Mr. and Mrs. Haswell will re-

September 1, when they will go to Springfield, Ill., for the unveiling of the Northcott Memorial, which commemorates the life work of the late William A. Northcott, whose widow now resides on Hedgerow lane, Clifton, with her daughter, Mrs. W. G.

Alpaugh, who was Miss Simmral's attractive dove cote. This memorial, which was designed and executed by Mr. Haswell, is a very beautiful and distinguished piece of work, and the sculptor's friends regret that the time was long enough before it was forwarded to Illinois for all of them to see it. However, in the autumn, Mr.
Haswell promises to have a model of it at his studio, where those who frequent this pleasant place may take a look at this, one of his most ambitious and successful chef d'oeuvres.

Home Coming of the ## Chism Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Chism, of Irvington are enjoying a family reunion of their children this summer for the first time since 1907.

With them are Mr. and Mrs. David Chism, of New Albany, Ind., the former having a position as assistant Superintendent of the Government Depot in Jeffersonville; Rev Arthur Chism who has been attending school at Bethel College, Russellville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Chism, of Raymond; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doan of near Guston; Mrs. Ada Stanfield, of Irvington. One daughter, Mrs. C.
Knott, of Marshall, Ind., was ill from an operation and not able to come home.

Blue, Bluer, Bluest.

Not to be outdone with Lord Byron Whitehead's great musical success—"Hookemcowblues," Eldred Babbage, popularly known as "Johnny," has composed the bluest piece of music you ever listened to. He calls it "Suzane Swimmer Blues," and the chorus runs something like this:

"My girl, my girl, has gone and left me,
And I don't know what I'll do; I'll go down to the river and take a bath And wash away the blues."

Talk about the "Memphis Blues," "Hesitation Blues," "Alcoholic Blues," or "Hookemcowblues," but "Suzane Swimmer Blues" is sure an indigo blue.
"Johnny" and "Faro" Ferry rendered it for the first time at the LaFayette Skydome the other night and everybody, even the laughing moon and twinkling stars, got so blue Os Holder had to make a speech in order to cheer them up.

When it comes to making a speech Patrick Henry's Bunker Hill effort sounds like a lead nickel dropped in the mud when Os Holder takes a half hitch in his belt and opens up. His Skydome effort made the angels standing on the pearly parapets of Paradise weep for joy.
He brought his audience out of a languorous mood when even the screen had commenced to turn blue. Cow Heel is proud of Os as he is equal to any occasion.
