GOT WHAT SHE ASKED FOR.

An American negro stevedore assigned to the great docks in Southwestern France had written several letters to his black Susanna in Jacksonville, Fla., where she wrote back saying:

"You all don't nevah tell me nothin' 'bout the battle a-tal. Tildan Sublet's Dave done wrote her all about how he kitched two Germans all by himself and kilt three mo'."

The stevedore was reluctant to tell his girl that he was doing manual labor and that his only accoutrement was the tawny of mwhich he ate his war bread, "alum" and coffee. His reply ran:

"Dear Sue: De battle am goin' on. You would faint if I told you de full details. Ah'm standing in blood up to my knees, and every time I move I step on a dead German. We are too close to use our rifles, and we're bitin' and goug'n' 'em. At one time me and two othah niggahs was hangin' on to de crown prince wid our teeth and old papa kaiser done beat us off wid a fence rail until reem-festments come"—Life.

FARMHAND'S WAGES

Those who have been thinking the farmhand has been underpaid should compare his wages with what the city man is paid. An editorial in the July Farm and Fireside says:

"The farmhand comes in for considerable discussion nowadays, but he is much better off than most people think. The Ohio State Council of Defense has been making a survey of labor conditions, and reports that a married man working on the farm for $30 a month is as well off as if he were to receive $105 in a city; that a $35 a month farm job equals a $110 city job; that a $40 farm job equals a $115 city job, and so on. Not taking into consideration, the report adds, 'the possibility of raising some stock or produce on shares, which is usually customary.'"

"Nor has the married man on the farm job a monopoly of advantages, for the report further finds that an unmarried farmhand receiving $25 is as well off as if he were receiving $80 in the city; that a $30 job for the bachelor farmhand equals a $90 city job; and that a $40 job on the farm is as good as a $95 job in the city, and so on. The difference in aggregate returns is brought about by house rent, groceries, meat, milk, light, fuel, unnecessary expenses, and luxuries."

VINE GROVE GIRL LOSES SIGHT WHILE ASLEEP

Vine Grove, Ky., July 11.—Miss Louise Medley, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Medley, awoke this morning to find herself totally blind. The parents will leave with her tomorrow for Louisville for treatment under a specialist.

Tri Wessel, a German from Louisville, was arrested at Taylorsville, Ky., for saying he hoped Germany would win.

Slip 1, knit 7, slip 1, knit 1, pass slipped stitch over knit stitch, knit 1, turn.

Slip 1, purl 8, purl 2 together, purl 1, turn.

Slip 1, knit 9, slip 1, knit 1, pass slipped stitch over knit stitch, knit 1, turn.

Continue until there are 16 stitches on the needle.

Repeat E F G H 3 times (making 4 times in all.)

Then narrow every other row 5 times.

Knit the 5 stitches of your 1st needle on to your 3rd needle.

You now have ten stitches on each of the 2 needles.

Break wool (leaving 12 inch length) and thread it into worsted needle. Hold sock so that the worsted needle is at your right hand always keeping wool under knitting needles, weave front and back together as follows:

(*) Pass worsted needle through first stitch of front knitting needle as if knitting, and slip stitch off the knitting needle.

Pass through second stitch as if purling, and leave stitch on the knitting needle.

Pass through 1st stitch of back needle as if purling, and slip stitch off the knitting needle.

Pass through 2nd stitch of back needle as if knitting, and leave stitch on knitting needle.

Repeat from (*) until all stitches are off needles.

In order to avoid ridge across end of toe, fasten wool down the side.

Laid on level surface the finished sock should measure:

Foot: Length, 11 1/2 inches, but, 10 1/2 to 12 1/2 is acceptable.

Leg: Length, 14 inches; circumference, 8 inches.

Cuff: Circumference, unstretched, 6 inches; stretched to fullest extent, 13 1/2 inches.

YOUR FAITH—HOW DEEP IS IT?

Privat Harold R. Peat, in an article which appears in the Red Cross Magazine for June, exhorts the people of America to have faith in the God of Nations in our present ordeal.

He says:

"It is hard. Who can measure the terror of the supreme test? The Belgian devastation? Ask the Belgian refugees why they will not leave England, why they will not cross the Atlantic to a larger country and a world of new opportunity. Why? 'Because we are going home, when Victory is ours—when the enemy is driven over the border, when shells are stifled and dead men's bones may rest in quietness.'"

"Faith—have we such superb faith? If you doubt your power of faith, make ready now. Each test held on squared shoulders is a victory toward the victory which is final."

"We must win. Every word whispered of peace is ours before right of earning, is a whisper to aid the enemy. Every word whispered of peace, before peace for all time is gained is a shirking of the tests and trials of a faith which must prove worthy of Victory."
