CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 14.—Wheat made a sharp recovery today from the low point reached by much of it yesterday. Covering by shorts, influenced by reports of crop damage in the Northwest and a sharp rise in the Liverpool market, caused the rally. The close was unsettled at 1½c to 2c net higher, with September $1.04 to $1.04½ and December $1.06½ to $1.06¾.

Corn finished ½c to ¾c up. Oats gained ½c to ¾c, and provisions 10c to 15c.

NEW YORK SUGAR.

NEW YORK, July 14.—All active business centered in the market on raw sugar today and prices advanced with August up a point of 4.30c basis. Offers in part at 4c cost and freight, or a near parity equal to 4.31 duty paid, were withdrawn when the close of the market.

Raw sugar futures were generally one point up on the steadier spot market and on Wall Street buying and bullish covering.

Trading ended at the September 4.30c, December 3.91c, January 3.91c, March 3.95c bid.
