

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 25, 1882.

TERMS:—The EVENING BULLETIN is published daily, and served free of postage at 6 cents per week; 25 cents per month; 75 cents per three months; $1.50 per six months, and $3 per year, payable in advance.

THE EVENING BULLETIN HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION IN THIS CITY, CHESTER AND ABERDEEN, OHIO, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN MAYSVILLE.

Public Speaking.

The Hon. John G. Carlisle will address the people of this city and county at the court house in Maysville, on Thursday evening, October 26th, at 7 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come and hear this distinguished Democrat.

The Stalwart Republicans are talking of nominating Robert Lincoln for President in 1884. His strength as a candidate is supposed to be in the fact that he is the son of his father. Tall timber seems to be scarce in the Stalwart woods.

Kentucky should send a solid democratic delegation to congress in order that the Hon. John G. Carlisle may be the next speaker of the House of Representatives. A divided delegation from Kentucky would greatly hamper him and might be the cause of his defeat.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR now says no clerk in the government service shall be taxed for election purposes, but he was careful to delay saying it until after Hubbell had collected from these people his blackmailing assessments. The President's spasm of virtue is somewhat transparent.

A VOTE for Col. Hurt is a vote for Hon. John G. Carlisle for speaker of the House. State pride should prompt every Democrat to go to the polls. Party pride should also be the incentive, and if Col. Hurt does not receive the votes of many Republicans it will be because of the brisk application of the "party lash." His old comrades in arms are anxious to support him.

It is a matter of the utmost importance that the Democratic committee in each county of the congressional district should at this time be at work perfecting the organization for the fight on the 7th of November. Every vote in each precinct should be polled, whether the majority there is large or not. The greatest danger to be apprehended is from apathy. Let there be no laggards in this contest. Every vote will be needed. In the event of failure every Democrat who neglected to vote will be held responsible for his action. It should be kept in mind that the recent developments concerning the movements of the Republicans make it very certain that every Democratic vote in the district will be needed. Every member of the party is therefore expected to do his full duty.

The gain of congressmen in Ohio, has assured to the Democrats, the control of the next House of Representatives unless the Democrats of Kentucky should prove lukewarm, and, from non attendance at the polls, suffer the November election to go by default. Every man who has the success of his party at heart, should make it his business to be at the polls early on Tuesday Nov., 7th, and see that his neighbors and friends are there. The members of the executive committee in each precinct, should appoint a rallying committee, and that committee should keep count of the vote as polled, and have runners out, to bring in every Democratic voter in the precinct. No objection can be urged against our nominee; and the worst thing the Republicans can say about him, is that he voted for Gen. Grant, instead of Horace Greely. Good men must consider that of the two evils he chose the lesser one.

MISCELLANEOUS COOKING.

TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Put a sufficient quantity of coffee in the pot and pour boiling water on it, stir and place it on the fire. As soon as four or five bubbles have risen take it off the fire and pour out a teacupful and return it, set it down for one minute, then pour gently over the top one teacupful of cold water; let it stand one minute longer and it is ready for use.

LEMON PRESERVES.

Put into a saucepan one pound of sugar, a quarter of a pound of butter, six eggs, leaving out the whites of two, and the juice and grated rinds of three lemons. Let these boil until they become as thick as honey, stirring gently all the while. Pour the mixture into small jars; and tie brandy papers over them and keep in a cool, dry place.

FRUIT CAKE.

Two cups of molasses, two of brown sugar, two of butter, one of milk, five of flour, five eggs, one teaspoonful of saleratus, cut up butter in the milk, warm the molasses, stir it into the milk and butter; then stir in the sugar and let it cool, then add the eggs well beaten, one pound of citron; bake in a slow oven.

OYSTER SAUCE.

Scald the oysters, then strain the liquor, and thicken with a little flour and butter, a small quantity of lemon juice and three tablespoonfuls of cream; heat the oysters well in this mixture, but do not let them boil.

MEAT PIE WITH POTATO CRUST.

Cut the meat into large pieces and season with pepper, salt and an onion, boil and mash potatoes with milk so as to form the crust, with which line a buttered dish; then put in the meat with a teacupful of water, lay in the potatoes thickly over the meat, and bake about an hour and a half.

LEMON PIE.

Grate the rind of one lemon (or if you prefer chop it very fine,) take the juice and pulp, add one cup of white sugar, piece of butter size of a nutmeg, yolks of three eggs (well beaten,) and two-thirds cup of flour, bake as a custard pie.

FRENCH MUSTARD.

Take four spoonfuls of ground mustard, one spoonful of fine salt, one of granulated sugar, and six spoonfuls of sharp vinegar; mix thoroughly and beat smooth, and you will have a toothsome preparation to give relish to cold or hot meats, hash or any thing you choose to spread it on.

APPLE JELLY.

Wash and quarter the fruit without paring, and put in a kettle and cover with water. But boil till perfectly soft, strain off the juice and to every pint allow a pint of sugar. Don't put in a spoon after the sugar dissolves. Boil an hour or more or until jellies. When done, strain through a flannel bag. I prefer straining when the jelly is about half done, following directions as given in plum jelly, then when my jelly is ready to congeal I heat my jelly glasses, first with luke warm water, then boiling and pour the jelly right in. After it cools fasten them up.

For the Ladies.

New cloaks are very long. Tournures are worn, but not universally. Rifle green is the popular color for ulsters. New stockings show all of the high art colors. Quilted satin lines more cloaks than satin or fur. There is an effort to revive the princess style of dress. Feather thistles appear among new bonnet trimmings. The latest style of yellow takes the name of "four o'clock." Chine woolen goods and cheviot mixtures will be much worn. There will be no definite changes in the outlines of the dress this fall. Printed cashmere is a novelty for house wrappers, but it is not tasteful. Fur and leather bands will be used for dress as well as cloak trimmings. Flowers are banished from millinery, and feathers of every kind are to be worn. The cheapest way to get a sealskin saccage is to charter a steamer and go after the animals. A large white dove perched on the left side of the hat is a fashionable trimming for autumn hats for young women.
