THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS
ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT.

VOL. XXVIII.
CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1904.
8 Pages
NO. 46

MARKED COPY

DEATH ENDS ILLNESS.
Mrs. George R. Claggett died at her home in Louisville, KY, on June 1, 1904, of heart disease, illness from which she had been suffering for some months.

Jas. F. Thompson.

HAVE WRONG NEGRO.
In 1902, at Cowan's United Methodist Church, Rev. R. W. Davis said: "The negro is one of the greatest problems of our times, and the church should look after them, and see that they are treated justly."

Mrs. Emma Trussell, of Chicago, was found dead in her home at 505 W. 111th Street, on the 2nd of June.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE AT THE TAR SPRINGS.
Mrs. Emma Trussell, of Chicago, was found dead in her home at 505 W. 111th Street, on the 2nd of June.

Mrs. Henry C. Waggner died of heart failure at her home in the Blue Hills district of Chicago, on June 3rd.

Mrs. W. W. Lewis, 10 years of age, of this city, wanted to try a new cake batter that her mother had never tasted before. She baked the cake, but unfortunately, the batter was not prepared properly. As a result, the cake turned out to be inedible.

MRS. WAGGNER DEAD
Mrs. Henry C. Waggner died of heart failure at her home in the Blue Hills district of Chicago, on June 3rd.

She was a member of the Blue Hills Methodist Church.

When the mourners entered the church, they found that the service had already begun. The only thing they could do was to sit and listen to the service.

Not Expected to Live.

R. C. M. and R. W. are expected to die at any time.

A Texas Wonder.

One small boy lived in the town. He was the only boy in town and all the children were jealous of him. He was so strong and so brave that he could lift a 50-pound weight with one hand.

He was always the leader at school and in sports. He was loved by everyone.

He was the only boy in town who was not afraid of the bull.

He was the only boy in town who could catch a fish.

He was the only boy in town who could light a fire with his breath.

He was the only boy in town who could hold his breath underwater for 5 minutes.

He was the only boy in town who could swim in the lake without touching the bottom.

He was the only boy in town who could ride a bicycle one-handed.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 100 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 8 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 50-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 100-pound weight with one hand.

He was the only boy in town who could run 10 miles in 1 hour.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 200-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 200 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 10 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 150-pound weight with one hand.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 300-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 300 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 12 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 200-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 400-pound weight with one hand.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 400 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 14 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 250-pound weight with one hand.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 500-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 500 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 16 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 300-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 600-pound weight with one hand.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 600 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 18 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 350-pound weight with one hand.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 700-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could throw a baseball 700 feet.

He was the only boy in town who could jump 20 feet high.

He was the only boy in town who could hold a 400-pound weight with both hands.

He was the only boy in town who could lift a 800-pound weight with one hand.