CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

Dr. E. S. Randals attended the commencement exercises at Meharry last week.

Messrs. Shirley, Cliff and Wilbur Fugitt, of Nashville, spent Easter in this city.

Dr. Frierson, of Chattanooga, was in the city last week.

Mr. Andrew Oakley, of Paris, Tenn., was in the city on business Saturday.

Mr. Ira Watson, of Nashville, was the guest of his mother, Erizer Watson, Easter Sunday.

Dr. C. A. Kelly spent Thursday and Friday in Nashville, and was present at the commencement exercises at Meharry.

Miss Alma Harris has been confined to her home several days this week on account of illness.

Dr. Hall, the well-known surgeon of Chicago, spent two days in this city last week.

Mme. Anita Patti Brown, Chicago's celebrated soprano soloist, will appear at St. Peter's A. M. E. Church Monday night, April 19, in the interest of the Court of Calanthe.

Easter services were held at all the churches Sunday and the ideal weather caused them to be well attended.
Mrs. Hall, wife of Dr. Hall, spent several days with Miss Addie Burk, of Franklin street.

Mr. Henry Randals left last Friday morning to take up his work at Winchester, Tenn.

Messrs. Terry and Jackson have opened a plumbing and steamfitting establishment on Franklin street.
Mr. Terry has lately returned from Los Angeles, Cal., and has had large experience along such lines.

Dr. Hall, of Chicago, will address the members of the Clarksville Negro Business League on his return trip to this city.

The Sunday-school of St. Peter's A.
M. E. Church gave a splendid Easter entertainment Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The recitations, songs etc., of the little ones showed careful training on the part of their teacher.
A collection of eleven dollars was taken for missionary purposes.

A grand concert and banquet will be given at Fifth Ward Baptist Church April 19th and a pleasant evening's entertainment is promised to all who attend.

Practice for commencement exercises is the order of the day at the public schools.

Messrs. Geo. Kimbrough, Rodman Smith and others of the Clarksville fraternity spent Easter in Hopkinsville, Ky.

Two major operations were performed at the Clarksville Home Infirmiry this week.

CENTERVILLE NOTES.

The Easter program at the A. M. E.
Church Sunday evening was greatly enjoyed by all. The program was rendered before a packed house. Praise should be given Miss R. R. Meriweather and Mrs. Laura Walker for their excellent work.

Miss Lucile Walker has returned from Dickson, where she went Easter.

The prize of a $2.50 gold piece offered by Mr. C. D. Sullivan (white) for the best composition on Tuberculosis was awarded to Miss Creel Whiteside, a student in Centerville Normal and Preparatory School.

A convention on Tuberculosis is now in progress at the court house. The convention will last all of the week.
Friday is Negro Day. Every one is lending a hand to make the day a success.

Mrs. Allie Haddock, of Mt. Pleasant, formerly Mrs. Wells, of Centerville, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Chas. Shipp is still on the sick list.

The Workers' Conference had a very interesting meeting Monday, April 12. A large number present.
Sister Moore read an excellent paper on "Plans for setting others at work."

She emphasized the great need of Christian work among all classes, and urged all to have a share in it.

A number of friends called to see Sister Moore during the past week.
Among them were Dr. Hubbard, Dean of Meharry, and wife; Prof. J. M.
Johnson, President of Roger Williams University, and Mrs. Scott.

BISHOP CALDWELL VISITS NASH-VILLE.

The influx of visitors to this city which has been predicted to be unusually large during the month of June, is certain to upset all calculations. Evidences of this fact were brought out this week in an interview with Bishop J. S. Caldwell, D. D., of the A. M. E. Z. Church, with headquarters at Philadelphia. Bishop Caldwell spent two days in Nashville looking after the religious work of his church. He was in company with Rev. Scott and Goff when met by your correspondent.

He said that he had found much in Nashville to remind him of the fact that this is one of the greatest publishing centers in the world and that he felt proud that his church was also helping to contribute to the progress the race is making by maintaining a house of its own at Charlotte, N. C.

"I am out of the office on a three weeks' visit to the South. My objective point, however, from here will be Mobile, Ala., where I will spend some time in our particular work," said Bishop Caldwell when asked of his plans. He said further that he was fully confident that quite a number of people out of the East would come to Nashville in June to the Sunday-school Congress, which he learns has been called for June 9-14th and which is creating such interest all over the country.

EASTER ENTERTAINMENT.

An Easter egg hunt was given by Class No. 3, of Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday-school, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs.
L. C. Norton, on Tilden street.

The program began with dinner which was served at half-past three, after which a large number of out door games were played. At four o'clock the hunt for the eggs began, which was the most important part of the program. The first prize, which was a linen handkerchief, was won by Bertha Ellis, who found the gold egg.

The second prize was awarded to Eddie Bluing, which was a handsome silk tie. He found the silver egg.

After the egg hunt the dining-room was thrown open to the guests where an ice-course was served. The table was decorated in white linen and all kinds of potted flowers. After the serving of the refreshments the children were invited to the front porch where they were entertained by Mr.
Norton with his comical featured doll.
