

Bert Humphries a Nervous Wreck

Crying and fretting, Bert Humphries, former constable of Paw Paw district, is one of the worst broken up men incarcerated in the Marion county jail today.

Humphries is worried over a telegram which he received yesterday from Huntington, W. Va., which informed him that his sister was in a precarious condition.

As the wire went to Grant Town, Humphrey's former home, it is believed that there is no fake about it. Humphrey's is the fellow that shot at several deputies in trying to escape arrest on a bootlegging charge.

Deputies Look for Kidnapped Boy

Arrival of a band of gypsies into Fairmont late yesterday afternoon prompted Sheriff A. M. Glover to send one of his deputies to follow them and have a look.

The purpose of the strict observation was an effort in trying to locate a kidnapped boy, James Douglas Glass, aged 4 years of Greely, Pike county, Pa. The lad was picked up by gypsies and carried away some time ago and it was calculated that this might be the tribe. City detective bureaus have been busy issuing circulars furnishing the necessary description. Unfortunately the boy could not be found here or any clue to him.

Dance at The Fairmont.

A dance at The Fairmont last night was attended by a number of Fairmont society folk, the guests including members of the younger set and also of the married dancing set. Vincent's orchestra rendered music for the dancing which began shortly after eight and continued until one o'clock. The dance was arranged by a committee of young ladies.

UTILITY FROCK DOES FOR ALL OCCASIONS

NEW YORK.—A utility gown for afternoon wear and all semi-dress affairs is a necessity of the well balanced wardrobe. The combination of satin, velvet and pale shaded crepe which is so good this season, effects a happy partnership in the gown shown here-with.

The skirt of this frock is of Concord blue panne velvet and the blouse is of white crepe with satin collar and cuffs. Points of the velvet are appliqued on the crepe just above the waistline. Embroidered polka dots outline the points.

The skirt maintains the correct narrow line except at the back where the slight fullness is softly pleated into a small bustle.

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

A Turkey Dinner.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church south have announced the date for their annual Turkey dinner for November 15th. The place for serving the dinner has not been definitely decided on but will be announced later.

Entertained Friends.

William and George Thomas, the young sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Evans entertained a large number of their young friends last evening at the home of their parents on Spring street. Halloween appointments and decorations were included in the evening's entertainment and about twenty guests were present. Refreshments were served during the evening.

D. A. R. Meeting.

An interesting meeting of the William Haymond chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held yesterday afternoon at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Samuel D. Brady on Fairmont avenue. Mrs. W. H. Conaway regent, presided at the meeting which was largely attended. The program rendered as follows:

Ritualistic Service, Regent, Chaplain and Members, Paper, "French Women in the World War," Miss Ida B. Stone; "The Song of the Stars" by Rostand, read by Mrs. Jos. Lehman; Two French Folk Songs by Werkerlin, and the "Marsellaise," by C. W. Waddell with Mrs. Mary Christie Thompson at the piano.

While the program was in progress, the members were occupied at clipping flannel for fracture pillows which the chapter will make at the request of the Red Cross.

Plans for the State convention to be held at Weston next week were discussed and a number of members indicated their intention of attending. The number will include Mrs. W. H. Conaway, regent, who is also secretary of the State organization, Mesdames S. D. Brady, George DeBolt, E. F. Hartley, J. A. Meredith, H. G. Stoetzer and Joseph Lehman.

At the conclusion of the program tea was served by the hostess. Members and guests who were present yesterday included Mesdames W. H. Conaway, F. R. Lyon, C. M. Ritchie, H. F. Smith, H. G. Greer, Jos. Lehman, A. L. Lehman, F. E. Nichols, W. T. Black, Hugh F. Smith, Paul Hamilton, George DeBolt, E. F. Hartley, E. H. Taylor, J. E. Watson, Ernest Hutton, G. M. Alexander, H. G. ### Entertained Friends.

Miss Margaret Linn Hamilton daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton and Miss Mary Crane Hartley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Hartley, delightfully entertained their young friends on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the former on Fairmont avenue. Halloween appointments characterized the event which was attended by a number of little girl friends of the hostesses including Miss Christine Crane of Clarksburg, Misses Martha and Opal Riggs, Marjorie Leopold, Marjorie Martin, Ann Estelle Robb, Helen Amos, Martha Clifton Houston, Florence Jacobs and Master Jack Cox and the hostesses.

Fairmont Women Back From Meeting

Mrs. Samuel Leeper, of this city, was named recording secretary of the Women's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church at the annual meeting which closed yesterday at Buckhannon. Other officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. R. B. Nay, Wheeling; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. K. Arbuthnot, of Buckhannon; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Silbert, of Moundsville. Morgantown was chosen as the next place of meeting. The local ladies, Mrs. E. W. Howard, Mrs. Samuel Leeper, Mrs. Harvey Shain, Mrs. A. C. Ross, Mrs. O. A. Evans, Mrs. J. D. Heckler, Mrs. C. O. Jackson and Mrs. W. W. Reynolds, who attended the sessions, have returned home.

Club Meets Tomorrow.

The regular general meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the club apartments instead of at 3 o'clock as is the custom. Dr. Edith Taylor, physician at the Heintz company plant at Crafton, Pa., where 2,700 women and girls are employed, will address the club on various phases of social work with which she has familiarized herself in her work among the girls of the factory. She comes with the highest possible recommendations. Reports of delegates from the State Federation convention which met recently in Charleston, will also feature the meeting. The board of directors will meet at 2 o'clock.

Entertaining Club.

Mrs. Earl Beerbower of Barrackville is entertaining the Buella Knitting Club, a popular Barrackville organization at her home.

Married Here.

Forrest W. Brandt and Miss Edna Atkinson both of Grafton were united in marriage in this city yesterday at four o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. C. E. Goodwin of the First M. E. church. Mr. and Mrs. Brandt returned to Grafton last evening. The former is employed as manager of the McCrory 5 and 10 ct. store there.

Hoch-Bollinger.

MRS. WHITEHOUSE PROVES SUFFRAGETS' WORK IS NEVER DONE

If "woman's work is never done," what shall be said of a woman suffragette's work? Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse, with all her work, has found time to engage in the suffrage campaign and also was one of the leaders of the great woman's parade, October 27.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN" RELIEVES STOMACH DISTRESS IN FIVE MINUTES.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will sweeten a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is usually a sign of acidity of the stomach.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches or dizziness. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin helps to neutralize the excessive acid in the stomach which is causing the food fermentation and preventing proper digestion.

Relief in five minutes is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to usually keep the entire family free from stomach acidity and its symptoms of indigestion, dyspepsia, sourness, gases, heartburn, and headache, for many months. It belongs in your home.
