ON TO WASHINGTON.

Number From This Section Will Attend Inauguration.

A number from this section, including a party of half a dozen or more from Pembroke, will attend the inauguration in Washington D. C. next Tuesday. Nearly all of those who make the trip will leave Saturday morning for Cincinnati and will leave that city over the C. & O. the same evening for Washington. Others will depart Sunday morning, going the same route.

That the trip will prove a most delightful one goes without the saying, as any one who has taken a trip over the picturesque C. & O. always has a desire to repeat whenever an opportunity is afforded.

Boy or Girl?

Friends here of Rev and Mrs. M. A. Jenkins, Louisville, have been advised of the birth of Eidelweiss Jenkins on Feb. 16, weight 6 3/4 pounds. Speculation is rife as to whether the infant is a boy to be called "Ide" or a girl to be called "Wezie."

NOTICE!

We have just unloaded a nice lot of farm and brood mares.

Mr. Fitch called on the Governor and received his commission in person.

Dead At 85.

James H. Bassett died at his home in Leitchfield last Monday, aged 85 years, after a lingering illness. He is survived by three sons and four daughters, namely: Col. E. B., Dr. Frank H. Bassett, of this city, and R. J. Bassett of Leitchfield; Mrs. F. R. Dent, of Louisville; Mrs. J. B. Chick, Mrs. Mary S. Kenny, and Mrs. W. F. Gregory. Col. Bassett and Dr. Bassett left Monday morning to attend the funeral.

In Regular Service.

Dr. L. G. Alexander will next Saturday go on the regular list of the local post office force. He has been working as extra for nearly a year and has proven his efficiency. The business of the post office has been growing steadily and the increase was found to be necessary. He has charge of the parcels post department.

Missing Negro Found.

Bert Smothers, the negro who, it was thought, was taken from the Clay jail and made away with by a mob of infuriated citizens Saturday, has been found and returned to the Powell county jail. It developed that Smothers escaped from the Clay City calaboose, which is only a frail structure. Thinking he would be mobbed, he hid away in the hills.

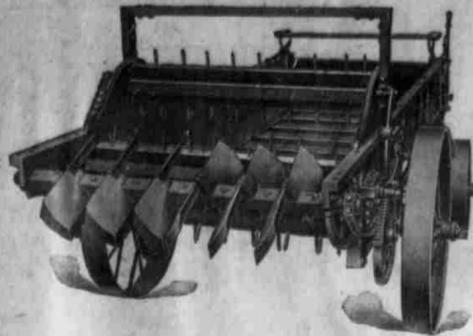

Held Constitutional.

Washington, Feb. 26.—On the theory that traffic in women in interstate commerce may be regulated by legislation as well as the traffic in drugs, foods or cattle, the Supreme Court of the United States Monday upheld the validity of the Federal White Slave Traffic Act of 1910.

SEVERAL MONTHS

Before County Teachers of Henderson Get Their Money.

The county board of education of Henderson county are arranging to get money, says the Gleaner, with which to pay their teachers. Prof. Hamlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has notified the board that the money to pay them will not be forthcoming for several months. There is nothing more calculated to cause a shortage in the supply of teachers than the head of the school system not being able to pay teachers when their salaries are due.

Lamb Clamor.

F. B. McCown, of Kirkmansville, has two ewes which are caring for six lambs and he says the lambs are keeping up an incessant bleating for higher prices on wool.

Hog Cholera Serum.

The first hog cholera serum made at the new state plant at Lexington, will be shipped to Henderson and will be used by Mr. Charles A. Mahan on hogs of that county.

Prospective Candidates.

Prospective candidate will find something of interest by reading the following from the Frankfort State Journal:

Candidates before the August Primary have begun to deluge the attorney general's department with inquiries about the primary law.

The two questions that confuse them most are with regard to the signatures to their petitions and the method of voting. Many of them are in doubt whether they must have a signature of a certain percent of the voters in every precinct in the county.

They have been informed that where the law says a certain percent of voters in the county, they need pay no attention to precinct lines and may get their signatures from any part of the county. These signatures must be secured not more than 90 nor less than 30 days before the primary.

Others wish to know whether the voters affiliated with one party may by writing on their ballots vote for a candidate of another party, to which the answer is, no. The same answer is given to those who ask whether they may write on the ballot under the name of a person other than a candidate nominated by petition.

New Attorney.

It is now Attorney Frank Hage. He was sworn in as a member of the local bar by Judge Hanbery Tuesday morning. He has been reading law many years but during his connection with his earlier history of the Home Telephone Company his duties were so pressing that he had to give up study for some time. Everybody wishes him success.

Todd Wakes Up.

April 12 has been fixed for a vote in Todd county on a bond issue of $190,000 for building turnpikes. This county has no debt of any kind and has always been loth to vote bonds; through the county has only about fifty miles of pike road if it. The Todd county good roads association is active in behalf of the bond issue.
