Nelson. Pangs of Jealousy Princess. The Great Secret Dixie. The Heiress at Coffee Dan's Grand. War Brides

HERE is Al Jolson's latest direct from the Majestic Theatre, where he is appearing in "Robin-son Crusoe, Jr." the Winter Garden show.

"Give me one good reason why you should not die here and now," commands the leader. "Well, boss, I sure do want to live long enough to see Mrs. Burton as- tle in the last episode of 'Patria'."

The big thing at the Hipp started to- day. We've been filled up with so much advance dope that we are sat- isfied the show is good. Our critical ob- servation will loom up in tomorrow's pa- per.

A set in "The House of Terrible Scandals," made by Henry Lehrman, will represent the interior of a sewer.

Hank Mann read where the adver- tising department of the Fox company had billed him in his comedy, "His Ticklish Job," as the "The Boy With the Bashful Eyes."

It's a great catch-line," said he, comedian-like, "but I don't see why they called me a boy when my name's mann."

OLD STAGER.

MOTION PICTURE ACTRESS SAYS SHE SOLD HER YOUTH FOR $50 WEEK SUES TO BREAK CONTRACT

MISS MARY McLAREN, WHO SAYS SHE BARTERED HER YOUTH FOR $50 A WEEK.

UNIVERSAL CITY, Cal., March 8.—Because she says she sold her youth for $50 a week, Miss Mary McLaren, youthful star of the photoplays, has brought suit against the Universal Film Company. She is seeking to annul a contract which binds her to act for the one producing firm until she is 21.

Miss McLaren is only 17 now. She is one of the newest and most popular of screen actresses.

"I am suing the company to which I sold the most valuable years of my picture career," explained Miss McLaren, "because I was persuaded to sign the contract under false representations. I was promised a new agreement in six months at a better salary. No such contract, however, has ever been mentioned since."

Following her success with Universal, Miss McLaren received other offers, some as high as $300 a week, it is said. But because of her agreement she has been unable to take advantage of a larger monetary return for her services.

One of the allegations in the suit is that the pretty actress was re- quested to pose in the nude for a pic- ture to be known as "Devotion." After her refusal, she claims she was kept idle for two months, which was injur- ious to her reputation.

Twice, Miss McLaren says, she nar- rowly missed death or serious injury while acting. These occasions were cited because it was contended that the company had the right to rescind the contract if Miss McLaren should be injured or disfigured.

Mary McLaren is the girl's screen name, her real name being Mary Ida McDonald.

INDUSTRIAL FAIRMONT

Work on the new hotel is again being held up owing to delayed ship- ments or rather delayed arrival of materials. Two car loads of finishing lumber consisting of window frames, door frames, etc., which were shipped from a point in Michigan last Monday week, have failed to arrive. The materials have been needed for some time on the two upper floors of the build- ing and a number of the carpenters are taking an enforced vacation. A "trailer" has been sent out in search of the cars and expects to bring them home in a few days. This is getting to be an old story, a common occur- rence. Workmen on the building as- sert that almost every shipment of materials has gone astray necessitating the employment of a "trailer" and that had it not been for this the work would have been much farther advan- ced.

Workmen were today engaged in removing a huge brick buttress in the basement of the Jacob's Building. The room was formerly the home of the West Virginian and the buttress was a foundation of one of the presses. The Fairmont Wall Plaster company now occupies the rooms and needing more space in which to expand they proceeded to clean out the basement.

Excavations for the foundation of the kitchen annex to the building soon to be occupied by Anderson's restaur- ant were begun today. Quantities of brick to be used in the construction was delivered some time ago but the work has been delayed because of weather conditions.

Spring Brings Her Smartest Styles to Hartley's

This announcement will be enthusiastically received by the women of this com- munity for style leadership has been unquestionably vested in this store, and never may we disappoint you. Every authentic source of style information and inspiration has been en- listed in the perfection of this department and the result as shown by this col- lection of refined spring fashions, will surely meet with your approval.

New Spring Suits

Many of them show a tendency to the simple tailored type. And the tailored type implies the slightly fitted coat, flaring below the waist, often- er than it does the coat with slight fullness held in by a belt. Even pleated coats are given a severely tailored air by being slightly fitted. Serge, Tweed, Gabardine and Velour are the preferred materials in gray, navy, rookie, and black, and the ornamentations are usually but- tons, silk collar and embroidery. Prices run from $20 to $45. Second Floor.

Spring Coats are Comfort- able Now

In dressy models the variety is very large. Serges, Gabardines, Tricotino, Velour, and Covert cloths are the leading materials; and there is every good color for Spring represented—$10 to $45. Second Floor.

Correct Millinery Beautiful Interpreted

Scores of the prettiest hats to be seen. The marks of quality and distinct individuality dis- tinguishes the millinery of this store, giving women of discernment the most exceptional opportunity for the selection of their new Spring hats. In the display you will find quite a number of high crowned hats, small, close-fitting hats, and sailors, with trimmings of ribbon, flowers, ornaments and embroidered, while the colors are very prominent. $3.50 to $10.00. (Second Floor.)

Glorious Easter Silks

They are here in all their radiant splendor. Again Taffeta and the finer silks lend themselves best to the styles. There are plaids, stripes and plain colors in a splendid variety of shades at $2.00 to $3.00 a yard. Crepe-de-Chine, 40 inches wide, in all colors, $1.50 and $1.75 a yard. Georgette Crepe, 40 inches wide, in all shades, $1.75 a yard. Wash Silks, 36 inches wide, in a variety of stripes $1.25 a yard. Khaki Kool Silk, 36 inches wide, in tan and oyster white, $2.25 a yard. (First Floor.)

New Corsets

Spring fashions have brought out the correct foundation for the new styles in Nemo, Gos- sard, Madame Lyra and American Lady Corsets. It is important that every woman should have a new style corset before being fitted for a new gown. Prices run $1 to $10. (First Floor.)

Only Today and Tomorrow for the Sale of Oriental Rugs

Mr. Elias Kawam will pack up the rugs and take them away with him some time Saturday. But until then you will have a splendid oppor- tunity to buy magnificent Oriental Rugs at less than normal price.

Some beauties have been added to the line this week, and, keeping present conditions in mind, this spread out rug is exceptionally fine all the way through.

There are Kermansaha Caraband, Espahan, Serapi, Sena and Iran rugs at prices ranging from $15.00 to $1800.00. (Third Floor.)

NELSON TOMORROW THEATER FRIDAY CANIMATED NOOZ PICTORIAL British Columbia is treated in this reel. The series has a strong edu- cational value, and this number is especially good. NO PLACE LIKE HOME Pretty Baby Lillian Wade is the leading character in this Selig feature. A FOUR CENT COURTSHIP Bryant Washburn and Hazel Daley are featured in this comedy dra- ma number. It is certainly snappy, and carries a vein of screen hu- mor that is irresistible. THE WAR CORRESPONDENT Pokes and Jabbs picture the life of the war correspondent as it was that is calculated to drive away the blues.
