

MANNINGTON

Funeral Held.
The funeral of Miss Virginia Miller, who died on Thursday morning, was held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of her aunt, Mrs. T. V. Morgan, in Locust street, conducted by the Rev. John Beddow, pastor of the M. E. church. A large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home to pay their last respects, and there was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes. Appropriate hymns, favorites of the deceased, were sung by a mixed choir from the various churches among them, "Abide With Me," "Some Time We'll Understand" and "The Home of the Soul." Persons here from out of the city to attend the funeral were: Edgar P. Miller, Miss Martha Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Keener and Mrs. Alena Jamison, of Morgantown; Miss Fay Miller, of Toledo, Ohio; Miss Lulu McDaniel, of Kingwood; Paul R. Miller, of the U. S. Navy; Miss Charlotte Shodgrass, George Neptune and daughter, Miss Jessie, of Barrackville; Lloyd E. Morgan and daughter, Miss Beryl, of Fairmont; Dr. and Mrs. Whittecarver and Miss Josephine Lander, of Grafton; Miss Genevieve Jones, of Moundsville; Miss Blanche Atkins, of Pittsburgh, and William E. Dennis, of Lumberport.

Jailed for Beating Wife.
Joe Bednoch, an Austrian, was arrested by Officer Jones on Thursday evening at Downs for beating his wife while intoxicated. He was lodged in the city prison for the night, and at a hearing on Friday morning before Justice Barrack he was fined twenty-five dollars, and sent to the county jail in Fairmont for a term of ten days.

Surprise Party.
A surprise party was given for Mrs. George M. Atkins at her home in Market street on Friday evening to celebrate her thirteenth wedding anniversary. Twenty-five persons, friends of the family, were present, spending a pleasant social evening.

Orator Here.
Oliver W. Stewart, of Chicago, the noted orator, spoke in the First Christian church here at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. His subject was, "Prohibition and the War." He asked his hearers to think well, before answering the question—Shall we reject or ratify the federal constitutional amendment for nation-wide prohibition? His discussion was logical, forceful and decisive, and his audience was well pleased.

Packed House.
The Christmas operetta, "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," given at the high school auditorium on Friday evening, under the direction of Miss Helen Redmon, musical director of the school, was a decided success, being played to a "packed house." The proceeds went to the Junior Red Cross.

Just a Few More Trees Are Left

The Salvation Army still has a number of pretty Christmas trees on hand which they will sell to purchasers. The trees are unusually classy this year and under the direction of Capt. O'Dairne they have sold readily.

Anyone who desires a tree had better secure it at once as the stock is rapidly being depleted. Those yet remaining in the hands of the Salvation Army can be secured from the stand in front of the Court house.

High Getting Ready For Bristol Game

Everything is rounding into shape for the Fairmont High-Bristol High game which will be played at the local Y. M. C. A. floor on Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Under the direction of Coach Dan Maurer the Fairmont High five is being whipped into shape and should make a good showing on Tuesday.

Diplomatic.
How old would you say she is? Twenty-four.
She's older than that.
I know it; but I wouldn't offend her by saying so.—Detroit Free Press.

On Thursday of this week Miss Marian Kirk will arrive here from Roanoke, Va., to spend several days.
