Fellow citizens and "udder fellers", will some one please mount the rostrum and tell us what is the matter with prohibition, that it don't prohibit? They do say that the "drug business" is a "cinch". You can run a "dummy drug store" with two dozen dreary old glass bottles on the shelves punctured by the hand of time with a prohibitory law at your back and a tall red barrel in the back room filled with a mixture that will burn great holes into nature's heart and make the cemetery blossom as the rose. With a prescription blank not necessary for publication, but simply as a guarantee of good faith, you may stand behind a tall black walnut prescription case day in and day out with a graduate in one hand and a Babcock fire extinguisher in the other filling orders for whiskey made of stump water and the juice of future punishment.

About the time a fellow thinks he's a "big gun", someone comes along and fires him.

"Built Me Up"

"I USED Cardui for years and it did me more good than any medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. M. C. Ragsdale, of Fort Towson, Okla. "I used to suffer with womanly trouble that weakened me until I was a mere shadow, nervous, and could not sleep. I did not feel like I could live.

"It seemed that nothing helped me till I heard of Cardui and began to use it. It strengthened me and, as 'twas recommended to do, it regulated and built me up till I was like another woman."

If you are weak, run-down and feel that you need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic, the tonic about which you have always heard, the tonic that helps weak women regain their strength.

Cardui acts on the womanly system and helps relieve pain and discomfort due to female ailments.

Try Cardui, today, for your trouble.
