SIR WALTER RALEIGH
Threw His Cloak in the Mud

It was a gallant act, and the Queen thanked Sir Walter very politely—but you should have seen that cloak after Walter placed it in front of the mud.

"I'll have to get some new goods," quoth Sir Walter, "and sell this cloak as second hand to someone who can make good use of it."

So—you know the rest—he sent an ad to The Caller and sold the cloak and used the money he received towards buying a new one.

Old clothes, shoes, books, furniture, pictures, music and other articles for which you have no further use can be easily sold through the Want Ad Columns of The Caller.

AITKEN LIBRARY FINE GIFT TO UNIVERSITY

Special to The Caller.

AUSTIN, Texas, April 5.—It is considered that the Aitken Library before the marriage of which the Legislature at the recent session appropriated $10,000, will be a most valuable addition and supplement to the Wrenn library of the University of Texas.

This library consists of about four thousand volumes, representing the collections of the late Dowse, citizen of London, and purchased from his widow by Mr. Wrenn, who wished to add these additional volumes to the famous Wrenn collection. They were not, however, included in the Wrenn collection when it was purchased to make Littlefield for presentation to the university.

The Wrenn library already possessed one of the most valuable and original collections in the country and with this acquisition it is stated be placed in the very forefront of American libraries.

A hospital building material, called gypsite has been located in Russia.

Cotton Market Has Small Drop

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The cotton market was very quiet again today but the unfavorable character of British trade news was reflected in some further scattering liquidation. July options closed at 15.15 with the general list closing steady at a net decline of 18 to 21 points.

The market opened un-changed to 4 points lower, owing to reactions from early advances to Liverpool and reports that English cotton mills had refused to confer with the trade concerning reopening of a better basis to do business while the Manchester goods market proved to justify the influence of the unfavorable price news, but prices gradually angled off into scattering selling. Lloyd George's statement in the house of commons with reference to the industrial crisis weakened the early afternoon market. The close was within a few points of the lowest.

The final tone was steady on reports that Liverpool operators were not active sellers and in the question of striking is originally with the coal miners. The preliminary report of a prominent southern authority estimating the reduction in acreage at 35 per cent attracted comparatively little comment.

Exports for the day were 12,393 bales, making 5,324,164 so far this season. Port receipts 20,921; United States port stocks, 1,127,111.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

By The Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.—During the greater part of the session the cotton market was very quiet again today but on scattered buying toward the close, the last trading fell off decidedly, it stood 15 to 21 points under the previous close. Selling increased because of the poor unfavorable Manchester news and the fact that the trade was disappointed in the failure of the market to show more resistance to the bearish influences.

Around the opening price changes were very narrow. From advances over the previous close of 1 to 5 points, there was a decline to nearly 7 to 9 points under. The decision of the Lancashire to strike placed the British situation in a new light because of its effect on cotton manufacturing. On the market have stood only profitable to some very acute stages and it was not until during the last half hour of the day that a real break occurred.

Some steadiness was derived from rains in the western half of the cotton belt and the prospects that they would extend to the eastern belt.

H. AND B. BEER LETTER.

NEW ORLEANS April 5.—Notwithstanding developments in the British labor situation have been of the most unfavorable nature, unless refusing to meet mine owners, resulting in the triple alliance ordering a general strike, effective next Tuesday at midnight, the market acted remarkably steady.

If a general strike is declared the United Kingdom becomes a country sure Wednesday. It is not probable that the general body of miners will go on strike, but the threatened strike is certain to be a determining factor in the question of the fall movement in which event the market is bound to reflect same.

Reports in the National Geographic Magazine indicate an acreage reduction in the entire acreage this year of 17 per cent, compared with last year's crop, with rains of sufficient to germinate seed and start growth. Yields are not much more than one bale per acre.

Climatic conditions in the Delta are unfavorable for farm work and growth of early cotton where an effort is to be made cotton and low temperatures.

DUN'S REVIEW.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Dun's Commercial says:

"The business situation resembles one of sharp contrast, with confidence low and making a broad characterization of conditions difficult. Recent gains have extended in some lines, but the movement is spasmodic and in fits and starts. Confidence varies to very noticeable. The low prices among the quotations for cotton and goods to speculators, the tone and trade to manufacturers is moderate interest to manufacturers in certain other directions. With most materials visibly adjusting to a basis of reasonable profit, the chief question remains for immediate requirements, and within the closest possible limits, current buying is going forward slowly and is mostly lacking in liberality.

A considerable of retail trade in some quarters is a hopeful indication but generally it is due to seasonal influences or to special price inducements. Reports of the success of the sewing are not favorable to operations of intermediate grades of cotton goods. Wholesale trade is irregular, with some sections showing losses of 5 to 7 points. Final tone: May 4.78; July, Dec. [illegible] 4.04.

BRICE.

By The Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.—Foreign cotton market: Bales [illegible] Manchester unchanged to 1-16 lower; [illegible] unchanged; Havre unchanged; Bremen unchanged; Ghent unchanged; Genoa unchanged; Japan unchanged.

COTTON GOODS.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Print cloths were easier. Yarns were dull and unchanged lines of cotton goods for manufacturing purposes at establishing prices very dull. Gingham, muslins, white goods, sheetings, sheets and pillow cases and allied fabrics were steady and a little higher, while raw silk was firm. Crepe de chine were in moderate and steady demand with sheers and velvets.

British Reports Cut Wheat Price

By The Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Wheat prices showed downward rules, influenced by advertised bitter conditions in Great Britain and by timely that exporters on the American side of the Atlantic side were offering to fix sell. The market closed nervous, 1c to 2¼c net lower, with May $1.34 to $1.34¼ and July $1.13¾ to $1.13⅝. Corn lost ¼@⅝c to ¾ and oats ½c to ⅝c to end per 1¼ to 1½.

Even the unfavorable financial and crop conditions gave the bears an increased advantage in the wheat market, but especially as after definite announcement was received that railway employees and transport workers had joined the British coal strike. On the other hand talk of exporters reselling such purchases and there were estimates current that European interests had purchased goodly baskets of wheat and corn here of flour.

Corn and oats sympathized with the weakness of wheat, but sometimes of actively operated as a check on declines.

Provisions were offered freely with few takers, influenced by the lower and tendency of hogs and grain.

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The market for early future was higher today, on private cable advices reporting the Brazilian government was buying all April and May contracts offered for sale in the primary markets with the intention of taking deliveries. Active months here sold 20 to 21 points above yesterday's closing figures. There was some best of switching from May to later months. Spot prices were within a few points of the best showing a net advance of 17 to 20 points. SUGAR.

By The Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The local market for raw sugar was easier under increased pressure of uncontrolled supplies, sales being reported of 10,000 bags of Cubas for prompt shipment to a local refiner at 4 1-16 cents, cost and freight, equal to 5.83 for centrifugal. The committee, however, did not confirm the quotation from the cost and freight, equal to 5.82 for centrifugal and reported sales of 40,000 bags later some bags of San Domingos were sold at 5.77 for centrifugal.

Refiner in the spot market unsettled the refined situation and one refiner raised fine prices 25 points to the basis of 7.15 for fine granulated, this is reckoned at the 5c level. Sugar futures were under selling by trade and commission houses and closing prices showed losses of 3 to 7 points. Final tone: May 4.781; July, Dec. [illegible] 4.04.
