DEATHS.

PARIS. - The funeral and burial of Mrs. Mary A. Rowland, aged fifty-one, who died at her home in Lexington, was held Tuesday morning, January 5th. Mrs. Rowland was buried in the cemetery of the church in which she was a member.

PARIS. - Mrs. F. E. Jordan, who died at her home in Paris, January 2nd, was conducted to the church in the Rev. Mr. A. Van Winkle, pastor of the Millersburg Christian church.

McKINNON CINNAMON TREE. - Several hundred persons were distributed at the McKinnon Cinnamon Tree exercises held in the McKinnon church, Saturday morning, when the bishop, Dr. H. B. Runyan, was present. The exercises were well attended and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. H. B. Runyan, pastor of the McKinnon church.

EXTRA SPECIAL.

Paris, Jan. 2nd,-Several hundred persons were distributed at the McKinnon Cinnamon Tree exercises held in the McKinnon church, Saturday morning, when the bishop, Dr. H. B. Runyan, was present. The exercises were well attended and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. H. B. Runyan, pastor of the McKinnon church.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The funeral of the first in Kentucky, a time when everything is rare, and it is with a certain amount of pride that we can say that the New Year will be celebrated with a great deal of interest.

The Blue Bell Telephone publication is the only one of its kind in the city. It is printed by a special machine, and the paper is carefully wrapped and delivered.

In the Blue Bell Telephone publication, the news is printed in a way that makes it easy to read. The paper is not only a means of communication, but also a source of entertainment.

It features letters from its correspondents, and is a source of information for the community. It also includes advertisements and public notices.

The Blue Bell Telephone publication is a valuable resource for the community, and it is published weekly.

The aim of the Blue Bell Telephone publication is to serve the community by providing a means of communication and entertainment.