

WAS IN BED WHEN SHE STARTED Had Suffered With Weak Lungs for Years IS NOW AT WORK Takes Care of Twenty-eight Rooms in a Hotel

"I had suffered for years with weak lungs and the doctors said I would die," says Mrs. Lullie Lundsford of 214 Fourteenth avenue, North, in her statement to us "My lungs and chest were so sore that every breath I drew was painful. I was in bed and not able to sit up when I started on Lung-Vita. I have used five large bottles and today I am working in a hotel and take care of twenty-eight rooms, so you can see that I am not dead yet, but living by a big majority, and am doing more work than most people. But had it not been for Lung-Vita I would have been resting beneath the sod instead of working in a hotel."

OUT OF TOWN NOTES.

UNION CITY. On Wednesday evening January 31st the death angel entered the home of Rev. E. D. Wells and claimed his aged mother, Rebecca Elizabeth Wells. Mother Wells had been in ill health for a number of years and her going was a long looked for event. Funeral services conducted from the home, 213 Summer St., Thursday afternoon by Rev. Allison, pastor C. M. E. Church. To the bereaved family we extend our deepest sympathy. Miss Daisy Todd, formerly of this city but now of Winsco, Ky., spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Caldwell on College St. Mr. David Carter is spending some time in Franklin, Tenn. Miss Myrtle McCord, who has been ill for some time is much improved at this writing. Rev. Bryant of Ridgely is spending a few days in the city. Mr. Charlie Johnson left Wednesday night for Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Johnson has returned to her home in Rives. Mrs. Sarah Taylor of Brownsville, attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Elizabeth Wells. Mrs. Jas. Totten, is visiting her old home city, Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. Samuel Long of Hickman spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Frank Long. Mr. H. C. Howard of Buffalo, N. Y., is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Taylor. Mr. Barnett of Hickman, spent a few hours in the city Monday, on business. On Friday afternoon, February 2, Mrs. Howard Powers was the charming hostess of the Bon Ton Club. The president, Mrs. A. B. Patton, presided. The members responded with dues and quotations from Dunbar. Mrs. Chas. M. Taylor read a paper, subject, "Home the heart of the Nation." This subject was heartily discussed by all. Mrs. Powers led in singing, "Home Sweet Home." After business the hostess served a toothsome menu consisting of hot chocolate, wafers, Waldorf salad and lettuce. After a very pleasant social hour the meeting adjourned to meet Friday February 9, with Mrs. A. D. Cooper on Grove St. Mrs. Mary Bailey of Newbern spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Wade. Mrs. A. B. Hoover of Memphis, is the house guest of Mrs. Pearl Fowler on Greenwood Avenue. We are glad to write that Mr. Hasalee Branham is up and out again. Mr. Geo. Armstrong spent a few days in our city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Berline on Dobbs St. On Monday evening, January 23, Mrs. Mary Overby was the hostess of a handsomely appointed dinner party to compliment Mrs. R. H. Vann. The parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated with potted plants. The table had for its ornament a handsome cut glass vase filled with beautiful flowers. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Watson. The following menu was served: roast chicken, cranberry sauce, creamed peas, sweet potatoes au gratin, celery, tuna salad, silver cake, heavenly hash, French drip coffee. Those seated at the table were Rev. R. H. Vann, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, Rev. R. L. Dent, Miss Vira Davenport and H. C. Davis. Music was enjoyed throughout the evening. Misses Stella Moore, Leora Blake, and Chester Dinwiddie and Messrs Wallace Tipton, Geary Wade and James Brown attended the Grand Ball in Hickman Tuesday night. They report a fine time. Mr. John Henry Smith of Ledford, Tenn., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Martha Dean. Rev. W. A. Smith has been ill of a gripe, however he was at his post of duty Sunday and preached an inspiring and soul stirring sermon. The Freeville have just closed their annual Convention which was a meeting of much interest, a goodly number of delegates were present and all seemed to be filled with enthusiasm. The pastor Rev. Mayes, the ex-pastor, Rev. E. D. Wells and the members made superhuman efforts to entertain the delegates and visitors. Mrs. Nannie Kelsor is still sick. Miss Nell Moore Valentine is convalescing. On a date not distant far an effort is going to be made to organize a young people's club. The aim of this club shall be to raise the standard of morals and to foster sociability.

and our race will take a leap upward out of the pessimistic ditches of superstitions and get out of the old house of long remembered adages that our race never was anything and never will be for the man who says such, need but to take a peep into the days of antiquity and see a Nimrod founded of antiquity Nineveh, Cush and Canaan, Tyre and Sidon. Notice the first fleet of war ships and see them built and run across the Mediterranean Sea by Negroes if you please and what has been will be again so says Solomon. Read and become posted, you will see signs in the Globe every issue. Mr. Earl Bryson has been confined to his bed for several days is now able to be out. Mrs. Masod White Donegan formerly of this city, but now residing in Huntsville, Ala., spent a few days here visiting her sick sister, Miss Florence White. Miss Pauline Hatcher the daughter of Mrs. Annie Bryson met with a serious accident a few days ago but she is convalescing rapidly. She is an ardent student of city high school. We hope to see her in school at an early date.

MARTIN. In spite of the snow, services were held at the respective churches. Rev. R. H. People's preached at eleven o'clock. Rev. H. H. Boyd filled his pulpit also, at six thirty the B. Y. P. U. held its regular meeting with the president, Mrs. Mattie E. Roberts in the chair. The discussion was interesting and spirited as usual. The Epworth League convened at six o'clock at McCabe's Temple the lesson discussed. The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Ellen Cavet. On last Tuesday afternoon, January 9th, The A.M.I. is planning to do great work this conference year under the influence of their able president, Mrs. Mary Street. On last Thursday morning the grim reaper, Death visited the home of Mr. James Moss and carried away the loving wife and mother, Mrs. Rebecca Moss, who has been sick for some time. The funeral was attended at the Oak Grove Baptist Church by Revs. H. C. Swain of McKenzie, Tenn., and R. H. People's. The death of Mrs. Moss is one more link broken in the citizenship of our city and in the Order of Richmond Court of Cavaliers and the House Hold of Ruth of which she was a member. Deep sympathy is expressed for the family. Mr. James Moss, Mrs. Carrie Busby, Mrs. Eala Randels, Mrs. Mary Utey, Mrs. Nannie Kelsor are still sick. Prof. Shel Dowell who is visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Dowell, is indisposed somewhat.

perfect maturity as missionaries of Christ. This is a bigger job than Samson or Hercules ever had, but with God's grace we can succeed. Satan has foreign missionaries. Many ships are carrying liquor and other curses to the Negroes in Africa. Those engaged in this work are Satan's foreign missionaries. It is an awful truth that there are more missionaries of Satan trying to destroy the Negroes in Africa than there are missionaries of Christ for their salvation. That awful condition prevailed in Nashville so long that probably over half of our boys have been polluted with evil. I want these things changed. I want every home to be a mission for Christ. Half of the world is still heathen and nine-tenths of the world's Negroes are only half civilized. It is because civilized people have not done their duty. "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." That is our commission. Satan has gone, preaching his evils as if they were blessings. We must go and warn a credulous world of Satan's deceptions. We must go preaching Christ's gospel of patience, charity, industry, simplicity and perfection. In our own good city we have seen how Satan's missionaries have corrupted our youth and tair'ed thousands with bad habits. We must, with God's help, declare war here and everywhere against Satan and his evils. Duty done is joy complete. Our greatest heroes are like unto Joseph, Daniel, Saul, Livingston, who were among God's ideal missionaries. There are hundreds of women in Nashville, white and colored, who are perfect Christian missionaries. One of them is our good friend and sister, Amanda Cottoner, whose godly life has brought hope and joy to many homes and lives. There is that wonderful laundry woman of Fick University, Mrs. Alice D. Dandridge, who will live in sweet memory like the widow who gave all she had. To be a Christian missionary may mean poverty in this world's goods but it guarantees everlasting life and peace. Let us be prepared! A hundred reasons call us and our children to this supreme duty. Gratitude for our wondrous blessings should make us spread them through the world. "Have you had a kindness shown?" Pass it on! Pass it on! "Was not given for thee alone, Pass it on! Pass it on! Live for self, you live in vain, Live for Christ you live again, Live for Him, with Him you'll reign; Pass it on! Pass it on!"

HON. NOAH COOPER ON MISSIONS AT CLARK MEMORIAL. There are two kinds of missions: missions for Christ and missions for Satan. There are two kinds of missionaries: those for godliness and those for wickedness. I want every person to be a Christian missionary. I come to join you in the effort to make every son and daughter a missionary for Christ. Some may be home missionaries and some may be foreign missionaries. But every child should become a Christian missionary. The truth is that every child is a born missionary of life, love, perfection and peace. Christ tells us we must become as little children to make sure of heaven. Our great duty is not to let our children become missionaries of evil. If all children grew up as good as they are born this world would be a Paradise of love and peace. Satan surrounds every child with evil to work his destruction. We must surround them with good examples, with good words, with noble ideals; so as to shield them from Satan's evils and bring them into
