HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

The eight divisions of Indianapolis had a most successful initiation last Sunday.

Division 1 had a cordial welcome for County President Connelly and Division President Maloney.

Members of Division 1 always appreciate the presence of Hon. John Ryan, who is one of the old guard.

About 100 members voted at the last meeting of Division 1 of Concord, N. H., when officers were elected.

Members of the Ancient Order are rejoiced when they meet Martin Cusick, who has just passed through a critical illness.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Claremont, N. H., held a very successful food sale. They will close the year with an initiation.

Miss Mary Carney, County President, is planning for a large class to be initiated into the auxiliary next month at Richmond, Ind.

The Hibernians of Glencoe, Minn., celebrated their twenty-fourth anniversary with a ball in the City Hall. About 200 appeared in the grand march.

Saturday evening, December 5, the Hibernians of Alameda county, Cal., gave an elaborate reception and banquet at Oakland in honor of their State President, John J. Cox.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Thirty-five new members were received into the order this week at Oklahoma City.

Thirty candidates received the second and third degrees at last week's initiation at Fowler, Ind.

Omaha Knights will give the children of St. James' Orphanage their annual Christmas tree celebration.

New Orleans Knights have planned a monster Christmas tree for the orphans of that city, irrespective of creed.

When Bishop Colton visited Dunkirk to bless the grotto in Holy Trinity church members of the local council formed his escort.

The Knights at Aberdeen, S. D., held a very successful initiation last week, with large delegations present from St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Judge Corcoran and staff of Omaha initiated a class of fifty candidates at David City, Neb. After the ceremonies a fine banquet was served.

Fourth degree members of the councils at Peru, Logansport and Kokomo, Ind., met last Sunday at Logansport to form a general assembly.

The monthly dinners of the fourth degree members of Omaha are a pronounced success. This is proven by the attendance of fifty at each entertainment.

About 300 attended the smoker and booster meeting at Sioux City. It was the biggest meeting for several months, and enthusiastic talks were made for the club house to be erected on Douglas street.
