

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 28, 1882.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

"There's many a thing that the maidens wish As they journey along in life, As they take their part in the busy world,
And share in its care and strife; Perhaps they wish for a cozy house,
With furniture-spick and span, But to crown the whole they care the most For the love of an honest man."

Don't forget the gayest, airiest and raciest of comic operas at the opera house next Wednesday evening.

MESSRS. HECHINGER, THOMAS & Co. will begin killing hogs on Thursday, provided the weather continues favorable.

CONSULT the advertising columns of the BULLETIN before making your holiday purchases. It will pay you to do so.

THE decision of the Mason circuit court in the case of James Smith against G. W.
Martin has been affirmed by the court of appeals.

Six thousand copies of the DAILY BUL-LETIN will be distributed in the city and neighborhood during the week preceding Christmas. Advertisers will please bear this in mind.

CAPT. E. W. FITZGERALD on Saturday received from Frankfort a draft for $200 to pay the Emmet Rifles for services at Catlettsburg. The money will be distributed at the regular meeting Thursday evening.

ABOUT two o'clock this morning a frame stable on Dr. H. Ebersole's lot, near Limestone bridge, was burned, there is reason to believe, by an incendiary. The brick dwelling on the same lot was partly destroyed by fire Saturday night.

Mrs. S. M. GILMORE's double frame cottages on Forest Avenue, East Maysville, will be offered at public sale on Monday, December 4th. They are very desirable homes and are situated in one of the best neighborhoods in the city.

THE Holman Opera Company will give two entertainments in this city, Monday and Tuesday evenings next. "Patience" will be produced the first night and "Olivette" the second. Reserved seats may be secured for seventy-five cents.

If at any time our readers fail to receive the DAILY BULLETIN, they will confer a favor by notifying us of the fact at once.
Prompt and regular delivery is our motto and if any failures are made we should know it immediately, so that we can correct the fault.

THERE will be a lecture at the M. E.
Church, South, Wednesday evening, Dec.
6th, one week from to-morrow. Dr. Cottrell is one of the best and most entertaining of lecturers. His subject will be "Discounted Ministries." The citizens of Maysville are promised a rare treat.

A LITERARY society known as the "Adelphian Circle" has been organized by some of Maysville's well-known young men. The following persons were selected as officers at the meeting held last Saturday night, at the law office of Sallee & Sallee, viz:

President—C. H. Newell.
Vice President—T. R. Plister.
Secretary and Treasurer—James Threlkeld.
Editor "Adelphian Exponent"—C. L. Sallee.
Sergeant at Arms—L. W. Galbraith.
Meetings will be held every other Saturday night. The programme will include, the reading of essays and debates on some leading topics.

The Holman Opera Company.

The Ogdensburg (N. Y.) Daily Journal speaks in the following high terms of the Holman Opera Troupe which is to present Gilbert & Sullivan's comic opera "Patience" in this city on the 4th proximo:

Again Friday evening and for the last time this season, the many sweet voices of the Holman English Opera Co. was heard in the beautiful music of Olivette. In the character of Olivette, Miss Sallie Holman was charming and scored one of her old triumphs. Miss Holman will always meet with a warm reception in Ogdensburg. Miss Blanche Holman as the Countess was very much at home and sang and acted the part excellently. As the Duc de Iff, Mr. J. H. O'Connor was perfectly at home and made a lasting impression on Ogdensburg attendants. Mr. Wallace Macreary is a very fine Valentine and shows off his beautiful voice. Mr. A. D. Holman as Capt. de Merrimac is certainly one of the best in the profession who attempts that part. His make up, acting and singing are just what they ought to be, and he carried much weight of the play. The costumes were the most handsome yet shown by the company, and a crowded house exhibited their hearty appreciation of this the best production of the week.

Holiday Edition.

During the week preceding Christmas the DAILY BULLETIN will be enlarged to a five column paper and an edition of one thousand copies printed and circulated each day in this city, Chester, Aberdeen and in the other towns adjacent to Maysville. We shall thus be enabled to offer the business men of the city who wish to advertise their holiday goods, the best and at the same time the cheapest medium for doing so. Our patrons may rely upon having their favors printed in six thousand papers during the week, all of which will be circulated where they will be of the most benefit to advertisers. Call and ascertain our rates. Contracts should be made immediately as our space will be limited.

THE Thanksgiving turkey is one of those institutions which are indissolubly linked with the grandest traditions of this young country. Whether there would be any Thanksgiving Day if there were no thanksgiving turkeys is a problem, which the nearest debating society is respectfully urged to undertake the solution of. It is very fitting, however, that the turkeys and the day should come together. Not only is it very fitting, but it is very filling.
Speaking in a general way, the turkey is a fowl which the people ought to feel proud of. The average man, if he had his choice between opulence and fame, would select roast turkey with cranberry sauce accompaniment, played slowly.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. Henry Powers, of Cincinnati, was in Maysville for several days last week.

Mr. Joseph Varian, of Winchester, O., is in Maysville to-day.

Mr. Wood Pogue, of Cincinnati, spent several days last week with his relatives in this city.

Miss Emma Hierley, who was called home from school in Scott county to attend the funeral of her brother, has gone back again.

Turkey Day.

The Kentucky Central Railway, with its usual liberality, has decided to sell excursion tickets on Nov. 29th and 30th from and to all stations at one fare for the round trip. These tickets are good to return until and including Dec. 2nd. The arrangement is certainly a very liberal one and will be appreciated by the public.

Cutting at Aberdeen.

On last Saturday night about 9 o'clock Rufus Hall, a boy about seventeen years of age, was cut in the neck and wrist by Thomas Sutton, during a quarrel about a hat. The weapon used was a pruning knife. Sutton was arrested and will have his examining trial before Esquire Massie Beasley to-day.

NEWS BREVITIES.

Thurlow Weed was buried at Albany, Friday.

Mrs. Scoville has been granted a new trial to prove her sanity.

Herman Peter, of Lancaster, Pa., who killed a man for defaming his daughter, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

The 99th anniversary of the evacuation of the city of New York by the British forces, was celebrated Saturday by a parade of the old guards.

In the third trial of Clarence Gray for the murder of Theodore Clancy, late editor of the Barbara (Cal.) Press, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

At Uniontown, Pa., a wagon was struck by a train while crossing the track of the Southwest Pennsylvania railroad, and two young men named Field and Dean who were in the wagon, were fatally injured.

Madder, the murderer of Phoebe Bernard, at Tiffin, O., on November 3, 1881, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, Saturday, after twelve days progress of trial. The prisoner was sentenced by Judge McCauley to the penitentiary for life.

Maud Melville, the fourteen-year-old daughter of engineer Melville, of the U. S. navy, who has been in the care of a female friend of the family, in Brooklyn, since the commitment of her mother to the insane asylum at Norristown, Pa., was forcibly removed from the woman's care and from the city by her mother on Saturday.

Another story about Mad Nilsson and the autograph hunters. A few days ago she yielded to an importunate applicant. Glancing through the book she saw on the last page the inscription: "Last, but not least, Adelina Patti." Seizing a pen she wrote on the inside of the cover facing this: "Last and least, Christine Nilsson Rouzeaud."

WASHINGTON.

Hog killing is in progress.

Mr. O. G. Layton and lady is visiting friends in Concord, Ky.

Mrs. Thomas and little daughter, of Maysville, are the guests of Miss Emma Goggin.

Miss Rose, of Neville, Ohio, is visiting Mrs.
James Key.

Harry Burgoyne the "popular clerk" of Thompson & Maltby, made a short call on his friends last week.

Miss Sallie Lamb spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Fleming county.

The Best.

There are other good cooking stoves and A. J. Egnew & Co., keeps them in stock, but if there are two stoves in existence which lay just claims to superiority in many respects over all others they are the OMAHA AND HOT BLAST CHARTER.
We have not the space here to point out their many merits but call at our establishment on Market street and we will take great pleasure in doing so there, whether you wish to buy the stove or not. We consider it the best stove in the market.
