This representative minstrel organization, on its thirtieth annual tour, opens an engagement of two days at the Strand Theater, beginning with a matinee Labor day, next Monday, September 4. The new 1916 production has been received by press and public of the East as the greatest show Mr. Field has yet given the American public.

of the fans will help a long way. Toledo will close here Monday with a double-header, followed by Minneapolis for a three-game series, and as the Cantillon club has taken on new life some hot games are expected.

MORRIS' FRIENDS BUSY.

All three of the leaders in the Twin City League popularity contest went to the bat this week, the biggest gain being made by "Bob" Morris, Mackin Council's star pitcher, his friends turning in over two hundred votes and his campaign manager intimating that they had not shot their full bolt. Popular Ray Haragan retained the lead with another bunch of votes, while the Twin City's efficient and modest little Secretary, Eddie Steinbock, achieved the distinction of receiving the largest number of clipped ballots turned in in any one week. Johnnie Kenealey of the K. of C., John Scully of the Olympics, and Killoran of the Orioles are within striking distance of the leaders, while Manager Coleman, of the event St. Louis or Chicago won the National League pennant and we wish to state that the two winners will be sent to one of those cities, giving them the benefit of the long trip and a vacation in the big show. The standing to date:

Club	W.	L.	Pct.
K. of C.	17	2	.847
Mackin	14	5	.737
Champs	12	7	.632
Imperials	10	9	.526
Bertrands	9	10	.474
Olympics	8	11	.421
Orioles	6	13	.316
Trinity	0	19	.000

UP TO FANS.

The Louisville club is at home today after making their last road trip memorable in association history, winning two-thirds of their games, which is a splendid record when it is taken into consideration that they played through the entire circuit of cities and in Indianapolis twice. Owner Wathen has done his part, the players on the club have done theirs, and it is now up to the fans to show their appreciation. Beginning today with a four-game series with Toledo, the Orioles will play every club in the league, winding up the season here with a double-header on October 1. They have a grand chance for the pennant flag, better than any other club in the league. The players are in condition to do their part, but the cordial support and rooting

DIAMOND JUBILEE.

Diamond jubilee year at Notre Dame University promises to be of nation-wide interest if the comprehensive plans of Dr. John Cavanaugh, C. S. C., President of the university, are fully realized. The three great American Cardinals, Gibbons, Farley and O'Connell; the American hierarchy, Governors of States, who will be entertained by the various State clubs at the big school; ex-Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, the lactare medalists and as large a number as possible of Notre Dame's alumni, are expected to attend. Several new university buildings will be dedicated also as features of the jubilee year. Pageants showing the history and development of the university from a small Indian mission will be staged during the year. Still another feature will be the conferring of the largest number of degrees in any one year in the history of the school. The graduating class is the largest known at Notre Dame. Possibly Chief Justice White, of the United States Supreme Court, is the best known among the Notre Dame lactare medalists, three of whom have died recently—Thomas Muir, of New York; Judge Timothy E. Howard, of South Bend, Ind., and Dr. John E. Murphy, of Chicago.

SLEUTH'S SAD FATE.

Detective Tommy Yourell, the popular sleuth of the local detective department, has had many nice bouquets handed him in the past year for his criminal catching abilities, and his friends pointed him out as being immune from law breakers, but alas and alack! our sleuth went to Cincinnati and while taking in the sights, sad to say, was robbed of his watch, the pin and wallet. Tommy tried to keep it dark, but the news leaked out and he has been the recipient of some tall spoofing here. In defense he says that the best of them slip once in a while and cites the different adventures of Nick Carter, Sherlock Holmes and Cap Collier, who were baffled by criminals at some time or another.

STATE FAIR.

For the Kentucky State Fair, which opens here September 11, premiums aggregating $40,000 have been announced by Secretary Gooch. Of this amount $15,000 is provided by appropriation of the Legislature, and the remainder added by the State Fair Board or contributed by various public-spirited citizens in the State. In all there will be 6,512 awards, or an average of 1,102 every day for six days. Secretary Gooch and his assistants are working night and day and feel confident this will be the most successful State Fair yet held in Kentucky.

GOLDEN JUBILEE.

On Sunday, September 17, St. Charles the Great Benevolent Society of St. Martin's church will celebrate its golden jubilee, or the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the organization. The arrangements for the jubilee celebration are in charge of a committee composed of John B. Stark, Chairman; Clem Schildt, Henry Bosse, Adam Miller, Stephen J. Schaeffer, Mae Goss, H. Brinkhaus, John Dodi, B. W. Obermeier, C. Letman, J. Bredeemann and William F. McDonogh, with President Peter Hoffmann and J. Herman Blumers as members ex-officio.

FERRY CLOSING MONDAY.

Monday marks the closing of Fontaine Ferry Park for the 1916 season. It has been a most successful one for the popular resort and all the attractions and devices report a banner season. For Sunday and Monday a banner bill of fifteen acts of semi-professional talent is promised. On Monday, Labor day, no admission will be charged to the park in either the afternoon or evening. Outdoor music will be heard both Sunday and Labor day.

TWIN CITY FINALS.

The Twin City League will close its season with a double-header bill tomorrow afternoon, the extra game being because of the postponement on July 16 in honor of Twin City day at Eclipse Park. The results tomorrow will hardly make any change in the final standing, the K. of C. team being assured of the pennant, while Mackin would have to lose two while the Champs were winning both to even cause a tie for second honors. The Knights won the flag through their hitting ability and good pitching of Mattingly. Mackin finished high because of the phenomenal pitching of "Bobby" Morris, he ranking as the star twirler of the league. The Champs started off with their old-time dash, but lost a lot of "pep" in the last six weeks, falling off greatly in their hitting. The Imperials played a nice even game all season and deserve honorable mention, while the failure of the Bertrands to finish higher can be attributed to the injury to Ray Haragan's pitching arm. Manager Murphy's Olympics played good ball in spots only, while the Orioles changed lineups too frequent to be successful. It is hard to furnish an alibi for Trinity and their loss of nineteen straight games unless they were after Connie Mack's record of twenty straight. Tomorrow they play as follows: Bertrands vs. Champs, K. of C. vs. Mackin, Olympics vs. Imperials, and Trinity vs. Orioles. The standing to date:
