Gradyville.

We are needing rain. Uncle Robert O. Keltner has been on the sick list for several weeks. Miss Christine Nell returned from Bowling Green last week where she has been in school for several months. Mrs. Zora Rowe and her son Kinnard, of Georgetown passed through here one day last week enroute for Red Lick. J. F. Pendleton and sons, of Greensburg, were in our midst last Friday. Mr. Pendleton is one of the best traders in this section of the state, and he informed us he would be in this section to buy all the cattle as soon as the people were ready to sell. Mr. J. N. Coffey, one of the best surveyors in the state, spent a day or so in our midst, locating our new pike. His survey was very satisfactory to us all. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wilmore and daughters, of Bogard, Mo., spent a few days in our midst last week. We were all delighted to have them with us again. They are looking well and enjoying the best of health. Mr. and Mrs. C. Keltner, of McGregor, Texas, arrived a few days ago, and will spend several weeks in this part of Adair county. Mr. and Mrs. Keltner left Adair county quite a number of years ago for the Lone Star State, and they certainly have made good, but they have never forgotten the dear people of old Adair. Mr. M. F. Sparks, one of Red Lick's best farmers and business men, called in to see us on his return from Columbia, a few weeks ago, and he was delighted to hear the interest the people were taking in the proposed pike from Gradyville to Columbia. Mr. Sparks is one of the public spirited men, and he at once donated $25.00 to the pike fund, and said when we run out of money, just let him know and he would come again with a larger sum. He also stated that he would donate $100 on every mile of pike that was built from Grabyville to Edmonton. We want to say to Mr. Sparks, when our road is completed from this place to Columbia, if he and other good citizens living on the road from Edmonton will take the road subject up he will find the people at Gradyville will come up with their part of the dough and will be more than glad to do this. Come again brother Sparks, we are always glad to see you. A good man and his estimable daughter, Mrs. Robertson, sold their beautiful home and farm near our town, a few days ago to Mr. Otha Estes, of East Fork section for forty five hundred dollars. Uncle Charlie and his daughter have not decided where they will locate. Owing to the old age of Uncle Charlie and the bad health of his daughter, they decided to sell their home. No better people, as we all know ever lived in our town. The example of their lives will be a living monument for the people in this community. As they decided to sell their home, we are all glad that they turned it over to Mr. Estes and his good family. We certainly are glad to have these good people in our community. We are sure they will come near filling the places of Uncle Charlie and his daughter as could be. Messrs. Bradshaw Bros. of Columbia, who have had charge of quite a lot of hands in this section manufacturing staves for their company, Elrod & Co., of Columbia, for the past two months, finished up a lot of seventeen thousand staves in one yard, last week. We have found this work to be a great help to this community in a financial standpoint as it put money into the hands of a number of our people, who really needed it for their labor. Col. J. Z. Miller Dead. Belton, July 11.—Col. J. Z. Miller, Sr., a prominent citizen of Bell county for many years, died at his home in this city this morning at 10 o'clock, following an illness of several weeks. The deceased would have been 86 years old on Aug. 23. He was born at Columbia, Ky., on Aug. 23, 1834, and came from that state to Bastrop county in the early days, and came to Bell county when still a young man. As long as he was a resident here he was prominent in the affairs of the country. On moving to Belton he became connected with the bank of Miller Bros., bankers, and in 1884 he organized the Belton National bank and remained as its president until his death. When the war between the states broke out Colonel Miller at once enlisted in the service with the Confederate states, attaining the rank of Colonel. Following the war he returned to Belton, where he continued his residence. Col. J. Z. Miller was one of the most prominent citizens Bell county ever had. He was active in all matters that was for the good of the county and for many years an active fighter for prohibition. He was equally active in church matters and was for many years one of the leaders of the Christian church of this city. During the years from 1895 to 1900 Colonel Miller was president of the Texas National Bankers' Association and held other prominent offices in banking circles. He was the uncle of J. Z. Miller, Jr., of Kansas City, who is governor of the Federal Reserve bank at that place. In addition to this nephew he is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. J. Burriss of Lyonsburg, Ky., a son, Will Miller, of this city, and several grandchildren. Mr. Miller of Kansas City is expected to reach here tomorrow in time for the funeral. The other relatives with the exception of the sister were present when death came. The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the family residence. Rev. E. C. Boynton, of Marshall, will have charge of the services at the residence. The body will be buried with Masonic honors in north Belton cemetery by the side of his wife and daughter. The above article states that Col. Miller was born at Columbia. That is a mistake. He was born in Adair county near Montpelier. When quite a young man he was a merchant in this place, and is very kindly remembered by some of our older citizens. He was a first cousin of Eld. Z. T. Williams, of Columbia.
