, assuring us that in future the trade of south Cooke county was wedded to this city, and that they were done with Jew-stricken towns.

The County Teachers' association meets here Saturday at the seminary.

Candidates for representative are billed for this place Saturday to address the people.

ON 'CHANGE.

The Stock Market Was Active and Irregular Yesterday—Provisions Dull, Cotton Steady.

The Grain Markets Were Dull and Prices Lower, Corn Being Almost Panicky—The Quotations.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Governments strong and higher.

Railways steady.

State securities quiet.

Stocks to-day were active and prices irregular. At the opening prices were lower. The weakness was short lived, however, and before 11 there was a sharp rally of ¼ to 1¼, but subsequently this was lost. Near midday a moderate buying movement set in, and prices advanced before 1 o'clock. Jersey Central was raised to 41¾. This unsettled the list once more. Trunk lines also heavy, Lake Shore falling to 83¾. New York Central to 85¾. Union Pacific exceptionally firm, advancing to 53 3-4 on the report that the dividend would be resumed next year, and the publication of the treasurer's statement that the company's department had on hand $5,176,000, in contract $10,118,887, total of $13,294, 87; land bonds outstanding, $4,473,000, leaving surplus $8,849,857. The market closed firm, compared with last night's prices, being ¼ to 1 per cent lower for Central Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Quincy, Louisville & Nashville, Jersey Central, New York Central, Texas & Pacific, and Western Union, and ¼ to 1 per cent. higher for Northwestern, Lake Shore, Northern Pacific preferred, Pacific Mail, Reading, Omaha and Union Pacific. Michigan Central was 2 per cent. lower at 95.

Transactions, 752,000 shares.
