COURT DECISIONS.

DIGESTED BY W. B. MARTIN.
EXCLUSIVELY FOR VIRGINIAN-PILOT.

Notes of Cases Recently Decided,
Which are of Interest to Our People.

DAILY TRIBUNE CO. V. BUCK.
Supreme Court of Ohio.
January 9, 1900.

AS A GENERAL RULE A SUIT
THE MALICIOUS PROSECUTIC-
OF A CIVIL ACTION WILL NOT LIE, WHERE THERE HAS BEEN NO ARREST OF THE PERSON, OR SEIZURE OF PROPERTY.

Buck sued the Cincinnati Daily Tribune Company for the publication of a libel on him in its newspaper, and the company, by way of counter claim, pleaded that previous to the libel he had maliciously and without probable cause commenced a suit against the company as one of its stockholders, asking for a dissolution and the appointment of a receiver, and that this suit was dismissed.

The lower court decided against this counter claim and from a judgment for plaintiff the company appealed.

The court says:
The ruling of the court presents the question whether the facts pleaded in the answer constitute a counter claim to that of the plaintiff. The real question is, do they constitute a cause of action in favor of the defendant against the plaintiff? We think not. It is a well settled general rule, that no recovery can be had by a defendant against a plaintiff, for the malicious prosecution of a civil action, where there has been no arrest of the person or seizure of property. Had a receiver been appointed and possession taken of the defendant's property, a different case would have been presented. Affirmed.

WALKER V. PRICE.

Court of Appeals of Kansas.
February 19, 1900.

A RAILROAD TICKET WITH PRO-VISIONS RESPECTING TIME OF LIMITATION, ETC., AND AN UN-
SIGNED SPACE FOR SIGNATURE
OF PURCHASER, IS PRIMA FACIE
AN UNLIMITED TICKET, AL-THOUGH THERE ARE PUNCH
MARKS ON THE MARGIN INDIC-ATING A TIME LIMITATION.

This was an action by the plaintiff for damages caused her by being wrongfully ejected from a train of the defendants who were receivers of a railroad company. Plaintiff's brother bought of the railroad agent a ticket for plaintiff such as is described in the head note, and gave it to plaintiff. He stated that he asked the agent for an unlimited ticket and did not notice the punch marks on the margin. The plaintiff did not read her ticket and was ejected from the train because the time limit was indicated by the punch marks had expired. There was a judgment in the lower court for the plaintiff for $1,000, and defendants appealed.

The court says:
"We think that, before the plaintiff can be bound by the declarations in the ticket for transportation on a passenger train, the restrictions or limitations sought to be made must be known to her, and she must have accepted the ticket with full knowledge of the restrictions contained therein. This ticket contained a blank for the signature of the purchaser, and that signature was not done in this case. The object of that blank space being left there was, doubtless, that the attention of a purchaser might be called to the conditions of the ticket, and when called to sign it, he would then know its contents. This would constitute a contract between them, but without it there would be no contract, and no restriction or limitation of the liability of the company."

The punch marks, in the absence of the plaintiff's signature on the ticket, should have been disregarded, for the reason that the contract for the transportation of the plaintiff, as evidenced by the ticket, having been made at the time of its purchase, the ticket, without her signature was prima facie unlimited.

In our opinion, the defendant receivers were clearly liable in damages for the injuries resulting to the plaintiff from her expulsion from the train. Affirmed.

John S. Barbour Club Meets.

The John S. Barbour Club held its regular weekly meeting last night, a number of the candidates speaking. It was decided to hold next week's meeting Monday night, on the eve of the primary.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Nominations for delegates at large being in order, Mr. Louthan placed in nomination Parke Agnew. Colonel Campbell Slomp nominated General James A. Walker.

Colonel Hoge nominated Colonel James D. Brady in a speech, recalling his fight against civil service.

A. W. Harris, colored, of Dinwiddie, seconded this nomination.

Mr. Kerr, of Staunton, nominated Hon. S. Brown Allen.

It was moved that the nominations be closed, and about a dozen speeches in second either or all of the four nominees. Among them Colonel Slomp was perhaps most called for and was sent to the stage, but he was rung down under the five-minute rule.

The four nominees were elected by acclamation.

ALTERNATES.

The four alternates at large nominated and elected were J. Hampton Hoge, A. P. Funkhauser, W. H. C. Brown, John J. Alley.

The motion was made that the first four nominated be elected, and after a very stormy scene the motion was carried. James H. Hayes in a speech declined to accept, and his resignation was accepted unanimously, and John J. Alley was substituted in his place.

DELEGATES INSTRUCTED.

A resolution was then presented and adopted, instructing delegates to the National Republican Convention to vote for Hon. Geo. E. Bowden for National Committeeman for Virginia.

ELECTORS-AT-LARGE.

Capt. W. S. Lundy, of Rockingham, and Geo. W. Butler, of Newport News, were elected electors-at-large.

The committee on plan of organization reported.

S. Brown Allen moved to lay the report on the table, leaving the law as at present.

Gen. James A. Walker took the stand and explained the changes, namely, State Executive Committee from five to ten, and the District Committee from three to five in number. The report was then adopted.

A motion extending the convention's thanks to the committee of arrangements and members of the press and to the citizens for courtesies extended and reports of proceedings made was adopted. It was decided that the districts elect members of the Executive and District committees of the State Committee and report same to the secretary.

The convention adjourned sine die at 1:00 p. m. It was decided by the delegates to elect the new Executive Committee at the Congressional conventions and also the two extra members from each district for District Committees, in accordance with the new plan of organization.

WISE DELEGATES MEET.

The Wise faction's contesting delegates met at the Monticello Hotel last night with H. P. Brooks as chairman and S. W. Lyons as Secretary and adopted a series of resolutions in which they protested against the action of the committee on Credentials, claiming that no hearing was accorded them and no testimony was allowed to be produced as to the legality of the delegation; protesting fealty to the organization; and pledging their support to Hon. R. A. Wise for Congress and endorsing Congressman Hull's estimate of the Republican party of Virginia.

A CLEVER JOB.

A RESIDENCE BLOCK MOVED ENTIRE WITHOUT INJURY.

Mr. E. L. Turner, the contractor, has just completed a very neat bit of engineering in moving the three residence brick block, Nos. 127, 129 and 131 Washington street from their old location to the new line of street frontage, 23 feet to the rear and southward. The buildings were raised as one piece, the underpinnings taken out, new ones arranged at the rear, the block, as in a cradle, moved back on rollers without damage of any sort, and now all that remains to be done is to build the foundation and the residences are ready for occupancy. The moving took ten hours. Norfolk workmen are all right.

Electricity and Life.

It has been demonstrated that an animal killed by contact with an electric current, may be brought to life. An ordinary induced electric current does not produce instant death, and if it were possible to have in constant readiness suitable apparatus, consciousness could be restored. The method employed is the infusion of dehydrated blood. In a like manner, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the well-known tonic, infuses life into debilitated bodies, by revitalizing and purifying the blood. This wonderful medicine permeates every organ, distributing nutritive material to every part of the body. If its quality or circulation is deranged, in the slightest degree trouble follows. Constipation, dyspepsia, liver and kidney disorders all spring from a weak or diseased condition of the digestive organs, which affects the blood and through it the entire body. The Bitters cures all such disorders and makes healthy vigorous blood. It is an excellent spring tonic.

Just a word about our line of English Suitings. They are the best Hirdersall productions. You know what that means. RUDOLPH & WALLACE, 333 Main street.

PRIMARY ELECTORAL BOARD.

INFORMAL MEETING HELD—MR. MYERS' PLACE TO BE FILLED.

The Primary Electoral Board held an informal meeting yesterday, at which the duties of the Board were discussed, but nothing definite was done save to take steps to secure a member of the Board from the Second Ward in the place of Hon. Barton Myers, who is out of the city.

Mr. John B. Jenkins, the member-at-large, who will act as chairman of the Board, called Captain W. W. Dey's attention to the fact that Mr. Myers would not return to the city until Saturday, which will be too late for the selection of Judges and clerks and their ratification by the candidates. It was agreed between Chairman Dey and Mr. Jenkins that the latter should circulate among the candidates an agreement that the Board should fill the place of Mr. Myers. It is believed that all of the candidates will sign this agreement, many of them having already done so.

The members have not taken the oath yet. They will probably hold a meeting today.

THE CLOSE OF LENT

Solemn Services During the Last Three Days.

Significance of the Festivals of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday—The Hours of Services at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The services in the Catholic Church during Holy Week are particularly impressive and solemn, and commemorate in a typical degree the passion of our Divine Saviour. The congregation during the holy season of Lent, who have been meditating upon the life, passion and death of Jesus Christ, now turn their thoughts to His crucifixion and prepare themselves for the glorious feast of the Resurrection, Easter Sunday.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Holy Week the office of the Tenebrae, which consists of Matins and Lauds of the last three days, is recited or chanted; during which four yellow lights, mounted on a triangular stand and concealed behind one by one after each psalm, leaving only the white one at the summit lighted. Also, at the end of every second verse of the Benedictus, one of the lights on the altar is put out until all are extinguished. This extinction of the lights typifies the abandonment of our Divine Saviour during his passion. He is represented by the white candle at the top of the candlestick, which, during the misere, is taken from the altar and placed on a stand behind the altar until a slight noise is made at the end of the office, intended to signify the convulsed state of nature at the death of Christ, when it is brought forth again and replaced on the candlestick from which it was taken, to remind us that the divinity of our Lord was never separated from His humanity.

MAUNDY-THURSDAY.

or Holy Thursday, is in memory of our Lord's last Supper, when He instituted the Blessed Sacrament of His precious body and blood, so called from the first word of the anthem, mandatum, etc. (John xiii, 34), "I give you a new command, that you love one another as I have loved you," which is sung in the church on that day.

On Holy Thursday but one mass is said, that of the Holy Eucharist, as an expression of joy and gratitude for that holy institution, though its special commemoration is deferred until another time, the church being wholly occupied during Holy Week with the passion of Christ. During the Gloria the bells are rung, after which they are silent until the same part of the mass on Holy Saturday, to honor the silence of Saviour during his passion and express the mourning of the church for the death of her Divine Spouse. At the mass of this day the Bishop consecrates the holy oils, which are used in the administration of the Sacraments. After mass the sacred host, consecrated for the office of the following day, is carried in procession to a repository prepared for its reception, which is handsomely decorated with flowers, ferns, palms and candles.

The Blessed Sacrament is removed from the principal altar, which is also divested of all its usual ornaments, to represent the destitution of our Saviour in His passion and the grief of the church in recalling His suffering. During the removal of the Blessed Sacrament on this day the children of the congregation, dressed in white, will strew flowers before the Sacrament, while the holy incense is wafted throughout the church by one of the altar boys.

GOOD FRIDAY.

Christ crucified is the great object that engrosses the attention of the church on this day, and for this end she reads such lessons and tracts as relate to the mystery of the redemption. The Passion is sung in the morning office and prayers are offered up for all sorts of persons, to show that none are excluded from the suffrages of the church, since Jesus Christ offered Himself a victim for the sins of mankind.

HOLY SATURDAY.

The Tenebrae, or Matins, with the other canonical hours for this day, are consecrated to the memory of our Lord in His sepulchre. At mass He is represented to the faithful as coming out of the grave and triumphing over death by His resurrection. The altars, deprived of their ornaments on Maundy-Thursday, are again clothed with them and a new fire is blessed, to illuminate them. The office begins with lighting a triple candle, which is emblematic of the Light of Christ, and signifies that the faith of the Blessed Trinity proceeds from the light communicated to us by Christ risen from the dead. The paschal candle, blessed in the next place, is a figure of the body of Jesus Christ, and not being lighted at first represents Him dead; and the five grains of incense fixed in it denotes the aromatic spices that embalmed Him in the sepulchre. The lighting of the paschal candle is a representation of His rising again to new life; and the lighting of lamps and other candles afterwards teaches the faithful that the resurrection of the dead will be followed by that of the members. The blessing of the baptismal font, which follows next, is blessed with ceremonies that are full of mysteries. 1. The priest divides the water in the form of a cross to teach us that it confers grace and sanctity by the merits of Christ crucified. 2. He touches the water with his hand, praying that it may be free from all impression of evil spirits. 3. He signs it thrice with the sign of the cross, to bless it in the name of the Holy Trinity. 4. He separates it with his hand, and casts out some of it towards the four parts of the world to instruct us that the grace of baptism, like the rivers of Paradise, flows over all the earth. 5. He breathes thrice upon it in the form of a cross, desiring God to bless it with the infusion of His Holy Spirit, that it may receive the virtue of sanctifying the soul. 6. He plunges the paschal candle thrice into it, praying that the Holy Ghost may descend upon it as he did at the baptism of Christ in the waters of Jordan. 7. He mixes holy oil and chrism with it, to signify that baptism consecrates us to God, and gives spiritual strength to wrestle with and overcome all the enemies of the soul.

After the benediction of the font the litany and mass are sung. Incense is used at the gospel on this day to represent the perfumes carried by the women to our Saviour's monument, but no lights are carried, as at other times, because they and the apostles did not yet believe His resurrection, for which reason also the creed is not said. The offertory, the kiss of peace and the antiphony, called the communion, are omitted because the faithful did not receive the Blessed Sacrament at this mass, but waited until Easter Day.

The hours of service on each day, beginning with Holy Thursday, will be at 8 o'clock. The service on Holy Saturday will thus close the season of Lent, when all true Christians prepare devoutly for the reception of Holy Communion on Easter morning.

A procession of the children will also take place on Holy Saturday, when the Blessed Sacrament is again transferred to the main altar.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

MRS. LIZZIE A. BILLUPS.

The funeral of Mrs. Lizzie A. Billups, wife of Mr. C. Billups, whose death has been noted in these columns, was held from the family residence, No. 216 Bute street, at noon yesterday, and was numerously attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. C. E. Grammer, of Christ Episcopal Church. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes. The interment was in Cedar Grove Cemetery. Following were the pall-bearers: Major C. W. Grandy, R. P. Voight, R. Henry Jones, Major A. Myers, Charles Ciarp, Lawrence Royster, M. L. T. Davis and J. S. Culpepper.

MR. LEWIS A. TUCKER.

The obsequies of Mr. Lewis A. Tucker were held from his late residence, No. 221 Fenchurch street, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was attended by relatives from Richmond and friends of the deceased in this city. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Mack, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church. The remains were laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery. Following were the pall-bearers: James Barkley, Jas. E. McCoy, Geo. B. Hart, Fred. B. Stevens, G. S. Griggs, C. B. Oliver, Geo. Batley and Thos. L. Bailey.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The Board of Trade and Business Men's Association held a largely attended meeting last night. Encouraging reports were received from the president, secretary and treasurer. Much interest was manifested and considerable business of importance was transacted.

The matter of a May carnival and street fair, which was thought to have been abandoned, was brought up, but a full discussion of the subject was postponed until a more convenient opportunity. There are still strong hopes of securing an attraction of this kind in the near future.

Easter Prompts Clothing Buying.

And a careful inspection of our styles and others' will prompt the buying of it here. The reasons are obvious. We have no profits to pay and one only to include in the price. So of course WE can be lower than others.

We maintain our own work-rooms—make directly for our own selling. So of course WE can sell better than others.

Then over and above all is "Fit Reform." No other Clothing house in the world has this advantage to give you. That development is certified to in the United States Patent Office, under No. 95, issued to US.

The three grades that we have re-enforced specially and specifically for Easter supply—$10, $12.50, and $15—both Top Coats and Suits—are all "Fit Reform" grades and "Fit Reform" garments.

Made-to-order could not possibly produce better, nor more satisfactory, even at double the price.

Ready-to-wear has never been so perfect as OURS is.

We pronounce these to be three GREAT GRADES—$10, $12.50 and $15.

Saks & Company

Clothing Values that Challenge at the Threshold of the Season.

We're offering men's cassimere and mixed cheviot suits and serges at that show an extraordinary bargain distinction. No back numbers of fag ends of lots that have seen better days, but fresh, bright, new, cheery suits, only a few days old. At either price we show already more than two dozen styles to select from. Think of the variety thus early. The fabrics are all wool that have withstood the test that tries the color. Every garment is kneaded into shape by tailors' trained fingers. Linings and trimmings are the best ever put into garments at these prices. Pinstaking tailoring shows out from every suit.

$10, $12, and $15

Our $10 suits are as well made as are suits at double the price elsewhere. We believe it isn't enough that clothes look well when you buy them. Will they continue to look well, that's the question? All doubts are dispelled when you buy of the best male outfitting establishment in Norfolk.
