Health About Gone
Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. _____ had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

If you could buy a friend for $5.00 a year

—a friend with stimulating ideas on national and local problems, one whose views would command as much respect, for instance, as that received by the editorial page of the Louisville Courier-Journal;

—a friend who would meet you early in the day and tell you in a concise, authoritative way about every important world event during the preceding twenty-four hours, quoting what the New York Times was printing the same morning, what the reliable Associated Press was saying about politics, strikes, or the High Cost of Living; giving you news which he had received by wire the night before from correspondents all over Kentucky, Indiana, and Tennessee;

—a friend who would sit down while you were eating your cereal and draw a cartoon which would make you think, and then some pictures that would make you laugh;

—a friend versatile enough to give your wife just what she wants to know about cooking, shopping and fashions, then entertain the children every day with a forest animal story.

—a friend who is not obtrusive, but who stands ready, any moment during the day to answer your questions about racing, boxing or any other sport—and the next minute "tip you off," if you want him to, on the way stocks are selling on the metropolitan markets.

—If you only COULD buy a friend like that, and for $5.00 a year.

The daily Courier-Journal is ready to do all that this person might. Its opinions always are worth careful consideration, its news service is reliable and complete, its features for the home and for every member of the family are entertaining and instructive, and it costs only $5.00 for an entire year.

Lincoln's Advice.

Abraham Lincoln gave some pretty good advice when he said: "Teach economy. That is one of the first and highest virtues. It begins with the saving of money." It would be interesting to know just how many parents in this country have waked up to the fact that the teachers in our schools have organized their pupils into Thrift Clubs and are giving systematic instruction in Thrift and Saving. If you are a parent, let your child's teacher know you appreciate this training being given for success and prosperity. And do not forget it is a duty of every parent to set his child a wise example. When did you buy your last War Savings Stamp?

But for the Sheriff of New Albany a mob would have lynched a negro in that city for an assault upon a white woman.

Transporting perishable commodities like poultry, butter and eggs over 100 miles over all kinds of rutty roads, brick pavement and through Illinois mud from 15 to 20 inches deep is not the easiest problem in the world, and to the Frank Produce Company of Lincoln, it offered a source of worry that corrugated the brow of H. L. Atlas, proprietor of the company. His accountant finally told him that the solid tired trucks in use were costing more in depreciation and upkeep than they earned. On the verge of deciding to return to horse-drawn vehicles, Mr. Atlas bought a new truck equipped with Goodyear cord pneumatics. Now he writes enthusiastically that in 12 months he has spent nothing on repairs, carries heavy overloads on the same poor roads, his gas and oil consumption has decreased 30 percent and he is able to retain drivers because they are not tired out each night from the jolting they got from the solid-tired vehicle.
