BLAMES HIGH SKIRT ON WAR.

Dean Potter Says Girls of Today Are Good Despite Extreme Styles.

CHICAGO, March 17.—The extremes, adopted by the modern girl should not be judged too harshly, said Mary Ross Potter, dean of women at Northwestern university, at a meeting Tuesday night of ministers' wives.

"There is nothing wrong with the girl of today because she uses a lip stick and a little rouge and a dab of powder," said Dean Potter. "Of course, the dress of the girl of today—skirt to the knees almost, flimsy stockings, flimsy everything—is not the dress of mother's generation. Nevertheless she is sweet and good and kind at heart.

"She has an independence that did not belong to her mother's day, but such is the spirit of the times. It is the result of the war."

BANK CASHIER ACCUSED.

Edmund E. Fox Held for $98,000 Shortage in Columbus, Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., March 17.—Edmund E. Fox, assistant cashier of the National Bank of Commerce was arrested here yesterday on a warrant charging him with embezzling $10,000, making false entries, and converting bank money to his own use.

Phillip L. Schneider, president of the bank, issued a statement saying that Fox was $124,000 short in his accounts, and had refunded $26,000 of this amount. The loss, it was said, was fully covered by surety bonds which could not be collected. Fox pleaded not guilty and was bound over to the federal grand jury under $10,000 bond. He was released on bail.

Fox, it was said, made private loans of bank money which could not be collected. He is married and has a child.

DOCTOR HELD FOR MURDER.

Dr. Burton of Syracuse Is Accused of Strangling Hour-Old Child.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 17.—Dr. Henry B. Burton, a prominent physician and surgeon, was arrested yesterday on a charge of first degree murder, following an indictment by the grand jury charging him with strangling to death a one-hour-old child of Mrs. Essie Finn. The crime is alleged to have been committed March 4, 1918.

GUILFORD CENTER.

George Wipley is suffering from a large carbuncle on his neck.

Mrs. Cecie Miner is ill, and Mrs. L. J. Stockwell is caring for her.

Miss Maude Thurber, of Boston was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Boyd.

E. F. Evans has received notice that the new dog law has gone into effect and the tax will be $2 and $6 until April 1.

Miss Ruby Thayer returned to Brattleboro high school Wednesday. She had been out of school several days with an infected ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Goodnow were at I. H. Thayer's Monday. Their children, Vegie and Lloyd Goodnow, have been ill with whooping cough several weeks.

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge was a teacher in school for mutes at Northampton, Mass., when she met and married the struggling young lawyer who is now vice president of the United States.

NEWFANE.

Women Also Ran.

The village was enlivened March 10 by two runaways, but no damage resulted from either. Two women out for a walk were startled by seeing a pair of horses approaching at a high rate of speed and took refuge behind a pile of logs beside the highway on South Main street.

Triple-Yolked Egg Every Other Day.

Alvin White has a remarkable hen which is noted for laying only every other day and each time a triple-yolked egg.

Miss Mabel Phillips spent a few days last week in Brattleboro.

Mrs. Lessie Holland has been ill the last week with neuralgia.

Mrs. Hildreth J. Batchelder is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

What is the matter with John Kenney's net cat? "He's all right"—not in the barber's shop.

George Read, who was in Stratton the past winter, where he was drawing in logs to Elmer Eddy's mill, has returned home.

J. H. Underwood visited his daughter, Mrs. William G. Sargent, in Northampton last week and spent the week-end at his home in Newfane.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodnow, who spent the winter in Boston, returned home Thursday. They are heartily welcomed by their Newfane friends.

Miss Stella Read is at home for the Easter vacation and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Flora Read. She will return to Weston to teach the spring term of school.

Engene Thompson has been employed the last few days at the County House, assisting in making the rooms ready for occupancy at the opening of the spring term of court.

Stanley Grout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Grout, has not been able to attend school of late. He is still under treatment for an injury to the left leg, in which the bone was broken last September.

Schools in this part of the town close Friday, March 18, for the Easter vacation of four weeks. The students from Newfane who are attending Leland and Gray seminaries are at home this week for the spring vacation.

Many Newfane people were present at the opening entertainment given in the new hall at Townsend Friday night, and were not only well pleased with the play but admired the new building and rejoiced with Townsend in their good fortune.

On Monday, David Calsey and Gilbert Pike were accompanied by Sheriff Wellman to the Brattleboro Retreat, where Mr. Calsey will be supplied with home comforts such as he has not had for some time, and Gilbert Pike will receive beneficial treatment.
