

FOUR DOCTORS DISAGREED

Pains Disappeared After Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wilmington, Del.—"I was suffering from a terrible backache and pains in my side, with bearing down pains and was very nervous. I was always tired, always drowsy, never could get enough sleep and could not eat. I had four doctors and each told me something different. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. I got good results and I now feel better than I have felt for years and I am gaining in weight. I can gladly recommend it to all women."—Mrs. GEORGE W. SEBOLD, 1611 West 4th Street, Wilmington, Del.

TO FIGHT ADAMSON LAW TO A FINISH

Railroads Plan to Wage Their Battle in the Courts—Brotherhood to Leave Case to President.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The interrupted conference between representatives of the nation's railroads and their 400,000 Brotherhood employes, looking toward an adjustment to their new differences on the interpretation of the Adamson eight-hour law, was not resumed here yesterday. Instead of meeting, the railway managers announced they would fight the law to the end in the courts, while the Brotherhood chiefs who remained in the city left for their homes, professing to believe that they may safely rest their case with President Wilson.

The attitude of the railroads was summarized in a statement issued by Chairman Elisha Lee after an all-day meeting of the railroad representatives. The statement read: "We are all agreed to fight to the end. The means to be employed were fully discussed and the consensus of opinion was that it was necessary to file suits questioning the constitutionality of the law in every Federal district court in which the affected railroads operate."

Warrick S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, epitomized the Brotherhood's side before leaving for Cleveland. Mr. Stone said: "The situation is closed insofar as we are concerned. We are not at all alarmed. We know what President Wilson intended we should have. We know the explanation he made to our 600 chairmen in the White House. We feel confident that if the present law doesn't give us the eight-hour day, the President will give us a law that will. We can't understand the attitude of the railroad managers. They did not file their first suits until the day after election, believing that Mr. Hughes had been elected. Personally, I believe they are either whistling to keep up their courage or they are trying to scare the public into sympathizing with them."

CHINESE MURDERER FORMALLY INDICTED

Bow Young Is Now Serving a Life Sentence for Crime Committed in Springfield.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Nov. 15.—The finding of a true bill against Bau Yeung (Bow Young), the Chinese murderer, for the murder of his laundry partner in Greenfield on September 12, 1915, was the most important feature of the report of the grand jury yesterday morning. Yeung is in present custody and the bringing of the indictment against him is very unusual for that reason. District Attorney Schoonmaker had two reasons for the action. First, it will probably prevent Yeung from ever securing a pardon; second, if pardoned, he would have to stand trial in Greenfield. Springfield Chinamen who were active against Yeung at his trial in that city, are afraid that if some time in the future his friends were able to secure a pardon for him for the Springfield killing, that he would return to Springfield and seek revenge. The arraignment in Greenfield was deferred by order of the court.

No bill against Elija May of Orange was returned by the grand jury. Mr. May, night watchman at the Bolander-Parker shoe company's factory, which was badly damaged by fire early in October, was held for the grand jury in connection with the setting of the fire. Suspicious circumstances surrounding the fire have given it an incendiary aspect, but Mr. May has been freed of any connection with it. Other true bills found by the grand jury were against Thomas Mason of Charlemont, who is charged with breaking and entering the house of Herbert T. Walker of Charlemont on August 29, last; Frank Collins, who is charged with breaking and entering the Boston and Maine railroad station at Bernardston on Aug. 15 last, and with the larceny of 12,000-mileage books, 13 500-mile mileage books, 199 Bernardston to New York tickets and a small sum of money; Emory Stroppe and Stella Woodard for adultery. No bill was found against Constantine Sodalitis of Sunderland for larceny.

Notaries Public.
Notaries public are said to have been appointed by the primitive Christians to collect such facts as were obtainable about the martyrs of the first century. The office afterward took a legal form and had to do with the attesting of deeds and other writings.

BAD BREATH

Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

DISCREDITS GRAVES'S TALE

German Embassy Doesn't Think Papers Came Even on Oscar II.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The German embassy does not believe that Karl Armand Graves, self-styled international spy, secured from the steamship Oscar II, as he says, the letters he is alleged to have used in an attempt to extort $3,000 from Countess von Bernstorff, wife of the German ambassador. Graves will be arraigned for a preliminary hearing here today before United States Commissioner Taylor.

The Oscar II arrived at New York November 1, having left Copenhagen October 22. According to the German embassy the latest date on the documents taken from Graves is September 6. The packet containing the papers probably was sent from the German foreign office that date. It is unbelievable, embassy officials declare, that the packet could have been held nearly a month and a half before being despatched.

Extraordinary efforts are being made to determine the identity of the messenger who brought the packet to the United States and the ship he traveled on.

IS ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD.

Mrs. Angeline Gonyeo, of Montpelier, Moves About House and Sew.

MONTPELLIER, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Angeline Gonyeo, who is at the city farm, observed her 100th birthday anniversary yesterday and a little party in her honor was prepared by the caretaker's family. Mrs. Gonyeo was born in Canada and has been at the city farm for about 20 years, going there shortly after her husband died. She was the mother of 12 children, three of whom are now living, Mrs. Jane Fisk of Roxbury, Mrs. Julia Boardman and George Gonyeo, of Northfield. There are numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In spite of her advanced age, she is able to go about the house without assistance and does her own mending.

The inalienable right to think for oneself is not appreciated by many.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Brush Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advt.
