

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. II.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1883.

NO. 116.

JULIA A. HUNT is billed for Carlisle, Saturday night.

VERSAILLES has two brass bands and no workhouse.

YOUR aunt Alice didn't draw well Wednesday night.

A MASCOTTE is a Mascotte. Everybody ought to know that.

STONER is on a high old rampage after the flood last night.

SMALL-POX is raging to an alarming extent near Boyd's Station.

Peter Cooper, the great Greenbacker, died in New York, Wednesday.

MORGAN's men have secured the use of the Lexington Fair Grounds to camp on in July.

MASKED men burned down the small-pox house of Bettie Ragan, col'd, in Mt. Sterling.

THE finder of a pair of steel spectacles will be rewarded by leaving the same at this office.

THE colored agriculturist is now beginning to look around for "wums fer bait" for catfishing.

DR. SWEET set a dislocated hip for Mrs. Green Remington, at Cynthiana, and she is improving.

NOBODY has been killed at Winchester with dynamite for over a week. What's the matter?

THE Chesapeake & Ohio will change time in May and put on four more passenger trains.

TOP of the morning to you, Mayor Purnell! May you live long and run a correct justice mill!

ONLY about three more miles of track to be laid on the K. C. extension between here and Winchester.

SHARPSBURG is going to have a new jail. It is to be completed in three weeks at a cost of $175.

THE Cynthiana News says that 75 wagons loaded with tobacco, came into town one day last week.

ALL citizens of Lexington not in the newspaper business have gone into a negro minstrel organization.

C. P. HUNTINGTON, of the Chesapeake and Ohio, is said have decided to build a Union Depot in Louisville.

THERE are one hundred and five cadets at Kentucky Military Institute—the largest number since the war.

AS an able-bodied stand-up arrangement, we will show our printers' towel with that of any office in the State.

FOUR of the seven tunnels have been completed on the K. C. extension, and the balance will be completed in a few days.

FIFTEEN of the Emmet Rifles at Maysville, are to be court-martialed for not responding to the call to attend the Ashland trip.

SEE Newhoff's new advertisement in this issue. A visit to his house will show you that he is indeed, densely crowded.

SHELMAN MANN, formerly of Carlisle, has been engaged as driver of the fine Wizard Oil team and is now pulling the strings.

THE Lexington Transcript will receive the Associated Press dispatches by telephone, from Louisville, and will discard the patent plates.

MR. STERLING is improving very rapidly. Among the latest projects are a new hotel, jail, engine house, depot and Methodist Church.

WESLEY COMES, of Lexington, a youth sixteen years of age has been arrested for attempting to wreck a train on the Louisville and Lexington road.

JUDGE TURNEY says that the subscription asked for by the F. G. & P. road is limited to two years, and will then be forfeited if the road is not built.

SOME dastardly scoundrel threw a rock through the window of a passenger train Tuesday evening, between Lexington and this place. Luckily, no one was sitting by the window.

DR. RITZ, the Gov. McCreary-looking-man in command of the Wizard Oil turn-out says he will take in Carlisle next Monday. Look out for the plumed horses and string band!

ONE darkey talking to another early yesterday morning in front of a saloon which hadn't opened, said: "Dis is a late gittin' up town, but when they do git up dey'll skin a flea every time."

THE time appointed for Craft to climb the golden stair is drawing near.

JORDON SUTHERLAND, aged twelve years, fell from a load of hay, in Lewis county, and stuck the prongs of a steel pitchfork through his body, from which he instantly died.

W. M. Taylor, of this precinct, has received information that his brother Oscar, at Midway, who has been ill for several months, is fast sinking, with no hopes of recovery.

At Elizabethtown, Ella Goodman has filed suit against Jasper Allen, a young dry goods merchant, for breach of promise and seduction, in which she fixes her damages at $20,000.

THE old amphitheater of the Bourbon Fair Grounds is about half torn down, and yet but a nickel has been found under it. It is supposed to be the property of some fat man who couldn't crawl under.

Rev. J. E. Hutson, an evangelist from Virginia, will do the preaching at the Baptist revival which begins here Sunday. He is said to be natural and effective in style and a successful laborer—having doubled the membership of churches in several instances. Services begin at 10 and 7 1/2. The public is cordially invited.

CAPT. THOMAS, who has just returned from the mountains, talked as follows to the Mt. Sterling Sentinel: "For the present the company proposes to build from a point on the C. & O. R'y., into Red River Valley and further into the mountains and ultimately extend it northwardly to Paris and across to the Cincinnati Southern or to Cincinnati."

At the City election Wednesday, the Democratic ticket was elected without opposition. W. M. Purnell, for Mayor, got 172 votes, and Jas. Mernaugh and Capt. Henry 169, for Marshal and Deputy. The candidates for Councilmen also received a very complimentary vote. For Board of Education, Capt. Thomas, G. C. Lockhart and A. Shire were elected.

Bob Armstrong Bailed.

There seems to be quite a revulsion of feeling in the case of R. G. Armstrong, on bail at this time, charged with the killing of Milton Boyd. At the time the deed was committed, from representations of the particulars of the case, it was feared that Armstrong would be mobbed. His bond was placed so high that he, "a stranger in a strange land," with limited means, could not give it, and he was remanded to jail, where he has remained for nearly nine months. In the trial the other day at the Court house, for reduction of bond, when the examination into facts of the case was made, the bond was reduced to $1,500, which was promptly made by some of our best citizens, some of whom had never seen Armstrong before. The young man is keenly alive to the services rendered him by these gentlemen, and is deeply grateful.—[Columbus, (Texas) Citizen.]

Stick to your flannels till they stick to you.

Geo. Purnell left yesterday for Chicago. It is now feared that "Murty" Miller has consumption.

The suit of the town trustees against Mr. Barnett, for possession of the old town hall, will take place to-day.

Eld. Myers will preach at the Christian Church, this place, Sunday morning at 11, and at Riddles Mills at 3 1/2 p. m.

Alf Stitt has written to a friend here that his mother has been offered a profit of $55,000 on her ranche and cattle thereon.

"Nubbin" Jones is now reforming his character on a rock pile, paying his compliments to the town for disorderly conduct.

Miss Julia A. Hunt, in Florinel, is billed for Bryan's Hall to-night. Julia is quite a favorite here, and will be greeted with a full house.

Johnnie Miller, of the firm of Miller & Brady, arrived here from Atlanta, Tuesday night. He will return in a few days, after buying some stock.

Sam'l Dodson, as clever and worthy a citizen as lives in the place, has succeeded Hamlet Sharp, of the firm of Collier & Sharp, in the coal and lumber business.

President Batson has resigned his charge of the K. W. C., to take effect in June. He has accepted a situation in the Kentucky Military Institute, at a salary of $1,500 per annum.

Messrs. Clay and Tucker, two society beaux of Georgetown, gave a hop at the Wells House in honor of Miss Katie McClelland and sister, and Miss Ballard, of Ohio, and Miss McAllister, of Danville.

Mrs. Rosa M. McDonald, Louisville, says she has derived great benefit from Brown's Iron Bitters in nervousness and general debility.

SCINTILLATIONS.

What on earth does Frank Carr want with a piano?

—D. D. Conway and wife have taken board with S. B. Ewalt.

—Miss Tillie Brent has returned home from an extended visit to Louisville.

—James McCarney and John Smith are out again, after a protracted illness.

A. P. Allis has been confined to his bed for several days with a severe illness.

—J. W. Piper, of Mayville, called in and made himself happy with the News the other day.

—W. A. Parker read the BOURBON News and laughed himself out of bed and a severe illness.

—Wm. Carpenter, late of Mason co., is helping Dave Conway in the billiard hall during Tom Paul's illness.

—A man resides in Crittenden county whose name is Lains Bible, while his wife's name is Sarah Testament.

—A paste diamond worth $2 was picked up in the Vanderbilt mansion after the great costume ball, which was a $10,000 affair.

—"Phare lady," is the way that a good looking country girl of this precinct was addressed in a letter recently received from a neighboring county.

—Sergeant Boston Corbett, the man who killed Booth, the assassin of Lincoln, is a cattle raiser in Kansas. He has become a religious enthusiast.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Nunn, of Hannibal, Mo., is the guest of her brother, Dr. Noah Moore, and will remain about one month before joining her son at Jersey City.

—A cat-fish has already swallowed Senator Beck's gold eye-glasses in Florida. The distinguished fisherman who will return the treasure, is digging his bait.

—An exchange tells us that an Anderson county man glories in a pair of socks which are 58 years old, but fails to state whether or not they have been washed during that time.

—"What can a lady do?" was the subject of the Rev. Gilbert's subject in Maysville Sunday. Wonder if he remarked that they could give half the road on a muddy crossing, but wouldn't?

—It takes but five minutes to load an elephant on a train, but it takes half an hour for a lady to kiss her friends goodbye and lose her trunk check before stepping on the train in motion.

—When a gentleman meets two ladies on a street crossing, it is not expected that he shall get out in the mud to let them pass, as many appear to presume. Common courtesy demands that they shall drop into single file and divide the crossing with the gentleman. Several bon-tons of this city would do well to remember this.
