LUNG-VITA CURED HIM

After Taking a Half Bottle, Says
He Knew It Was What He Need'd.

"I had tried, I thought, all the remedies for lung trouble and coughs and had tried the doctors and they had failed to do me any good or give me any relief," says Mr. Lee Peyton, who lives in room 3 in the rear of 35 West Virginia avenue, Memphis, Tenn. "But your agent came along and asked me to try Lung-Vita. I told him it was no use but he insisted and I finally consented to try it. When I started taking the medicine I had a cough and hurt under my shoulder blades and my lungs were sore. Before I had taken a half bottle of Lung-Vita I found that it was what I had been needing for years. The pains under my shoulder blades had gone and so was my cough." Therefore I recommend Lung-Vita to all people suffering as I was."

Lung-Vita is sold by druggists and dealers. (Adv.)

FLAT ROCK.

The Ladies Aid Society of Patterson Chapel M. E. Church at Flat Rock, reported a complete success Sunday night. They presented their pastor, Rev. F. W. Watkins, $25.00. On Friday and Saturday, Sept. 28 and 29, Prof Davis with his boys, the South Nashville Juvenile Band was with us and on Saturday night Oct. 6, 1917 they had a chipping supper at the residence of Sister Vinie McKeever's residence our Treasurer, 1607 Fourth Ave. Nearly every member responded liberally. We realized a neat little sum of Thirty three dollars. We want to thank the community at large.

Mrs. Annie Y. Coleman, President;
Mrs. Mamie Henley, Secretary;
Miss Vinie McKeever, Treasurer.

JACKSON.

Mrs. Williams, Miss Brown and Rev. and Mrs. Goodall were at Jackson. They were the guests of Mrs. Spaulding of west Hale street. The marriage of Miss Bolden and Mr. Watson took place Thursday evening, October 4th. Mr. John Spann is out of the city on a vacation. He is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mollie Howard, at Memphis and will leave for a short stay in Chicago, Ill. and Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. France Prince has just returned from a short visit to Ripley, Miss. She had a delightful stay with her friends Mrs. S. P. Morrow was in the city last week. She was welcomed by her friends, Mrs. Mary Malone from Mason is here. She is planning on making the year a success at Lane College. Miss Exe' Brown left the city for State Normal school at Nashville.

MURFREESBORO.
The churches of our town are doing nice work under the direction of their pastors. We are blessed in having well prepared men as our gospel leaders. We have the following ministers in our city and who are doing efficient work: Key Memorial, Dr. Thompson (Theologian); First Baptist, Dr. A. C. Kenon, D. D., A. B. M. D. (Theologian); Mount Zion Baptist, Dr. Nance, D. D. (Theologian); Allen Chapel, A. M. E. Dr. A. P. Gray, D. D. (Theologian); Mt. Zion Primitive Baptist, Dr. Kimble, D. D. (Theologian). All of these men are well prepared and are proving their titles. Mr. Jerry Chears is on the sick list this week, and is improving under the care of Dr. G. C. Harden. Dr. A. C. Kenon leaves this week for Nashville to perform a surgical operation upon one of his patients. Dr. J. P. Hickman has returned from his motor trip to St. Louis, Mo. Mr. W. L. Alexander who accompanied him also returned. Mrs. J. D. Butler who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Chears, has returned to Chattanooga. Miss Lizzie Butler is on the sick list this week. Dr. White of Walden University, spoke to the colored citizens at Key Chapel last Monday night. The doctor is logical. The Allen Chapel pulpit will be filled by Rev. W. C. Chears on the fourth Sunday of this month at 11 a. m. in the absence of the pastor, Dr. Gray. The theme being—Unity in the Household. Mrs. M. H. Bright, one of the foremost trained nurses of our race and who is a staunch and efficient worker in racial development has entered Lincoln Hospital of New York for a Post Graduate Course. Mrs. Bright is an ideal young woman, coming from one of Tennessee's prominent daughters—Tennessee's best families, and in one we hope for her abundant success at Lincoln. Mrs. W. C. Chears plans visiting Mrs. Marshal Cheatham at Nashville on an early date. The Rutherford County Fair was a success last week. Many prizes were awarded on canned goods, farm products and live stock. Mr. R. T. Butler, president, and Mr. Adamson, secretary, with a number of other leading members of our race at Murfreesboro, spared no pains in making the Fair what it was hoped to be. Frost has fallen; persimmons are ripe; opossums rumbling—Farmer, get right!

HALEY.

Mr. Wm. Murphy and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in Tullahoma. Mrs. G. H. Halliburton was the guest of Mrs. Cora Kizer Sunday. Miss Troyelle Dix spent Saturday and Sunday in Tullahoma visiting the M. E. Conference. Mr. Ernest Hoard, of Dayton, Ohio, formerly of this place is visiting his mother here. Mrs. Jane Hoard, Mr. Wm. Suter, wife and little son Ruth were in our town Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Sims are the guests of Mrs. Rachel Hoard Sunday. Rev. J. W. Sebastian preached here Tuesday night. If there is any one thing that Wm. Murphy knows how to do, it is to make good sorghum. C. C. Fuggette is a live wire in Sunday school

SOUTH PITTSBURG.

Jack frost has given us our guest. Every body is digging potatoes. Miss Versie Oliver who is employed in town now was seen taking a car ride Sunday afternoon with a fine gentleman. I wonder who he was. Mrs. Ada Laprade of Chattanooga Royal Grand Matron of the O. E. S. visited Ruth Chapel No. 101 and delivered to the members a most delightful as well as an instructive lecture. Each one was well pleased immediately after a hearty meal was spread and enjoyed by all. Come again please Royal G. M. After a lingering illness of several months Mrs. Ida Marberry departed this life Oct. 11, 1917. Mrs. Marberry leaves a husband, Mr. Ned Marberry and several children. Further information did not reach the writer. Mrs. Marberry was a devout member of Mt. Beleahen Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Lucious Cox are very happy in their cozy little home on First street. A successful revival is being carried on at the Baptist church many souls are being saved. Mrs. Edna Daniels and Mrs. Marie Price were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Eddie Elbridge for two weeks. They left Monday for their homes. Mrs. Daniels will go to Baltimore, Md., and

BROWNSVILLE.

Miss Alice Morris was the charming hostess of the Pink Rose Circle Friday afternoon. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Scott Morris, the hostess' mother. The Volunteer Club of Farmer's Chapel met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Brown Wiley on Cherry street, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Fannie (Cook) Walker, the President, presided over the meeting. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Rosa (Clark) Wiley, the hostess, served a delicious ice course.

The house was decorated with beautiful cut flowers and potted plants.

Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Morrow, their little girl, Ruby, were present at the meeting. Mr. Richard Longley, who has been ill for some time, is able to be out again. Mr. Longley was happily converted during his illness and was able to go to church

Sunday and joined the church and was baptized Sunday eve. The many friends are delighted to see him out again. Mr. L. Beverly, agent for Lincoln Reserve Insurance Company, has been indisposed for several days.

We hope for him a speedy recovery. Mrs. Earline Morris, who has been ill for more than two weeks is much improved. Mrs. Clara

(Bend) Taylor has been indisposed

for several days. Mr. J. Livingstone

White, who has been in Alliance,

Nebraska for some time, returned home last Sunday morning. His ar-mal was a pleasant surprise to all.

Mr. Jas. L. Wood, who is attending the West Tennessee Medical University of Memphis, Tenn., spent several days of last week in Brownsville

with friends. Mr. C. W. Whitelaw

spent the week-end in Memphis,

Tenn., on business. Mr. B. King, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been living in Brownsville since last fall, is well pleased with it. Rev. M. H.

Holloway spent last week in Jackson,

Tenn. He conducted the revival at the Macedonia Baptist Church of which Rev. Burnett is pastor. Twenty-eight were converted and many were added to the church during his stay. Rev. Holloway is a splendid pastor and an excellent revivalist.

Mr. Thomas Winfield of St. Louis, Mo., is home visiting. Mrs. Adena Miller of Arlington, spent the week-end and the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones. Mrs. Elizabeth Currie has returned to her home in Cairo, Ill. after a pleasant stay in Brownsville with relatives and friends. Mr. Will Holloway spent a week in Jackson, Tenn., recently. Mr. John Stader spent several days of last week in St. Louis, Mo. He saw many friends from home. Of course, he was delighted to see Miss Mabel Brooks. The revival was closed at the First Baptist Church Sunday. On Sunday eve at seven o'clock, Rev. Parr began the two weeks of the revival until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The registration was continuous and interesting. The women seemed delighted to have an opportunity to show their patriotism. Rev. Bishop Lee, the Presiding Bishop of the 9th Episcopal District, preached at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Church Monday night. He was en route to Chattanooga where he will hold the annual conference for East Tennessee. Quinn Chapel is making sufficient preparation to entertain the conference. The pastor, Rev. A. J. Russell, is doing all that he can to have a pleasant and profitable session. Rev. C. P. Cross of Paducah, preached for Rev. G. P. Woodson, last Wednesday night.
