

PRESCRIBE EXERCISE FOR THE WOUNDED

"PLAY THERAPY" IDEA IS BEING TRIED OUT IN CAMPS OF CENTRAL MILITARY
DEPARTMENT.

Chicago.—"I prescribe an hour of volley ball for your stiff wrist this morning," is being heard now in a dozen of Uncle Sam's camps wherein wounded soldiers are convalescing. Or, it may be that the prescription is something like this: "Boy, your knee joints are pretty stiff and the hinges of your hips don't work right. Suppose you play arch ball for an hour today and tomorrow and then prolong the period of play a bit. This will do more for you than anything else."

Dr. H. F. Kallenberg, chief of Y. M.
C. A. physical directors in the central military department, with headquarters in Chicago, is receiving word almost daily that the latest method of treating wounded men in government hospitals in such cases as demand exercise of joints, fingers, wrists, legs or arms, is doing wonders for the soldiers. They not only are throwing off their ailments but are taking on cheerfulness and a new interest in life, he declares. The treatment is "new" in that medical men examine each case and prescribe certain games to fit the needs of that case. No playing at games requiring exercise of muscles or joints is done since under the direct supervision of a medical officer, Doctor Kallenberg asserts.

Helping Government.

"Physical directors of the Y. M. C.
A. are helping the government in these matters at this time," explained Doctor Kallenberg. "I understand the application of our theory that the playing of certain games mend certain ailments is being demonstrated with success at various camps in the plain reconstruction of the physical man. We do not undertake massage, hydrotherapy, electrotherapy or manual therapy, but we are finding that specified exercise in play works wonders in loosening joints and brings the man to a normal state."

At the following camps the new treatment of "play therapy" is being used successfully upon hundreds of wounded soldiers, sailors and marines: Taylor, Dodge, Great Lakes, Fort Sheridan, Fort Des Moines, Fort Benjamin Harrison, U. S. General Hospital No. 21, Denver, and plans are being made now to establish the treatment at Camp Funston, Sherman, Custer and the big Ford hospital, Detroit. It is reported that Major Kelley at Camp Grant has set aside two large two-story barracks for a gymnasium and will ask the Y. M. C. A. for two men to assist in directing wounded soldiers in their games.

HONOR FIGHTING PARSON

Dr. John H. Clifford, Baptist minister in time of peace, but real fighter in time of war, has been awarded the croix de guerre for extraordinary heroism in action.

Doctor Clifford, as a Y. M. C. A. worker, braved the red wrath of war.
He has been in the firing zone as much as the hardest infantryman and was decorated for a most unusual exploit.

Doctor Clifford went over the top many times and came near being killed on several occasions. He is fifty-one years old.

Praises "Y" Work.

Unqualified praise by Consul General Harris in Siberia for the service rendered not only to the American expeditionary troops, but also to the Czechs and to Russian prisoners by the American Y. M. C. A. secretaries, is contained in an official communication transmitted to the state department at Washington by Paul S.
Reinsch, American minister to China.

Great Athletic Program.

Through the Y. M. C. A. the United States plans to introduce a project for the development of American athletics to the allied countries. America's greatest athletic leaders are being fitted to direct the movement from the headquarters to be established in Paris.

Are you starved for music without realizing it?

Such a condition is possible. The normal person craves music; unconsciously, if not consciously. It is necessary to mental health. It affords just that emotional stimulus required to lift the mind from its habitual channels. It is refreshing, life-giving. An evening of music means relaxation and dreamless sleep.

that of the New Edison. This has been proved not once but hundreds of times in the famous tone tests in which the artist has sung or played in direct comparison with the New Edithe listeners been able to distinguish artists from instru-

Calls Meeting of Tobacco Growers And Warehousemen.

At a meeting called in Lexington Ky., March 28th, of this year, a tentative organization of the loose leaf tobacco warehouses of this Commonwealth was formed, and in order that not only those who are associated or connected with the loose leaf tobacco warehouses, but all those who are interested in the planting and growing of the 1919 crop may be heard, relative to this organization, a meeting will be held in the Board of Trade Building, Third and Main Streets, Louisville, Ky., at one o'clock P. M.
Saturday April 12th, 1919, and to which every farmer who contemplates growing tobacco this year and every one who is directly or indirectly interested in the tobacco industry, is most earnestly and cordially invited to attend this very important meeting, and join in the discussion as to the necessary course of procedure to prevent the planting of the contemplated acreage of tobacco in Kentucky this year, which, if carried out as contemplated, will undoubtedly result disastrously to those so engaged.

TOTAL VALUE OF ALL FARM CROPS

According to Bureau of Crop Estimates Fully One-Half
Is Found in Cereals.

HEMP CROP INSIGNIFICANT

Vegetables Appear to Be Gaining in Relative Importance—Tobacco Has Highest Value in History for Crop of 1918.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Fully one-half the total value of all farm crops in 1918 at the farm, according to the bureau of crop estimates, is found in the cereals, the crop total being $14,222,000,000 and the cereal total $7,070,000,000. The group next below in value is that of the fiber crops, cotton and hemp, but the latter is insignificant. Including cotton seed, these two crops have a value of $1,040,000,000, or 14 per cent of the aggregate of all crops.

The census items of hay and forage crops make a total value of $1,884,000,- 000 for 1918, or 13 per cent of all crops, but these items do not adequately cover the value of straw and corn stover and do not include pasturage, the value of which may now be roughly estimated at $1,000,000,000—more than one-half as much as that of the hay crop. If pasturage is included, the value of the hay and forage of 1918 must be nearly $3,000,000,- 000—one-fifth of the crop total.

Vegetables Gaining.

Vegetables, subject to high variability in production and price from year to year, nevertheless appear to be gaining in relative importance. Their value in 1909, the latest census year, was 7.6 per cent of that of all crops, and in 1918 it was 9 per cent, or $1,246,- 000,000. The same is true of fruits, the value of which has become $638,- 000,000, or 4.5 per cent, in place of the 3.1 per cent of 1909.

Tobacco has the highest value in history for the crop of 1918, and this reaches the estimate of $374,000,000, or 2.6 per cent of the crop total.

The high prices of lumber and other forest products have raised the farm value of the year's products of "the farmer's wood lot" to considerable proportions. A rough estimate for 1918 computes a value of $366,000,000, or 2.5 per cent of all crops.

Value of "Seed Crops."

The group called "seed crops" in the census arrangement includes beans and peanuts as well as various other seeds.
For 1918 the value of this class of products is $348,000,000, as estimated, and this is 2.4 per cent of the crop total.

In the value of the sugar crops, no beet or cane sugar is included, but only the beets and the sugar cane.
Other items are sorghum cane sold and sirup made and maple sugar and sirup. The total is $137,000,000, of which $94,000,000 represents sugar beets and sugar cane, and this compares with the value at the factory of the 1,007,050 short tons of beet and cane sugar of 1918, which may be $177,- 000,000, more or less.

HOME GARDENING IS FAVORED sons. In the opinion of the United States department of agriculture. The experience of the past few years has proved that persons who have sufficient land and spare time and who do their home gardening work intelligently and efficiently find it profitable.

The relatively high prices of practically all foodstuffs tend to increase the saving effect, but the home garden should be planned with a view to meeting the family needs rather than of producing crops for sale on the market.
