lumber trades are well situated. The industrial situation is also deserving of note because of the striking absence of complaint as to idleness or as to pending or future labor troubles.

While the volume of new orders in crude material continues moderate, when compared with the enormous activity for some time past, business in iron and steel is steadler, and as a rule held better in hand.

Southern pig iron has been sold heavily, and an advance from $11.25 for No. 2 is predicted for December 1.

Despite a slight decline in the price of raw cotion, the effect of smaller export movement, and realizing by holders, cotton goods are, as a rule, firmly held, and the opening of spring trade is awaited with confidence.

The one unsatisfactory feature in cottons, in fact, is the depression in the export branch, which tends to weaken brown goods. Bleached cottons of many grades have been advanced this week. Silks are rather slow of sale, and recent price reductions fail to stimulate business.

Relatively the best trade reports come from the South and Southwest, while the most backword are from sections of the Earls, where unseasonable weather is complained of, and from sections of the spring wheat region, which suffered most from the shortage in yield.

Following the private settlement of the shorts, at a basis of 50 cents a bushel, came a drop to 41 cents. At New York the influence of this corner—one of the few successful corn corners on record—was to advance prices slightly, owing largely to a deflection of supplies. He described conditions as he found them and the situation as he painted it was regarded as generally satisfactory. Secretary Hay explained briefly the new features of the Chinese situation, which, however, were not of much importance. It is understood that one of the Chinese viceroys has been proceeding energetically against the Boxers, punishing guilty persons and protecting foreigners and Christians. THE EIGHTEENTH VICTIM.
Cornelius MeMahon aged 12 years. Housekeeper, of Narberth, Pa., was discharged as a voluntary bankrupt in the United States district court to-day, with liabilities of $2,991,093.43 and assets $25. It was stated that thirteen years ago, when Housekeeper was 22 years of age, some friends Induced him to go on their bond in a gigantic real estate operation. This involved the erection of 800 houses in Philadelphia and nearby cities. He signed the necessary papers without thoroughly understanding what he was doing. After a while matters changed so that the burden of the mortgages, nearly $3,000,000, fell on his shoulders. The holders of the mortgages began proceedings against him. The judgments against him are held by trust companies and estates in various parts of the United States.

When the report was finished Chatrman Nixon asked if any of the citizens present had any information to present. Paul Klopstock, chairman of a club recently formed to ferred out vice, gave some evidence which tended to set at naught the report of the sub-committee reporting the district clean. Klopstock gave the committee the address of several houses of ill-repute which were open the night before. He also told of dancing halls which were run as "social clubs," and where young boys and girls, in all cases under 18, met and spent the evening andsthe better part of the night in dancing.
