A MERCILESS JUDGE. One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Lancaster resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

Mrs. B. F. Walter, Hill Terrace, Lancaster, says: "I never fail to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are a most worthy remedy and have done me much good on many occasions. For several years, I have suffered from a lame and painful back. My kidneys have also been irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills have always removed every symptom of kidney trouble at these times." (Statement given March 20, 1908.)

ALWAYS RELIABLE.
On November 18, 1916, Mrs. Walter said: "I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. I was free from kidney trouble for a long time, but recently had a slight attack. I again used Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved me."

PLAY TIME.

Does the word play with all its numerous suggestions appeal to you? At Kavanaugh Camp, July 30-August 6, every kind of play is enjoyed. Some campers like tennis, therefore a tennis committee is organized in each Conference. Louisville and Kentucky, to plan a tournament. Last year the Kentucky Conference was victorious. For those who prefer tramps thru the country, special arrangements are made for a tramp to Pewee Valley to visit Mrs. Annie Fellows Johnson, author of the Little Colonel stories. Last year the girls were welcomed by Mrs. Johnston, who introduced to them the famous negro mammy, Mone Beck. One of the most delightful hours will be spent at the swimming pool where instruction in swimming will be given free. One day there will be a "March-mellow Toast" or a "Bacon Fry". Come to Kavanaugh Camp and enjoy these good times. Be sure to send your registration blank in before July 15, 1917, to Miss Helen McCandless, 1141 S. Floyd St. Louisville, Ky.

PUTTING LOAFERS TO WORK

Papers all over the state continue high in their commendation of Judge Shackelford's efforts to put the loafers to work at this time. The Elizabeth-town News said last week:

"Judge W. K. Shackelford, of the Richmond circuit court, recently requested the mayor of Richmond to procure for him a list of the unemployed able bodied men, white and colored, within the corporate limits of that city. The judge stated that he desired to call the attention of his next grand jury to idleness and as a means of getting the attention of the jurors specifically called to the matter he wanted the exact number who are violating the vagrancy law. The action of Judge Shackelford is along the right line and should be imitated by every Circuit Judge in the state. This is no time for idleness. Those who won't work should not be allowed to eat bread. There is work and plenty of it for every man to get a job who is able to work. We should like to see Judge Layman do just what Judge Shackelford has done. There are a lot of loafers around Elizabethtown. You can hardly go to the L. & N. station here that you do not see standing around from six to a dozen men who do nothing but loaf. Many of this class are worthless negroes who bootleg whisky, shoot craps and won't work. It is a good time to put stout people to work to escape indictment under the vagrancy law, or else force them to skip the town. They have been offered good wages to work in gardens or cut grass on the lawns but they decline. Somebody has to feed these trifling fellows and we believe the best way to feed them is at the county's expense by putting them to work on a rock pile or repairing roads. Away with the loafers and idlers and in this way we can get rid of a number who belong to the criminal class."

We heartily agree with the Etown News and hope Judge Frisbie will fall in line and see that all of our loafers are put to work. Gov. Stanley says there are only two classes that live off of people for nothing—the German aristocrat and a louse—what about the Lancaster loafer?
