Cotton, Provisions, Etc.

v York, Sept. 6.—St. Paul was the al figure in to-day's market. The sation of the annual report, with its detail of facts and figures showing ordinary prosperity, was the motive a buying, which was very large and a carried the price steadily upward 7 spehits. So wide a movement in ndard stock of St. Paul's character tooked to arouse some sympathetic girl in the general market. The St. movement in the upper stage of dvances showed some signs of many of the purpose of sustaining the all market. There was quite free sel-wherever there was a notable adding pice, and the last hour was over to an active realizing move-which clipped off half of St. Paul's and reduced prices generally to best jump in call money to 6 per cent.

American Smelling was conspicuously k.

are was no marked change in the dition of the money market to-day, and time money rates were quite ly held. There was a further deposit 150,000 at the sub-Treasury for shipstate to New Orleans. New York exnge at interior points indicated press on this centre for funds and the Treasury continues to absorb cash in the banks. Notwithstanding the dness of money here and the someteasier tone in London, Sterling Exnge was firm in New York and adced a fraction on actual business.
