WITH THE HOSPITAL CORPS.

Silas Lee Miller, whose letter is published herewith is another Breckinridge county boy in France after being in training just three months. He is the grandson of Mrs. Cornelia Miller of Hardinsburg and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Miller of that place.

Evacuation Hosp. No. 13, American Expeditionary Forces, France, August 27, 1918. Dear Parents: Don't guess you have been uneasy by not hearing from me for so long. I landed just three months to the day from the time I left for Camp Taylor some sooner than I expected when I left that day.

We had good luck on our trip, never had a battle with any subs on our way over, but we were well armed for it if it was necessary. It would have been a pretty hard proposition to have torpedoed one of our ships. We were crowded a little on the ship but made out very well after we were out a few days and got straightened up. I was on duty most all the way, our company was on lookout duty most all the way, we were on watch for submarines. I got tired of it before we got here, we changed shifts every four hours but we had to go on all times during the night, so we never got a great deal of sleep. There was so much racket and the ship rocking about so much it took several days to get accustomed to it enough to go to sleep.

It rained almost every day on our way over here and the wind blew some little bit occasionally. There is quite a difference on the sea after you get out several days from land, it is not quite so calm as just a day or two. It seemed to me like the waves were right good size some-times, but the sailors seemed to think they were no waves, but I would not have enjoyed riding them on a life craft or boat very much. I got better acquainted with a life preserver than anything else, kept one on at all times, used it for a pillow as well as a mattress. All of us lookouts slept on upper deck. I only slept in the bunk room one night and that was in the harbor on the night we landed. I didn't feel quite as safe in the bunk room, they were all down in the hull of the ship a little too close to where a torpedo would hit if it should get a chance at the ship.

A few thousand men trying to come at the same time would be quite a mob if any thing should happen and somebody would be likely to be too late to get out of danger.

Believe me you sure get tired of looking at water. You can see a shoal of fish once in awhile, also saw a whale or two on the trip.

Don't think but very few get sea sick on the trip, saw a few that it did not agree with very well but not as many as I expected.

We took a hike out three or four miles in the country this morning to get a look at it, never see a two horse team only some U. S. teams about camp here. All wagons or carts have a couple of wheels as log wagons and one horse to it or sometimes see one hitched in front of the other one if they work two. Fields are from 1/4 to 2 acres in size and a wall or high bank all around them instead of a fence.

Houses are all stone no frame to get in a train, the engine is only a get in a train, the engine is only a toy compared with American locomotives, cars not much larger than road wagon box about the oddest looking thing I have seen yet.

Well guess you all got the card of my safe arrival, am here getting plenty to eat don't worry about me, will be back sometime in the future don't worry if you don't get a letter from me when you expect it for they will not be so regular as they have been but write me as often as possible. I can't write much news from over here as we are not allowed to give any information from here.

Your son, Silas Lee Miller.

THE MEANING OF FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN.

What is the Liberty Loan?
It's forts and it's ships and it's shining guns.

It's squadrons that sweep the sea.
It's all of the circling band of steel
That shall keep all the home shores free.

It's grub and it's warmth for the sailor lad
Far out on the wintry foam.
For the brave jack tar, as he fights afar,

It's the good old "Money from home."
What is the Liberty Loan?
It's rifle and helm and it's bayonet,
It's shovel and sherd and shell
For the soldier boy in the olive drab,
Out there on the edge of hell.
It's soaring wings of the whirling planes
That battle on high alone.
For the lad who is daring "Over there"

It's the good old "Money from home."
What is the Liberty Loan?
It's succor and life for a bleeding world.

It's the glimmer of Peace at dawn.
It's the strength of a mighty arm to strike.
It's the gleam of a great sword, drawn.

But more than all, it's the pledge of love
To the lads whom we call "Our Own."

To the boys on land, afloat on high,

leave the division territory unless so ordered by the division nursing department. Volunteer nurses for this service are desired, but salaries and expenses will be paid where necessary to graduate nurses and $30 to $50 a month to undergraduates and nurse aids.

The most important new step taken at division headquarters today was that of the Department of Civilian Relief when it ordered all of its 360 chapter Home Sections to organize at once to prevent the spread of the disease among the civilian population and to prepare for the handling of the epidemic if it is not prevented from spreading to their respective communities. This department urged.

Assistance to families affected, publicity of preventive measures, cooperation with public health authorities, survey of hospital facilities and buildings that might be available for hospital use if the hospitals become overcrowded.

All these Home Service sections are being requested to wire the division Department of Civilian Relief in case a general epidemic of influenza appears in their territory.

Hark to the bugle call
Summoning clear,
Steel for the soldier boys,
Gold over here.

Vanquish the hordes;
Fix the gold bayonets,
Draw the gold swords.

Scabbards but tarnish them,
Now by our shades,
Forward in unison,
Six billion blades!

AUSTRO-HUNGARY SENDS OUT NEW PEACE FEELER

Party of Hungarians Arrive in Vienna to Aid the Movement.

ASKS HOLLAND TO MEDIATE

Vienna Correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt Says The Hague Already Has Sent Out Invitations to the Conference.

The Hague, Oct. 7.—Holland has not invited belligerent nations to begin negotiations for peace, the foreign office announced. There is not a word of truth in the statement of the Berlin Tageblatt to that effect, it adds.

Washington, Oct. 7.—State department officials lack official confirmation of the reported Austrian peace bid—a new proposal—sent to all belligerents through Holland. The Netherlands legation was also without information regarding the move.

Secretary Lansing authorized the following:

"The American government has received no invitation from Austria-Hungary to participate in a peace movement."

If Austria, however, has decided to "try it again," the reception will be accorded her latest manifesto will be along the same lines as was the last, when President Wilson dispatched a 68-word reply and ended the matter.

This assumption on the part of officials is taken on the basis that Austria's "plea" contains as much sincerity as its predecessor. If the dual monarchy, though, expresses a willingness to see the light as Bulgaria did, and make unconditional surrender, the allies will talk business.

Vienna to Seek Peace.

Amsterdam, Oct. 7.—Austria-Hungary has requested Holland to invite the belligerents to take part in peace negotiations, says the Vienna correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt. The correspondent adds that Holland has sent out the invitations.

A delegation of Hungarian statesmen, headed by Premier Wokertle, has arrived at Vienna in connection with a new peace move, according to the Cologne Gazette.

The members of the Wokertle party were Count Stephen Tisza and Count Julius Andrássy, former premiers of Hungary, and Count Albert Apponyi, the Hungarian minister of instruction.

WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY.

Due to the high price of cream at the present time, with prospects for a continued good market this winter, and the price of bran lower than at the same time last year, the farmer who wants to have a steady income has a great chance right now by feeding and milking his cows and marketing the cream.

LETTERS from our boys in the trenches and from the women in canteen and other war work, all bring to us the same message—SEND US NEWS FROM HOME.

World news is all right, but OUR BOYS want NEWS OF THIS TOWN. They want the home newspaper. Publishers are prevented from sending their papers free to anyone, even boys in the service. Consequently a national movement has been started by Col. William Boyce Thompson of New York, who is acting as President of the Home Paper Service of America to give the boys what they are calling for. Every community is joining the movement. Let us see that our boys are not forgotten.

Send to the publisher of this newspaper whatever amount of money you can—5 cents or $50.00. We will publish a list each week of those contributing, and the amounts contributed.

Every cent received will be used to send this paper to our boys at the front. If at the end of the war, there is any surplus, it will be turned over to the local Red Cross Committee.

There is no profit in this to the publisher—even in normal times, subscriptions are not sold at a profit. With war prices prevailing, and the high rate of postage on papers sent to France, our cost will scarcely be covered by our full subscription price.

Remember that over in France, some brave soldier or sailor from this town—perhaps even some splendid woman working within sound of the guns—is depending on you to "KEEP THE HOME LOVE KINDLED."
