

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Wedding Tomorrow.

The marriage of Foster Dale Reed, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Reed of Fairmont, and Miss Claudia Layman, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Layman, will be solemnized tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of the groom's parents. The marriage ceremony will be performed by Rev. Reed, the father of the groom, assisted by the Rev. Archibald Moore, superintendent of Oakland district of the M. E. conference. Mr. Reed will be attended by Dana Moore, of Charleston, a son of Rev. Archibald Moore, and Miss Layman will be attended by Miss Margaret Barnes as maid of honor, Miss Frances Moore of Clarksburg, whose marriage to Frank L. Brann formerly of this city will take place on June 29, will play the wedding march. Following an informal reception Mr. and Mrs. Reed will leave in their Buick for an eastern wedding journey. Dana Moore will arrive here this evening from Charleston and will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Reed, and Rev. and Mrs. Archibald Moore will arrive here from Oakland, Md., in the morning and will also be their guests. Miss Moore of Clarksburg will also arrive this evening and will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Walter J. Boydston in Loop park. About fifty relatives and friends will witness the marriage tomorrow.

Returned Home.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Gloutley of Pittsburgh have returned home after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mason on Morgantown avenue. They were en route to Pittsburgh from a visit in the east.

To Lake Chautauqua.

Attorney and Mrs. Kemble White and daughter, Miss Harriet White and son, Kemble White, Jr., are leaving today in their Cadillac for Lake Chautauqua, New York, where they have taken a cottage for the months of July and August. They will go via Pittsburgh and will be joined there by Miss Huldah Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taylor, who will spend July there as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. White. During the month of August Mr. and Mrs. White will entertain a house party of friends and relatives from the South.

Returned from West.

The Misses Lucile Shain and Eleanor Fox have returned from Lincoln, Neb., where they had been the guests for several weeks of Mrs. Harry K. Granger, nee Hite. They also visited other western points while away.

Changed Residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Fleming, Jr. and children, the Misses Caroline, Virginia and Sarah, have moved from their Fairmont avenue home to their summer home on the Country club road.

Returned Home.

Mrs. Frederick Grant White, who had been the guest of Mrs. Ralph Regan at Hillcrest for several weeks, has returned to her home in Chicago. Mrs. White was the recipient of a large number of social courtesies during her stay here.

Have Guests.

Attorney and Mrs. Tusca Morris have as their guests at their home on Fairmont avenue the latter's mother, Mrs. J. W. Chesney and nephew, Chesney Young, son of Secretary of State Houston Goff Young. They arrived here last evening and will spend some time here.

Leaving Tomorrow.

Miss Mary Louise Stockley who had spent the past several months with her aunt Mrs. M. A. Fletcher on Belmont avenue is leaving tomorrow for her home at Iron Mountain, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher will accompany her to Pittsburgh.

Tournament Begins.

The bridge tournament which will be held at the Country club during the next few weeks was formally opened last evening when twelve tables were occupied with those who will participate in the tournament. Much enthusiasm was manifested by the players and keen rivalry exists in the playing which will be continued each Tuesday evening for the next several weeks. At the conclusion of the tournament prizes will be awarded the winners. Despite the cool weather of the evening conditions at the club were ideal and a huge log fire in the living room added to the comfort and enjoyment of the guests.

To Give Recital.

The pupils in music of Mrs. Josephine Raymond will appear in recital at Shinnston in the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday evening, June 29. The recital will be given under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the church. The following pupils will participate in the recital: Misses Pauline Cox, Martha Hess, Marie Patrick Gertrude Tarleton, Velma Core, Billie Lambert, Margaret Bowman, Freda Shuttlesworth, Gladys Monahan, Virginia Walls, Annie Lee Center, Mabel Pigott, Winthrop Vincent of the Shinnston studio; Clarice Oakes, Doris Parrish, Carmen Evangelina, Maxine Barbe, Virginia Bryan, W. P. Plasters, of the Worthington studio and Miss Mary Dunham, of the Fairmont studio.

Former Local Teacher Weds.

Announcements have been received in this city of the marriage at Chicago of Miss E. Pearl Hodges who was formerly teacher of elocution in the Fairmont high school and well known to many Fairmont people as a young woman of fine accomplishments and pleasing personality. The wedding ceremony took place in Chicago June 18 and the bridegroom is Ross Shannon. They will be at home at Linden, Indiana, after July 1.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Orr, prominent residents of Preston county, on last Sunday celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary at their home near Independence.

At noon an elaborate dinner was served. The dining room was beautifully decorated in color scheme of pink and white and many pink roses were used. In the center of the table was placed the bride's cake, which was baked by Mrs. Eddy Harvey, Jr., of Morgantown. The cake was adorned with forty lighted candles. The slice of forty years ago cut the cake and each guest received a piece. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Orr took place May 9, 1880. Mrs. Orr before her marriage was Miss Martha Louise Orr, of Monongalia county. Mr. Orr has been a life long resident of Preston county. They have reared five children to manhood and womanhood all of whom are living and four grandchildren.

The gathering included the immediate members of the family and all were present. They were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Orr and son, John Dale, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dale Orr and two children, Charles and Howard, of Bridgeport; W. H. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. John Merrifield and son, James Ellis, Jr., of Fairmont; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robison, of Morgantown, and Miss Myrtle Robison, sister of Mr. Robison, was also present.

Class Entertained.

Mrs. A. L. Peters was hostess last evening at her home to the members of the Friendship class of the Southern Methodist Episcopal church. Other guests entertained were the husbands of the members of the class. During the evening the talent money the class members had earned was turned in, more than one hundred dollars having been made. Refreshments were served. Features of the evening which were enjoyed were musical numbers furnished by the Misses Sarah Watts, Daisy Cross, Robert York and Harold Jones.

Gave Shower.

Honoring Mrs. Harold Schwarm before her marriage Miss Ethel Toothman, Miss Jessie Jacobs entertained with a miscellaneous shower last evening at her home on Fairmont avenue. The guests included the members of the choir of the Methodist Episcopal church of which Mrs. Schwarm is a member and a few other intimate friends. A mock marriage was a feature of the evening and in this manner the gifts were presented, the maids and flower girls carrying the gifts as they entered the room. Mrs. W. E. Crane was the bride while Miss Ruth Wilson acted as the groom. Mrs. Minor Dunham played the wedding march while Mr. Dunham acted as flower girl and the Misses Naomi Heffner and Katherine Troxell were the bridesmaids. Miss Mabel Toothman, sister of the bride, sang during the ceremony and the marriage rites were performed by Dr. E. W. Howard. The wedding party were grotesquely costumed and the affair throughout was unique. Pink rambles had been arranged attractively about the house and during the evening refreshments were served. Besides the members of the choir present the guests included the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Barrington and Harold Schwarm.

Entertained for Guest.

Mrs. H. S. Keister was hostess last evening at her home on Fourth street at an attractively appointed dinner party with her grandmother, Mrs. James Johnson of Hundred, W. Va., as the honor guest. Roses formed the table decorations and an excellent course dinner was served. Covers were laid for Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. A. R. Watson, Mrs. James Boyer, Mrs. E. Trickett, Mrs. Jennie Hays, Mrs. W. R. Campbell and daughter, Miss Charlotte Campbell; Mrs. Harry Arnett and Dr. and Mrs. Keister.

On Eastern Trip.

D. M. Osgood and daughters, the Misses Beatrice and Virginia, and Mrs. K. Grant, left yesterday for Baltimore where they will spend several days with Mrs. Osgood who is there for medical treatment. From there they will go to Rosedale Manor, Camp Fleischmann, N. Y., where the young women will spend the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Grant will remain in Baltimore with her daughter.

Fisher-Lawrence.

Richard Paul Fisher, of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Pearl Lena Lawrence, of this city, were united in marriage at Oakland, Md., June 22. They will take up their residence with the bride's mother, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Morgantown avenue. Mr. Fisher is checking clerk at the American Railway Express office.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson, Jr., are spending some time in the East. They will return here the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Frank R. Murphy and nephew, John A. Clark, the third, have returned from Mt. Lake Park where they had spent the past several days. Mrs. Murphy will soon open her cottage there and Master John will be her guest there for several weeks.

Mrs. Noel Weaver, who had been in Baltimore with her sister, Miss Nola McKinney, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital, will arrive home this evening. A message received today from Miss Margaret McKinney, who is also in Baltimore, stated that Miss McKinney's condition was entirely satisfactory and an early recovery is looked for. Miss Nola underwent an operation for a mastoid infection yesterday.

Put a small Victrola in the playroom or nursery

Why not give the kiddies an inexpensive, small-type Victrola for their very own—to play with, to live with, to become a vital part of their lives?

Think of the great delight a Victrola would add to their playtime hours! It brings them music of sweet and simple beauty to love and memorize; music to accompany their plays and pageants; singing games, folk and interpretative dances; songs to hear and learn, and stories about the marvelous people of "Never, Never Land" that the little folks adore.

Both the Victrola IV and VI are ideal instruments for children. They play all Victor Records perfectly. Come in and let us demonstrate.

No reason at all why you should hesitate another moment in placing the greatest of all musical instruments in your home.

The expense is within your reach. The instrument a perpetual joy. Come in and hear it. (Hartley's Fourth Floor)
