CAPTURE MANY GERMANS GUNS AND TERRAIN

Early in will plotted to injure the allowers and has lead support from the enemy's artillery.

The British have taken Petteshangi wood, near Merfaux, capturing 200 prisoners and fourteen machine guns.

A late report says that the Americans have captured the town of Hamency.

PARIS, July 23.—Despite powerful German counter strikes, fresh progress was made by the French-American forces today. They passed the heights east of Le Creit and Grisolles and pushed forward toward Epieds, northeast of Mont 25 Pins.

Between the Marne and Ourcq they are reaching Courtan and Bel-wood. To the north of these positions the British record a new advance, taking 200 prisoners and forty machine guns.

Heavy artillery contests rages north of the Ourcq and in the Champagne, fighting, however, was not general in those sectors.

In spite of the American-French drive into the Soissons-Rheims salient between Soissons and the region of the Marne continues. The Germans at some points are counter attacking desperately, but their efforts are generally broken up before they get under way.

Further ground has been gained by the allied forces north of Soissons, in the region of the two roads running from Fere and south and east of Chateau Thierry. Additional large numbers of prisoners have been taken, guns and considerable quantities of stores and war materials have been captured.

In the district below the Ancrette valley on the north bank of the river and on the south of the Somme and Ancre and south and east of Albert, Thursday, Australian troops made local gains, advancing their line for a distance of one mile from Chipilly ridge to the northern bank of the stream.

Severe fighting is in progress between the German counter and Italian troops on the Asiago plateau, where the Italians have made substantial gains. While in Champagne to the east of Rheims, the Germans are reported to have centered all their efforts between the river Ardre and the town of Bligny.

The German efforts has principally differed on the western side of the Rheims-Soissons salient but although these attempts of German have been thrown back in the battle the maneuvers seem to be more in the nature of a strong reconnaissance designed to help the large forces of the enemy in the Chateau Thierry pocket to escape, and not a purpose to wrest and give battle with the ultimate aim of hurling or holding back the Franco-American troops.

That the Germans have orders to this end that the allies have the upper hand in the battle seems apparent from reports that the enemy is bringing to the front fresh troops to relieve tired and beaten units, and that considerable concentrations of troops for the big push of the allied forces. These gains are throwing shells far behind the enemy lines, shelling all the main communications, while allied fighters are harrying the retreating Germans with machine gun fire.

The efforts of the Germans to retard the Franco-American forces were particularly severe Monday in the regions of Grisolles and Bois St. Genieve, respectively northwest and north of Chateau Thierry and 12 to the east of Chateau Thierry, where the Americans are giving them battle. On all these sectors the enemy has further strengthened his forces in the Chateau Thierry pocket by greater personnel.

Pushing the extremities of the pocket toward the Ourcq river below it and to have sent the German troops to the west and northwest of Chateau Thierry, apparently in an effort to relieve the pressure on the German forces in the pocket and to strengthen their defensive line on the south in case the Germans should immediately withdraw a large number of divisions of troops from Picardy and Flanders to the battle area southwest of Rheims.

Germans Continue on Run

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE MARNE, July 23.—The American troops have passed Beuvardes, a village four miles to the northeast of Buzancies, which was also passed yesterday by French troops.

Aerial observers report that the Germans are retreating in a northeasterly direction, but the infantry is meeting strong rear guard resistance. Fortified machine gun nests and field guns positioned on the edges surrounding the towns and villages are delaying the advance of the Americans.

The enemy has apparently withdrawn all supplies in the great Beuvardes wood, but has not prevented some from reaching his garrisons and artillery, which field guns and howitzers are pounding away.

Superior Cast Supports May Allison

May Allison is supported by a superior cast of players in "The Winning of Beatrice," a Metro All-Star series picture which will be shown at the Liberty theater today.

Hale Hamilton, whom everybody remembers best as "Wellington," makes his screen debut as Robert Howard, a battling advertising man who helps "the cards are," Beatrice Hardley (played by May Allison) win fame and fortune. Hamilton is scheduled for up-to-date business portrayals on the stage and has displayed marked versatility in other roles. Besides "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," other of his recent stage successes are "The Fortune Hunter," and "A Pair of Sixes."

Frank Currier, a favorite Metro artist, plays James Hardley the father of Beatrice. Currier is one of the busiest players at the studios as he is cast in almost every Beatrice Michelena screen play. Recently he has played in "Social Highwayman," and "The Scarlet Runner." Ralph Graham portrays John Madden, Sr., the head of the Madden Cargo Company. He has been visiting men for Metrogoldwyn, edge Nethersole and Mrs. Patrick Campbell. John Sainpolis, who has frequently played for Metro is cast as John Madden, Jr. He has been seen in "A Misfit Millionaire," and "The Wall Between."

Other well-known players and Metro Fave Dean Raymond Hitchcock and baby Dry Wood, Metro's wonderful little four-year old actress.

Taking of Testimony in Criminal Cases

House Joint Resolution No. 5.

To amend Section 10, Article 1, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for certain rights of the accused pending in criminal prosecutions, time and the manner in which same may be exercised, and providing for the preparing of testimony of the witnesses for both defense and prosecution.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section (10) of Article (1) of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended that the same will read and hereafter to be as follows:

Sec. (10). In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him and to have a copy thereof. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself, and shall have the right of being heard by himself or counsel, or both, shall be confronted by the witnesses against him and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, except that when the witness resides out of the State and the offense charged is a violation of one of the anti-trust laws of this State, the defendant and the State shall have the right to produce and have the evidence admitted by deposition under such rules and laws as the Legislature may henceforth provide; and no person shall be held to answer for a criminal offense, unless on an indictment of a grand jury, except in cases in which the punishment is by fine or imprisonment, otherwise than in the penitentiary, in cases of impeachment and in cases arising in the army or navy, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of this State at the next general election for State and county officers.

Sec. 3. The qualified electors for members of the Legislature shall vote upon said amendment at the said general election and in which election all persons favoring said amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the following: "For amendment to Section (10), Article (1) of the Constitution providing for the preparing of testimony of witnesses for defense, under certain conditions," and those opposed to said amendment shall have written or printed on the ballot as follows:

Against the amendment to Section (10) Article 1 of the Constitution.

Sec. 4. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the funds of the State Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expense of publishing proclamation and election.

Note—H. J. R. No. 5 passed the House of Representatives by a two-thirds vote, vote 128, yeas 4, and passed the Senate, with amendments by a two-thirds vote, yeas 21, nays 8, and the House concurred in Senate amendments by a two-thirds vote, yeas 121, nays 0.

SPECIAL TAX FOR MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND FURNISHING FREE TEXT BOOKS

House Joint Resolution No. 27.

PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 7 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS BY CHANGING SEC. 3 PROVIDING FOR A THIRTY-FIVE CENT TAX LEVY FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN TEXAS AND PROVIDING THAT THE FOR SUCH SCHOOLS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS AND MAKING AN APPROPRIATION THEREFOR.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3, Article 7, of the Constitution, is so amended as to read as follows (leaving a new section, 3a):

Sec. 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one dollar on all of every male inhabitant of the State between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and, in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred dollar valuation as, with the permanent school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient, the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State, and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation, and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law, may embrace parts of two or more counties. And the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of public school or schools of such district, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two counties. And the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts created or formed hereby for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therefor, but no tax for such purposes shall be levied until the same shall have been authorized by a majority vote of the qualified property taxpayers voting at an election to be held for that purpose in the district in which such tax is to be collected. All funds derived from the additional taxes authorized in this section shall be applied in the districts in which collected.

Sec. 3a. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at the general election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday in November, 1918, at which election all voters voting thereat shall have written on their ballots the words "For the amendment to the State Constitution providing for the levy of a special school tax for the maintenance of the public schools of the State, and for the free text books for the public schools of the State of Texas" and those opposed thereto shall have written on their ballots the words "Against the amendment to the State Constitution providing for the levy of a special school tax for the maintenance of the public schools of the State, and for the free text books for the public schools of the State of Texas," and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be in favor of said amendment, then the same shall become and be declared to be a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas, and proclamation to that effect shall be made by the Governor.

Sec. 4. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to cause the Secretary of State to have printed a sufficient number of copies of this amendment and to have same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Sec. 5. That the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of said publication and election.

(Note—H. J. R. No. 27 passed the House of Representatives by a two-thirds vote, yeas 124, nays 0, and passed the Senate by a two-thirds vote, yeas 22, nays 0.)
