

now thought strongest candidate after Sherman on early ballots. Said that Missouri delegation will go for Dewey after one ballot for Sherman. New York headquarters has a business-like look this evening, and delegation now confident each member has Dewey badges and portraits. Every man had also some formula to give when asked his second choice. "Chauncey M. Dewey," or "Chauncey" as some call him. "First, second, and every time until nominated." There is not a more solid delegation in the convention. They will not even concede a possibility of any of their own members even considering any other candidate. Other people, who think they know a thing or two about New York politics, are wondering whether Sherman will get more than the 16 votes from New York which his friends claim, and nearly every one a New York delegate concedes. This is believed to depend upon whether or not Messrs. Dewey and Miller are in a deal with Sherman's friends. Many believe that they are, and that before many ballots are cast Miller, Hiseo, and Dewey following will be switched in the Dewey camp to see how much pull the Blaine secret combination has in the delegation (but the same or greater effort has been made here to gain converts as was made to secure a number of other delegates, and was the subject of much diplomatic work in the rooms of New Yorkers.

It is said to be probable that Quay will also be elected chairman of the National Committee. In the meeting a poll was taken showing Sherman 41 votes, a gain of 6. No word was yet received from the Committee on Credentials. They are still fighting over the Mahone contest, and may not conclude till morning.

Lord Dudley, the wealthy young English noble who has just come into possession of his heritage of some $2,000,000 per annum, has already developed a strong taste for gambling and recently lost $100,000 at racing and $50,000 at cards.

Gen. O'Ryan, the Spanish minister of war in Senor Sagasta's reorganized cabinet, it is his name indicates, of Irish descent. He is, however, a thorough Spaniard, his great grandfather having entered the service of Spain over 100 years ago.

M. Daniel Wilson, the unfortunate son-in-law of ex-President Grevy, of France, does not dare to enter the chamber of deputies, but he holds on to his seat for Touraine and pockets the salary attached thereto, and under the present law there is no way of getting rid of him.

M. Clemenceau and Gen. Boulanger recently met by accident at the dinner table of a lady who is a friend of both. They sat one at each side of their hostess, and to avoid seeing each other so as to compel a salutation, which would have been distasteful to both, they sat with their backs turned toward her.

The Duke of Rutland, accompanied by the duchess, is likely to visit America this summer. The duchess is a popular magazine writer in London, and until her husband's recent accession to the dukedom his signature was frequently at the end of long articles in the London Queen on social topics for women. One object of the American journey is, it is believed, to enable the duchess to widen her sphere of observation into feminine life in large cities.

Munemitsu Mutsu, the new Japanese minister to this country, is about 45 years of age. He is extremely learned and possesses great executive ability. In 1877 he was imprisoned near Tokio for his connection with the Sigo rebellion. His sentence was for twelve years, but at the end of five years the government released him, having discovered that his offense was less flagrant than at first supposed. During his confinement Mutsu translated Mills' "Political Economy" into his native tongue.

Sets of pure white linen, with simulated hemstitching, are simple and stylish.

Figured percale sets share favor with the tinted varieties on the taps for traveling and country wear.

In ladies' lingerie, white or colored, the plain collar with cape attachment, closed with or without points, and with cuffs to match, is de rigueur.

Beautiful hand embroidery and needle-work sets for visiting and church services take, in a measure, the place of ruffles for the melting months.

In many instances plastrons are outlined by jabots of rich lace; in others, they are marvels of the modiste, in which no end of ribbons and other dainty devices are brought to bear.

Plain or fluted bands of silk on sateen, or in harmonious contrast, have taken the place of lisse in fashionable toilets. Sometimes a string of beads outlines the neck band, even when the corsage and plastron are elaborate.

Lingerie for little folks is subject to the same diversity which characterizes the collars and cuffs of older people. The broad diorette small cape seems best to suit the sailor and Norfolk styles of boys' costumes; yet the dainty vest suit, which calls for the regulation Piccadilly with four in hand scarf tie, brings out the touch of nature rendering the world akin.—Cloak, Suit and Ladies' Wear Review.

COUNCIL CAUCUS

TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES FOR THE CITY OFFICES.

A Long Session and a Great Many Ballots Cast—List of the Candidates Chosen. Brief Sketches of the Newly Elected Officers.

The Democratic members of the City Council met in conference last night in the Council Chamber. Thirty-six members were present.

Mr. Bodeker, who was elected chairman of the conference some weeks ago, presided.

The business of the conference was explained. It was to nominate candidates for the various city offices.

CITY CLERK.
The first officer voted for was that of City Clerk.

Mr. Ben T. August received the entire vote, he having no opposition.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.
Over the office of Sergeant-at-arms of the Council there was a spirited fight. There were eighteen candidates for the position. The leading candidates were Sergeant Brooks of the police force, Jeff D. Reynolds, R. R. Ralston, and W. D. Mosley. A number of ballots were taken, resulting, on the final ballot, in the nomination of Robert R. Ralston, who received 23 votes or two-thirds of the caucus. His election was therefore made unanimous.

POLICE JUSTICE.
A number of ballots were taken for this office, resulting in John J. Crutchfield, who lead from the first, receiving the necessary two-thirds and a unanimous choice.

Mr. Crutchfield was a Justice of the Peace many years ago, for two years he was the senior justice and presided as Police Justice during the long illness of Police Justice White. He has the experience and will preside on the Police Court bench with ability.

CITY ATTORNEY.
Mr. C. V. Meredith, whom everybody knows, was re-elected without opposition.

CITY ENGINEER.
Not a sign of opposition was whispered against the re-nomination of Col. Cutshaw as City Engineer.

SUPERINTENDENT OF CITY ALMSHOUSE.
For this position there were four candidates—Charles P. Bigger, W. J. Epps, W. T. Booth, and the present incumbent, R. W. Carter. The latter was elected on the first ballot, and the vote was made unanimous.

SUPERINTENDENT OF CITY GAS WORKS.
For this office W. C. Adams and John H. Knowles were the candidates.

Mr. Adams was nominated. He has been in the Gas Works as assistant superintendent for 21 years, and superintendent for two years. He understands his business, and attends to it.

SUPERINTENDENT OF WATER WORKS.
C. P. Bolling having no opposition was unanimously re-elected.

CLERK TO CITY AUDITOR.
For this office the present incumbent, Mr. George W. Warren, was unanimously elected.

CLERK TO CITY TREASURER.
For this position the Treasurer recommended Mr. Buford Grymes, and he was elected.

CLERK FIRST MARKET.
Nearly an hour was consumed in nominating candidates for Clerk of First Market. There were fifteen candidates in the field. The caucus finally nominated M. E. Gary. Mr. Gary is proprietor of a coal and wood yard on Eighteenth street.

CLERK OF THE SECOND MARKET.
For this position Mr. William L. Moseley, who was a candidate for Sergeant-at-arms, and was formerly a guard on the Capitol Square, and latterly the Capitol engineer, was elected clerk.

WEIGH-MASTER FIRST MARKET.
R. W. Drewry was nominated without opposition.

WEIGH-MASTER SECOND MARKET.
For this office John J. Finnerty was nominated without opposition. Both of the market weigh-masters are the present incumbents.

INSPECTOR AND GAUGER.
For this office there were three candidates.

BOARD OF HEALTH.
The Board of Health nominees were: Dr. Harrison, from Clay and Monroe wards.

Dr. W. T. Oppenheimer, from Madison and Jackson wards.

Dr. Isaac Card, from Jefferson and Marshall wards.

This Board will meet later to elect a president.

CLERK POLICE JUSTICE.
This position is to be nominated by the newly nominated Police Justice.

For bailiff of the Police Court there were many candidates. Several ballots were taken, and Daniel Turner was nominated.

The position of harbor master was filled by the re-nomination of R. H. Styll, and the four port wardens, J. T. Ballou, J. A. Hopkins, Lewis Doughty, and J. C. Redmont, were also re-nominated.

COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES.
After an hour's deliberation, at 2:30 o'clock this morning, Mr. John A. Mesley was nominated Collector of Delinquent Taxes.

The conference skipped the following officers: Harbor Master, Port Wardens (four), numerical designation of Justices of the Peace.

When the reporter left, at 2:30, the conference was still in session.

Silk Ribbons!
Those of our lady readers who would like to have an elegant, large package of extra fine, Assorted Ribbons (by mail), in different widths and all the latest fashionable shades; adapted for Bonnet Strings, Neckwear, Scarfs, Trimming for Hats and Dresses, Bowes, Fancy Work, etc., can get an astonishing big bargain, owing to the recent failure of a large wholesale Ribbon Manufacturing Co., by sending only 25 cents (stamps), to the address we give below.

As a special offer, this house will give double the amount of any other firm in America if you will send the name and P. O. address of ten newly married ladies when ordering and mention the name of this paper. No pieces less than one yard in length! Satisfaction is guaranteed, or money cheerfully refunded. Three packages for 60 cents. Address LONDON RIBBON AGENCY, JERSEY CITY, N. J.

THE EIGHTH-STREET TUNNEL.

Work Going Along Finely.
Mr. Charles E. Belvin, president of the Richmond & Chesapeake Railroad, said yesterday to a representative of the Times that the work on the Eighth-street tunnel was progressing finely, and was being pushed as rapidly as possible. Sixty-five men are at present engaged on the work, and before long he expects to have 500 employed. There is no doubt, he said, that the tunnel would be built, and become the great railroad thoroughfare between the North and South. It will be a double-tracked tunnel, and will be a splendid piece of engineering and railway construction when completed.

POLICE NOTES.

Another Lengthy Docket Disposed of.
In the Police Court yesterday Alexander White was charged with obtaining from Edloe Scott, under false pretenses, eight shad. He was discharged.

Lewis Lonz, Nick Holmes, Frank Johnson, and William Walker (all colored), charged with creating a disturbance on a colored picnic train on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, and with attacking Charles Scott, were before the Court. The trouble happening beyond the court's jurisdiction, and in Henrico county, for the parties were sent to the county for trial.

Robert Cabell (colored) was fined $5 and costs for cursing and abusing Joseph Jackson in the public street.

Richard Van Horn (colored) was charged with breaking into the store and residence of G. Giannotti in the night-time and stealing five boxes of sardines. He was sent on to the grand jury.

Mr. R. Ferrandini, who was arrested on the charge of assaulting and beating L. Bougasson, was honorably acquitted.

The continued case of Charles H. Harris (colored), charged with breaking in the hen-house of John Holmes and stealing sundry chickens, was examined into, resulting in Harris being sent on to the grand jury.

VIRGINIA'S PERJURIAL LAWS.
Fined for Selling Ice-Cream on a Sultry Sunday.

The laws of the State is that nobody can sell anything on Sunday excepting where it happens that members of the Jewish faith close on Saturday. Onesty Brothers, were reported on a Commonwealth's warrant with selling ice-cream on Sunday last. He was fined $2 and costs. Onesty said that store after store was open on Sunday selling ice-cream, soda water, fruits and candies, and he thought he was doing no wrong in selling ice-cream.

"Report all parties to me," said the justice. "The law says nothing shall be sold on Sunday, unless you close on Saturday." Onesty paid his fine, wondering much at the Puritanical laws of Virginia, which the courts, when their attention is called to them in the regular way, are compelled to enforce.

This Season
of the year, the system should be prepared to resist the attacks of disease by keeping the liver, stomach, and bowels in healthy activity. To do this use a mild but certain medicine, one that has been tried by many of our best people and not found wanting. We allude to that purely vegetable remedy, Dr. David's Liver Pills. Price 25 cents a box of 25 pills everywhere.

Continental Beer.
Attention is called to the advertisement in another column of the Continental Brewing Company, Mr. Robert D. Hill, manager. This beer is daily adding to its already well-established popularity, a fact due mainly to two causes. First, it is made of pure malt and hops, and is all that the most fastidious lover of the foaming beverage can desire. Second, its Richmond agent is one of the most popular of our citizens, and a man who everybody relies on, and so when he says his beer is pure, pleasant, and palatable, everybody knows it is so.

The company has a large depot on Broad street, near Elba station. There the beer is stored for delivery to the various saloons of the city, or at the depots for shipment to all portions of the South. It is kept on draught at nearly all first-class saloons, besides this is delivered in bottles wherever ordered in any part of the city. All that Mr. Hill and the company ask is for those who are fond of a good, wholesome, and refreshing beer to give the Continental a trial.

Sent to the Penitentiary.
The trial of John Booker, the colored man who, during the night, broke into the residence of Mr. C. T. Timberlake and was seen in the house at 2 a. m. on the 14th December last, was given five years in the Penitentiary.

His counsel moved to set aside the verdict, which motion was overruled. Counsel then took exceptions and appealed to Judge Wellford.

Fresco Painting.
Mr. C. L. Hewitt, house, sign, and fresco painter, 113 North Eighth street, under the Academy of Music, desires to inform the public that he is now making of frescoing a specialty. To that end he employs the very best artists that he can find, and is prepared to offer every facility for work in this line. All he does is guaranteed to be equal to the best done by workmen from New York or elsewhere, and he is willing to submit his work to the most artistic criticism.

Mr. Hewitt is now engaged in frescoing Bevydierre Hall, and when it is completed, he hopes the public will call and see that he can and does do all he claims.

Photographic Notice.
I respectfully announce to the public and our patrons that we will until further notice make first-class cabinet portraits as we did last year at $1.50 per dozen or 6 for $1.00. 1 dozen of these cabinets and a large 16x20 portrait for $3.00, and no extra charge for babies or tinting the large portrait in pastel.

Respectfully,
A. DE LEMOS,
Proprietor Vernon Portrait Gallery,
107 East Broad street,
(Gallery open Sundays.)

Ladies' Ice-Cream Saloon.
Having elegantly fitted up the up-stairs rooms of my establishment, No. 1116 East Main street, as a ladies' ice-cream saloon, I respectfully request a share of public patronage. I am determined to make this place in all respects attractive and second to none in the city. Entrance on Main street. C. EVENSON,
Next to Dispatch office.

New York Stock Market.
Reported by C. W. Branch & Co., bankers and brokers, No. 1111 Main street.
REVIEW.

New York, June 19.—If the market was to act as the gossip predicts it would everything would be going up with a rush. To-day all the morning's opinions were that we would see a general hardening market with considerable increase in activity. Just the reverse was the case. Outside of one or two speculators trading was dull, and any increase in activity was at the expense of prices. During the morning London sold Reading, St. Paul, and Lake Shore. The dealings in the latter were marked by a selling disposition by houses that heretofore have represented insiders. The price of the stock broke at 14 per cent. Reading broke in the morning over 1 per cent. Later it rallied some, but at no time did it show any snap. The pool in New England liquidated some of their holdings, and, as buyers were few, the price eased off in consequence. All the Granger stocks were sold by Chicago and parties here on any symptom of strength. Regardless of the good reports the coal trade is not what it should be. The shutting down of the iron mills and factories has a depressing effect on the trade. The railroads West is so overbuilt it will be some time before the steel rail trade will be flourishing. All this makes the bears on the Delaware, Lakawanna & Western, and kindred stocks, very confident of their position. There is very little comfort in the new iron rates. Close was fairly firm, but every spasm of strength finds more and more stocks for sale. Bonds quiet and firmer.

PRESENCE OF MANY PLANTERS FROM THE SUN-CURED DISTRICTS OF CAROLINA, LOUISIANA, AND FLORIDA ON 'CHANGE TO DAY GAVE THIS ROOM A LIVELY APPEARANCE, WHILE WE ARE GLAD TO SAY SUN-CURED PRICES ALSO CONTINUED LIVELY. SEVENTY-SIX PACKAGES WERE OFFERED AND ALL SOLD, THE BEST GRADING SOLD AT 14 TO 28 CENTS, QUOTE A NUMBER REACHING OVER 20 CENTS. GOOD FILLERS AND GOOD LEAF BROUGHT FROM 8 TO 12 CENTS, WHILE THERE WERE A FEW SALES ONLY AT 3 TO 6 CENTS FOR LIGHT WEIGHTS, AND VERY COMMON.
Brights appear firmer, with some sales of common cutters and good fillers, and, no doubt, but what such are lower here than elsewhere in the State, which should attract more attention of outside buyers. When our habitual upland buyers on this market turn their attention to the home market we know the advantage is strongly in favor of home buying. Home buying home market should be our watchword.
