DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,
HON. HARVEY HELM.

thurnum a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney Twenty-Eighth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Republican Primary, Election August 15, 1908.

For County Court Clerk.

We are authorized to announce G.
T. JOHNSON as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce FELIX BOWMAN as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR JAILER.

We are authorized to announce CAM MULLINS as a candidate for Jailer of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce W.
A. TAYLOR as a candidate for Jailer of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR ASSESSOR

We are authorized to announce W.
H. BAKER as a candidate for Assessor of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

A special from Nebraska says: W. J. Bryan, who is on his way to Chicago, was greeted by a large crowd of admirers when he arrived at Omaha Friday. Although protesting that this is not a speechmaking trip, he was induced to mount a baggage trunk at the depot and address the crowd during the fifteen minutes the train remained here.

He was introduced by Congressman John Sharp Williams. Mr.
Bryan spoke as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I want to say to you that it is twelve years since Williams began introducing me, and he has been at it off and on ever since. If all the States would do as well as Mississippi has done, I would, long ago, have been retired to private life, after being President for four years, for Mississippi was the one State in which I carried every precinct in the State, and returns now indicate that I may reasonably expect the electoral vote from there this year.

I am in rather an embarrassing position. I have not been notified of my nomination as yet, and it would not be proper for me to enter upon any discussion of politics until the platform is formally presented to me and I have been officially notified that I have been nominated.

In the course of the campaign I will have opportunity to discuss the various questions that are at issue, and I shall not enter upon that discussion now. I will from time to time also get reports from various sections. In fact they are coming now, and the reports indicate this—that the Democratic party this year is more united than it has been since 1892, and that in itself is a good omen, for when the Democratic party is united it has very close to a majority of the votes in the United States, if not an absolute majority. [Applause.]

When we commence with a united party, we are a long way on the road to victory. Then, too, the Republican party is more divided than it has been in the last sixteen years. The Republican party has a larger load to carry than it has had to carry before. It has for instance, enormous appropriations to carry; it has a deficit to carry and it has a panic that it cannot lay on anybody else. It has very unfairly attributed all events to the Democrats when they were in power, and it will take it more than four months to undo the arguments it has been making against Democrats.

MACK ASCHAIRMAN.

The selection of Norman E. Mack as chairman of the National Democratic Committee with the consent of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, and W. J. Connors, chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee, not only insures the national Democratic party a practical and business-like management of the campaign, but materially adds to the Democratic chances of carrying New York for Mr. Bryan. With Murphy, Connors and Mack united, the last element of serious dissension in the New York Democracy is removed the disaffection of McCarren not offering material caused for uneasiness to those interested in Democratic success.

Gov. Hughes is fairly certain to be the nominee of the republicans for Governor, but Gov. Hughes will have opposed to him practically the whole of the machine and the racing interests which represent no small degree of moneyed strength.
The Republican party will not enter the campaign united. The Democratic party will. New York is always a debatable State, and Mr.
Bryan is stronger in New York than in any of his former races.

For a man who knows nothing of practical politics, it would seem that Mr. Bryan has made a remarkably good guess in selecting Mack, and has shown good generalship in assuring to the new national chairman the support of Murphy and Connors.—Louisville Times.

LIVINGSTON

Mrs. W. H. Satterfield and two daughters, of Louisville were guest of Mrs. Satterfield's sister, Mrs. H.
D. Magee at the Eight Gables from Tuesday until Saturday afternoon when they returned to Mt. Vernon where they are spending the summer with Mrs. Satterfield's other sister, Mrs. R. A. Sparks.—S. E.
Pennington is making some much needed improvements to the Eight Gables Hotel by a new porch floor and a new coat of paint which adds very much to the beauty of the place. Sam is certainly a hustler and is worthy of the success he is having.

W. F. Sheridan Supt of Transportation for the L. & N. was in our city Thursday and Friday last on business.—W. W. Wright attended the Stanford fair last Thursday and speaks in the highest terms of the fair.—P. W. Durham who has been very low of typhoid fever is convalescent.—Mrs. Bowman who has been quite sick for some weeks, is much improved and is able to be out again.—There was a meeting called at the Calloway Hall Tuesday evening by the tax payers of our school district to investigate manner in which the repairs were made to the school building there being complaint that there was discrimination used in the letting of the contracts for the repairs. There were some thirty-five citizens present and a committee was appointed to wait upon the board of trustees and get the facts in the case and make these reports at a meeting which is to be held at the Hall on next Monday evening.
Let every citizen come out and show an interest in these meetings and don't stay away and say things on the streets which you cannot speak in these meetings; this is not justice to either the patrons or trustees.

H. R. Wade has gone to Ohio and Virginia on a three weeks vacation.—W. W. Wright will leave Aug. 1st. for a 10 days vacation.—

Remember the school trustee election to be held Saturday next.
There is another candidate added to the list. John Pope is the third candidate. It has been rumored that I have pulled off, I wish to correct this statement by saying that I have not done so but expect to be in the race until the finish and I hope to finish first in the race.
Let me again impress upon you one and all the importance of your coming out and casting your vote. I also ask you again if you can conscientiously do so to vote for me for the place and I will do my utmost to discharge my duties to the satisfaction of the majority of the voters.

The Republican Congressional Committee will open headquarters in the St. James building, New York, Saturday. Frank H.
Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National Committee, is expected to be in New York that day.

ABOUT MT. VERNON

If you cant boast don't knock.

Push for your home town, not against it.

We have a good town and its getting better all the time.

All stand together and pull for the good of our town and county.

Don't make a nuisance of yourself by running down your home town.

Keep your eye on the man that has no good word for his town.
There is something wrong with him.

A look around our town will convince anyone that things are moving along decidedly better than in the years gone by.

There is plenty of work here for every one. No excuse for loafers or to go away to hunt jobs. Plenty of them right here.

There never was a town organization but had its criticisms, some probably just, but mostly [uncalled for if the situation was properly studied and understood.

Loafers clubs have been disbanded; unable to find any further excuses for dodging work or holding their organizations together. Plenty of work right at our doors.

A steady growth has marked Mt.
Vernon's progress for the last seven years. The last two years has shown an increased activity in all lines of business enterprises, building streets and other improvements.

That petty jealousy that existed in the past between our business men is now almost wholly absent.
Each desires success to all instead of wishing less competition. This is as it should be and shows the proper spirit.
