—While there's life there's hope. The following obituary notice appeared in the Pennsylvania Gazette, of Feb. 1, 1764:—Elizabeth-Town (New Jersey), January 23, 1764. Last Friday departed this life Miss Mary Eldrington, an old yirgin, in the 109th year of her sge, she was of an ancient family, born at Eldrington Hall, in Northumberland Old Englaud, and on the next day she was decently interred it St. John's church yard at Elizabeth-Teyrn. It is remarkable that notwithstanding her great age, she was desirous of getting a husband before she died; and not two years since, nothing would offend her so highly as tell her that she was too old to be married.

-Miss Eunice Wallace, a woman over forty years of age, was arrested by Sheriff Kramer last Thursday ion a charge of larceny, preferred by Mr. Casper Reichert, of Oakland township. A week or so previous to that, a vest in one of the pockets of which Mr. Reichert had placed $90, was taken from his bed room, and although he suspected Miss Wallace of the theft, she denied it, and he could not prove it. On Thursday he came to town and procured a search warrant and put it in the hands of the sheriff, who drove out and searched the bouse and premises, and finding nothing, arrested the woman and started for Butler with her, when she agreed to give up the money. They then went to a Mr. Smith's near by, where a niece of Miss Wallace liyes, and got $70 which Miss W. said was all she had, and the sheriff brought her to town and put her in jail, though she was balled on Saturday by her brother, who lives in Karns City. This House manufactures its great line of clothing, from childrens' up to mens'; altogether in their New York house where its facilities for constantly securing new styles is unequalled by any other Pittsburg house. It is the oldest in this line in Pittsburg, and are in fact among the pioneers of this country. In their stock you can find everything in the way of ready made clothing which surpass in manufacture, cut and trimmings any goods made in Pittsburg. We can recommend this house as of undoubted reliability, and merchants will do themselves credit to inspect their stock.
