DING BATS, 9; ALL AMERICANS, 6. Between six and seven hundred people went to Columbia Park yesterday afternoon to see the game of ball between the Ding Bats and All Americans. It was an exciting contest and lots of kicking, but taken as a whole, the crowd were rewarded with a good game. Sam Watts pitched for the All Americans and with the exception of one bad inning, pitched excellent ball.

First Inning—For Ding Bats Hutchins hit to left and Watts muffed it. Russ got a base on balls. Hutchins was caught trying to steal second. Turlington hit to third and was safe. Russ took second on the hit, both runners advanced on a low throw by Watts. Bailey struck out, Myers hit to left for two bases and Turlington and Russ scored. Myers was caught trying to steal third. Two runs. All Americans—Langhorne struck out; J. Hume flew out to center; C. Hume got four balls but was caught napping off first. No runs.

Second Inning—Ding Bats: Cross hit to pitcher; out at first. Alexander did likewise. Hampton cracked out a two-bagger. Russ flew out to right. No runs. All Americans—Armstrong hit by pitched ball; Etheridge a safe bunt in front of the plate, filling the bases. E. Watts flew out to center and Armstrong came in on the play. Flourny hit to short; Etheridge scored on the hit; Parrish flew out to left; Langhorne hit to left and two runs came in. J. Hume drove a three-bagger to deep right field and Langhorne scored. C. Hume got a base on balls but was caught trying to steal second. Five runs.

All Americans—Armstrong hit to short; Owens fumbled and "Red" was safe at first. Etheridge hit to second; Armstrong out at second. Etheridge stole second and went to third on a wild throw. S. Armstrong drew four balls; Etheridge hit to right and Alexander made a neat catch, doubling up "Reddy" at second. No run.

Sixth Inning—Ding Bats: Bailey got four balls; stole second. Myers hit safe behind short; Owens hit safe to right, but went out trying to stretch his hit. Bailey scored and Myers went to third on the hit. Cross popped up a fly to pitcher. Alexander hit to pitcher, who threw wild to first. Myers scored. Hutchins flew out to left. No runs. All Americans—S. Watts made a neat bunt and reached first safely but was caught trying to steal second. E. Watts hit to first and was out. Flourny hit safely to center, but Parrish went out on a hit to first. No runs.

Seventh Inning—This was the "Ding's" lucky inning, and they won out. It happened this way: Watts made a nice catch of Russ' hit to left; Turlington was hit by pitched ball; Bailey hit safe to left; Myers doubled to center and Turlington scored. Owens smashed one to the right field fence. Home run, two runners crossing the plate ahead of him. Cross flew out to second; Alexander struck out. All Americans—Langhorne struck out; J.
