

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., MARCH 14, 1882.

To make yourself a good "methete,"
And do your share and part,
To show the true and beautiful,
In nature and in art,
Go till the land and work the forge,
Go useful labor get,
And show the ring of metal true,
By honest beads of sweat,
The hyfalutin lay aside,
And let the people see,
Your taste refined, you will no more,
A dilettante be.

THE river is falling.

HEAVY frost last night.

MR. JAMES HENDRIXSON has made a contract to paint the Stonewall House at Mayslick. The work is sure to be well-done.

SLICES of bread fried in a batter made of one egg, a little milk and flour are nice for breakfast, with ham and eggs or with bacon and potato salad. Try it.

ALL persons holding claims against the estate of John Brown, deceased, should present them immediately to J. James Wood, the administrator. See notice elsewhere.

The residence and five acres of ground attached, of the late J. P. Wilson, at Minerva, was offered at public sale last Saturday, and withdrawn, only $1,000 being had for the property, which is really worth considerably more.

THE race for the office of Justice of the Peace, in Huntington Township, Brown county, Ohio, is beginning to warm up. There are two to be elected, and there are in the field as candidates Massie Beasley Esq., Esquire Samuel Evans, Hon. L. P. Cord and Capt. Wm. Riggs, a well-known riverman.

DENNIS FITZGERALD, as the democratic candidate for jailer, doesn't suit the Eagle. It is a strong point for Mr. Fitzgerald, as it has been to many other candidates who have met with the mighty opposition of our contemporary. Perhaps it is only a bit of strategy, and our neighbor really desires to help the full ticket. Who knows?

New Point in the Ashland Horror.

ASHLAND, KY., March, 14, 1882.—A new point in the Gibbon murder cases has just been developed. A coat with blood spots upon it and which has been identified as that of William Neal one of the convicted murderers, has been found a short distance from where the bloody towel that figured at the trial, was discovered.

It is reported here that Neal two weeks ago, at Lexington, remarked to a citizen of this place that he had understood his bloody coat had been found. The coat is now in the hands of the authorities.

FORTUNE TELLING.

THE family on the boat in Limestone creek are thankful to the people of Maysville for their kind treatment during the three months they have been here. They have laid aside prejudice regarding "fortune telling," as they call it. They have had visitors of every class and all ages, and are perfectly satisfied that the lady on Limestone is fully prepared and can give a true and perfect statement of your life, past, present and future; and if there are some yet who have not been told either in or about the city, bring your exact age at once as you may not have the opportunity again. It is no humbug. It has been reported the boat will remain here during the spring, but the captain says his business calls him to move on by the last of March. He wants a partner for the Extension Spring Bed Bottom. For particulars call at the boat. He wants a competent man with $100; no other need apply. A nice flatboat for sale. Apply as above directed. m94td
