Italian Immigration.

The immigrants from North Italy as compared with those from South Italy stand at the ratio of about 1 to 5, or 1 to 6. And there is, as a rule, a much finer physique among the northern Italians. They are larger, if not harder, than their fellow countrymen from Sicily and Calabria.

Pig's Bones Used as Toys.

One of the pet games played by Russian children is known as haki, or pig bones. It is similar to the American game of tenpins, but the bones of a pig's leg are used. On the vast Russian estates, where the peasants make many of the toys for the master's children, the bones from the legs of pigs are thus utilized.

Can Be Cured.
Mean thinking is a habit with some of us and it can be cured just as any other bad habit can. Good time to be glad, about now.

Daily Thought.
The wealth of a man is the number of things which he loves and blesses, which he is loved and blessed by.—Carylle.

Importance of Proper Kitchen.
A woman who does the housework for an average family walks as far as the distance around the world in six years. She can be saved nearly half that walking by a properly arranged kitchen.

Old Fashioned.
They were coming back from the picnic. "We used to sing an old-fashioned song," remarked grandma, "about a one-horse open sleigh." Granddaughter was visibly puzzled. "Don't you mean a one-cylinder car?" inquired she.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

National Flag.
Each of the stars in the flag stands for a state. The 13 red and white stripes represent the original "Old Thirteen" states. It is said that John Paul Jones was the first to fly the flag on the ocean. But the next every other question of any consequence, this is a subject of dispute.

She Always Cares.
A man gets after a while so that he doesn't care so very much for appearances, as long as things work all right and don't bother him, but we don't suppose a woman ever reaches the point where she can be happy unless all the silver is marked sterling.—Columbus (O.) Journal.

Could Always Depend on Supply.
"Oh, James," Mrs. Jones said reproachfully to her husband about the middle of January, "you have broken all these good resolutions you made the first of the year." "Yes, I know," Jones answered coldly. "I know I have broken them, but I shall make others quite as good next year."

How Not to Be Popular.
He who does as he likes usually does as other people dislike.—Deseret News.

Philosophical.
There is some help for all the defects of fortune; for if a man cannot attain to the length of his wishes, he may have his remedy by cutting them shorter.—Cowley.

Spreading Them Up.
"The wicked flee when no man pursueth," quoted the deacon to the minister. "Yes," said the minister, who believed in muscular Christianity, "that is true; but they make much better time when somebody is after them."

Didn't Believe It.
"Talk about fishing," said Harvey Titus, who was just getting under way, "what would you do if you found on your hook a 750 pound horse mackerel?" "Do?" said the listener. "I'd get up, take a drink of water and lie on my right side for a while."—New York Telegraph.
