VINCENTIANS.

Religious Observance Will Mark Centenary of Founder.

Tomorrow the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in Louisville will religiously celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Frederick Ozanam, the founder of the society, which is now recognized as the greatest and most beneficial charity organization in the world. For this occasion there will be a special Pontifical high mass at the Cathedral at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning at which the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donnoghue will be the celebrant. At this mass all the members of the society in the city are expected to receive holy communion in a body. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the members of the society and their friends will assemble at the Knights of Columbus hall on Fourth street to participate in the celebration prepared for the occasion. There will be two addresses, one by a noted layman, and the other by a celebrated priest noted for his oratory, and incidentally there will be a few remarks by others, suggested by the occasion. The pastors and the assistant priests of every church in the city have been invited, and no doubt will lend their presence to make this the greatest Vincentian celebration that Louisville has ever known. Every Vincentian whose heart is imbued with the spirit of the society, and who recognizes all that the society has been to him, will permit no excuse to keep him from this meeting.

RECENT DEATHS.

Many friends and relatives tender heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Peters, 1314 East Breckinridge street, whose home was made desolate on Monday by the death of their two-year-old son, Roy Peters. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from St. Brigid's church, when Rev. Father Jansen officiated at the solemn mass of requiem.

The funeral of Thomas J. Carroll, who died last Saturday at his home, 1134 West Oak street, was held Monday morning from St. William's church, Rev. George Connor celebrating the solemn mass of requiem. Deceased was the brother of Patrolman John Carroll and was forty-seven years old. Besides his widow he leaves several children to mourn his death.

Monday morning the funeral of Miss Ella Alvey, daughter of George Alvey, 1233 Maple street, was held from the Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Walsh being the celebrant of the mass of requiem. Miss Alvey's death followed an illness of tuberculosis and was not altogether unexpected. She was twenty-four years old, and is survived by her parents and three sisters and one brother—Mrs. Lizzie Newton, Mrs. Maggie McDermott, Miss Mary Lillie Alvey and Leo Alvey.

The death of Mrs. Emeline Hall, 358 South Twelfth street, removes from St. William's parish one of its oldest, most devout and highly respected members. Mrs. Hall was a native of Kentucky, but for over thirty-five years had been a resident of this city. She is survived by three sons, Edward, Rodney and Clay Hall, of Louisville; three sisters, Mrs. Adeline Eshelby, of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Harriet Williams and Miss Anna Curtsinger, of Louisville, and two brothers, Taylor Curtsinger, of Louisville, and Col. Curtsinger, of Woodlawn, Ky. Her funeral took place Monday morning from St. William's church and was the largest seen there for some time.

BENEFIT MUSICALS.

The young ladies of St. Frances of Rome church will entertain with a benefit musicale at the Clifton Theater on Friday evening, May 9, and have arranged a splendid program to be presented by some of the best local talent. Tickets of admission are twenty-five cents.

What the Club Plan Is-- What It Means to You:

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent. of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.
