

Wesleyan-Varsity Game May Be Played Here

The pitcher stood up on the mound. He let his fourth run. It was some game, so say we all. A sandlot game—for fun.

GREAT GAME AT TRACTION PARK, RIVALRY GREAT

Battle Will Feature Picnic of Medics and Dentists at Recreation Field.

Ball games are booked for Traction Park this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon. This afternoon the Fairmont Giants will play the Monongah team, while tomorrow afternoon the Doctors and the Dentists will fight it out in a contest that will be a big feature of a joint picnic of the Fairmont County Medics and the Monongah County Yanks. This game promises to be a real thriller, and will bring back memories of the old days last summer when baseball was going strong nearly every evening at South Side Park. The boys are not in practice this season, and a few misuses may be made during the game, but the old rivalry will be out there strong. A big crowd will witness the contest.

The Fairmont Giants lost a Sunday game to Ida May at Black-shore Park 10 to 4. The defense of the Giants was weak. Before a large crowd at Fairview, the home team took the measure of the Blacksox 8 to 1. Mitchell allowed only five hits.

By the close score of 3 to 1, the Watson team defeated Lumberport on the Watson diamond yesterday afternoon in a well played game. Timely hitting gave the Watson team the victory.

The new team recently organized by Grant Anderson and Phil Grimes will be known as the South Side Independents. This name being selected at a meeting held last week. The Independents will have a strong outfit, having signed several old City League stars as well as players that have been making good records with independent teams of this section. The team will be under Grant Anderson and Phil Grimes, both well known in the local baseball world.

The South Side team will play its opening game at South Side Park at 6:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening when they will clash with the last Middleton team. This promises to be a real battle for the opener and should attract a large crowd of fans. Satterfield, who two years ago pitched for the Monongah Glass in the City League will be on the mound for the Middleton team.

On Thursday evening they will go to Benton's Ferry where they will meet the Benton's Ferry team in what is expected to be a real battle. In the Benton's Ferry team, including Vincent and West, while Welch also of Kingmont will likely be on the mound. The game will be played at 5:30 o'clock.

On Friday evening they will play their second game of the season meeting "Shorty" Miltons famous All-Stars, a local colored team the game to be staged at South Side Park at 5:30 o'clock. "Shorty" will be out to win Friday and will be on the mound for the pitcher.

Clark Winner. Turning in a score of 34, Ken-eth Clark won the eighteen-hole blind bogey handicap at the Country Club Saturday afternoon. Clark had a handicap of eight, making his net score 76. Four tied for second and in the deciding match, Kersley Hartley won second place and George DeBolt third.

HOW THEY STAND

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Results Yesterday.

Brooklyn 3, Pittsburgh 2.
Philadelphia 10, Chicago 7.
Boston 5, Cincinnati 4.
St. Louis 1, New York 0.

Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	36	30	.620
St. Louis	35	34	.507
Philadelphia	34	35	.493
Cincinnati	34	41	.451
Chicago	32	40	.444
Brooklyn	32	42	.438
Pittsburgh	31	44	.413
Philadelphia	31	47	.397
Boston	29	50	.367

Games Scheduled Today.

Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.
Boston at Cincinnati.
New York at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Chicago.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Results Yesterday.

St. Louis 2, Washington 0.
Chicago 4, New York 0.
Others not scheduled.

Standing of the Clubs.

	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis	49	35	.581
New York	49	38	.563
Chicago	44	40	.524
Detroit	44	42	.512
Washington	40	42	.488
Cleveland	41	44	.482
Philadelphia	34	44	.438
Boston	35	49	.417

Games Scheduled Today.

Chicago at New York.
St. Louis at Washington.
Detroit at Boston.
Cleveland at Philadelphia.

The Twirlers

By BEFTON BRALEY

Old Walter Johnson's going strong. Rube Marquard's still upon the mound.

Bob Shawkey's pitching right long. Dutch Reuther's hale and well and sound.

It's seldom that these batters pound Waite Hoyt, a clever kid and matty.

And Czeleski's much renowned. But what's the latest news of Matty?

Phil Douglas spins a wicked ball. Carl Mays retains his ancient knack.

At fanning batters, short and tall, Joe Dush is far from going back. Jeff Barnes does not appear to crack.

And Shocker drives the batters matty. But Big Six stays at Saranac—

Say, what's the latest news of Matty?

Toney and Meadows pitch with skill. Grove Alexander's with us yet.

Faber and Nehf and Cooper still can make the toughest sluggers sweat.

Doak is quite a rooters' pet. His stuff is very far from ratty.

But there's a man I can't forget— Say, what's the latest news of Matty?

Concerning hurlers of the sphere The rooters often grow quite chatty.

But it's of Big Six I would hear— Say, what's the latest news of Matty?

Y. M. C. A. CAMP TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

The tent leaders of the Y. M. C. A. boys' summer camp will leave for Camp Woods on Thursday to get everything in readiness for the opening day. The camp opens next Monday and it is expected that nearly forty boys will arrive in camp on the opening day.

It was announced today by Camp Director George Hatrick that Wednesday would be the last day for the boys to get their applications in for camp. There has been some misunderstanding among the boys this year in regard to signing up for the camp.

Many of them who expect to attend during the second or third period are of the opinion that they do not have to register until the period begins.

Mr. Hatrick stated today that the boys who wished to attend must register on Wednesday whether they were going the first or the last two weeks.

The committee which will leave here on Thursday will set up the camp and arrange a permanent camp that will take care of approximately 150 boys during the six weeks.

Seven large army squad tents will furnish shelter for the boys and a large kitchen will be erected to cook the food for the young army of school boys.

The camp will break on September 2.

EIGHT ARRESTS ON MADISON ST. MADE

Madison street and not Water street figured prominently in police court this morning. The boys and girls who were arrested on Madison street were arrested on Madison street.

Five men were arrested, all charged with being intoxicated, when city officers responded to complaints of a disorder at 210 Madison street. In police court this morning the men were questioned as to where they obtained their liquor. They explained that they had been drinking corn liquor and not alcohol and that it had been given to them by a friend by the name of Smith from Pittsburgh.

Carl Dent was also arrested on Madison street for being intoxicated. Dent and the five men arrested at 210 Madison street, R. B. Brunt, Deck McGee, U. Riggs, Joseph McGonigley and J. McDonald, were each fined $5 and costs.

J. O. Sheets confessed to charges of driving on the sidewalk on Madison street and was fined $2. A similar fine was imposed upon Harold Smouse when he admitted backing his car on the sidewalk on Madison street.

MEN'S DOUBLES TO BE PLAYED THIS AFTERNOON

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the men's doubles tennis tournament being staged at the Normal School this week were to be played. The members of the tennis club contesting were Shaw, Cox, Miller and Cubbins.

McTowan, McKinney and Grimm are leading the women's singles at present.

Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock representatives of the club will go to Farmington where they will meet the Farmington tennis team on the high school courts.

Last Friday at 4 o'clock the Fairmont team met the tennis team of Fairview in a match that proved victorious for Fairview. The score was 5-1. Price of Fairmont landed the Normal's only victory when he defeated Fairview's star player, Denny Mitchell, 7-5.

The return match with Fairview will be played on the Normal courts during the next few days.

SIX CONTENDERS FOR HONORS OUT

Of Fourteen Nations Seeking Highest Tennis Honors, But Four Remain.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Of the fourteen nations which challenged the United States to defend the Davis cup, symbol of the world's tennis championship only four remain as contenders—Australia, France, Spain and the British Isles.

Since the tennis season began, six nations have been eliminated by defeats on the courts—Belgium, Romania, Denmark, Czechoslovakia, India and Italy—and the other four for various reasons eliminated themselves through defeats, the principal excuse being the enormous expense of transporting a team.

All the first and second round preliminary matches were played in Europe, too far away from Canada, Hawaii, the Philippines and Japan for those nations to send representatives but three of the four remaining matches, and possibly all of them, will be staged in this country.

The American Davis cup committee will attempt late this week to close the few loose ends that will bind one of the most colorful tennis seasons in American annals and to do the most difficult job of all—select the team that will defend the nation at the net. Four players probably will be chosen—two singles and two doubles players.

Attention seems to be centered about William Tilden, II, American champion who did not defend his right to the British title at Wimbledon this year, William M. Johnston, former national champion, Watson M. Washburn of New York, R. Norris Williams of Boston, and Vincent Richards of Yonkers. The first two are certain. The first four made up the team last year.

It was here that the most striking event of the week occurred. Following Mr. Ogden's address, Mrs. Livia Simpson Poffenbarger, wife of Judge George Poffenbarger of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, was introduced and for nearly half an hour spoke in the interest of Mr. Ogden's candidacy. Mrs. Poffenbarger is one of the best known and most influential women in the state and among her friends in every county. She was chairman of the woman's Liberty Loan committee for West Virginia and performed such service as to call forth high commendation from the national government. In 1919 Mrs. Poffenbarger was invited to become the head of the Republican women voters of West Virginia, but declined and was voted membership on the national advisory board of the party.

Mrs. Poffenbarger minced no words in her championship of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and made a stirring appeal to the voters both men and women to give him their support. The speaking campaign left early Friday morning for Jackson County. An ox roast was held in his honor at St. Charles at noon and was attended by people from all parts of the county. That night Mr. Ogden addressed a large audience at Ripley. After the meeting, Luther Wolf of Ripley, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of the county, stated that Mr. Ogden's candidacy was appealing very strongly to the people and that his speech had practically diffused what opposition there was in the county. He predicted Mr. Ogden would get a handsome majority in Jackson county. Mr. Ogden made two speeches on Saturday in Boone county. In the afternoon he spoke at Walton, and in the evening at Spencer. At both places Mr. Ogden was given a very flattering reception and was heard by a large number of interested voters, particularly in the morning.

Mr. Ogden's party left Saturday immediately after his address and drove in an automobile to Parkersburg where an early train was taken for Wheeling.

On Monday Mr. Ogden was in Tyler County, spending the morning in Sistersville greeting Republican voters and advocating his candidacy. In the afternoon he addressed a representative body of influential Republicans at Middlebourne. Mr. Ogden was accompanied on his tour of Tyler County by Stephen G. Bell and by C. T. Moore, both prominent citizens of the county. Just before Mr. Ogden's departure that afternoon, both Mr. Pyle and Mr. Moore expressed themselves as being confident that Mr. Ogden would carry the county by a good majority and they were very enthusiastic over his chances for the nomination.

At St. Marys the same evening Mr. Ogden made an address to a large number of Peasants County voters. He was given a very warm reception and made a most favorable impression upon his audience. He was introduced at this meeting by Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Powell. The following morning, Tuesday, Mr. Ogden and his party drove from St. Marys to Harrisville, the county seat of Ritchie County, arriving there about noon. Although the weather was extremely hot and the farmers busy making hay, the court room was crowded that afternoon when Mr. Ogden made an address there. He spoke at some length and was warmly received by the audience.

Captain Michael Ayres of Smithville presented Mr. Ogden to the Ritchie County voters as one of the state's greatest men and probably the best qualified and most deserving Republican to represent

West Virginia in the United States Senate. Captain W. S. Clark of Harrisville, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, is a strong supporter of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and expressed himself enthusiastically over Mr. Ogden's chances in Ritchie County. The younger element of the Republican voters in the county seemed to share Captain Clark's enthusiasm.

Mr. Ogden spent some time late in the afternoon at Cairo and at Pennsboro. On Wednesday Mr. Ogden spent a busy day in Wirt County. Leaving Parkersburg at an early hour he arrived in Elizabeth, which was in session that day, to greet a large majority of the town's population. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the banks and stores closed their doors while Mr. Ogden was speaking. The County Court, which was in session that day, recessed to attend the meeting. Mr. Ogden received one of the most enthusiastic welcomes at Elizabeth that he received during his entire speaking tour in the 4th district. He was introduced at the meeting by The Rev. J. C. Black, who praised him for his integrity and his ability.

On Thursday Mr. Ogden visited Mason County. He left the Parkersburg going down the Ohio River to New Haven where he was met by an automobile and escorted through the intervening towns to Point Pleasant, where he made a masterful address in the courthouse the evening.

It was here that the most striking event of the week occurred. Following Mr. Ogden's address, Mrs. Livia Simpson Poffenbarger, wife of Judge George Poffenbarger of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, was introduced and for nearly half an hour spoke in the interest of Mr. Ogden's candidacy. Mrs. Poffenbarger is one of the best known and most influential women in the state and among her friends in every county. She was chairman of the woman's Liberty Loan committee for West Virginia and performed such service as to call forth high commendation from the national government. In 1919 Mrs. Poffenbarger was invited to become the head of the Republican women voters of West Virginia, but declined and was voted membership on the national advisory board of the party.

Mrs. Poffenbarger minced no words in her championship of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and made a stirring appeal to the voters both men and women to give him their support. The speaking campaign left early Friday morning for Jackson County. An ox roast was held in his honor at St. Charles at noon and was attended by people from all parts of the county. That night Mr. Ogden addressed a large audience at Ripley. After the meeting, Luther Wolf of Ripley, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of the county, stated that Mr. Ogden's candidacy was appealing very strongly to the people and that his speech had practically diffused what opposition there was in the county. He predicted Mr. Ogden would get a handsome majority in Jackson county. Mr. Ogden made two speeches on Saturday in Boone county. In the afternoon he spoke at Walton, and in the evening at Spencer. At both places Mr. Ogden was given a very flattering reception and was heard by a large number of interested voters, particularly in the morning.

Mr. Ogden's party left Saturday immediately after his address and drove in an automobile to Parkersburg where an early train was taken for Wheeling.

On Monday Mr. Ogden was in Tyler County, spending the morning in Sistersville greeting Republican voters and advocating his candidacy. In the afternoon he addressed a representative body of influential Republicans at Middlebourne. Mr. Ogden was accompanied on his tour of Tyler County by Stephen G. Bell and by C. T. Moore, both prominent citizens of the county. Just before Mr. Ogden's departure that afternoon, both Mr. Pyle and Mr. Moore expressed themselves as being confident that Mr. Ogden would carry the county by a good majority and they were very enthusiastic over his chances for the nomination.

At St. Marys the same evening Mr. Ogden made an address to a large number of Peasants County voters. He was given a very warm reception and made a most favorable impression upon his audience. He was introduced at this meeting by Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Powell. The following morning, Tuesday, Mr. Ogden and his party drove from St. Marys to Harrisville, the county seat of Ritchie County, arriving there about noon. Although the weather was extremely hot and the farmers busy making hay, the court room was crowded that afternoon when Mr. Ogden made an address there. He spoke at some length and was warmly received by the audience.

Captain Michael Ayres of Smithville presented Mr. Ogden to the Ritchie County voters as one of the state's greatest men and probably the best qualified and most deserving Republican to represent

West Virginia in the United States Senate. Captain W. S. Clark of Harrisville, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, is a strong supporter of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and expressed himself enthusiastically over Mr. Ogden's chances in Ritchie County. The younger element of the Republican voters in the county seemed to share Captain Clark's enthusiasm.

Mr. Ogden spent some time late in the afternoon at Cairo and at Pennsboro. On Wednesday Mr. Ogden spent a busy day in Wirt County. Leaving Parkersburg at an early hour he arrived in Elizabeth, which was in session that day, to greet a large majority of the town's population. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the banks and stores closed their doors while Mr. Ogden was speaking. The County Court, which was in session that day, recessed to attend the meeting. Mr. Ogden received one of the most enthusiastic welcomes at Elizabeth that he received during his entire speaking tour in the 4th district. He was introduced at the meeting by The Rev. J. C. Black, who praised him for his integrity and his ability.

On Thursday Mr. Ogden visited Mason County. He left the Parkersburg going down the Ohio River to New Haven where he was met by an automobile and escorted through the intervening towns to Point Pleasant, where he made a masterful address in the courthouse the evening.

It was here that the most striking event of the week occurred. Following Mr. Ogden's address, Mrs. Livia Simpson Poffenbarger, wife of Judge George Poffenbarger of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, was introduced and for nearly half an hour spoke in the interest of Mr. Ogden's candidacy. Mrs. Poffenbarger is one of the best known and most influential women in the state and among her friends in every county. She was chairman of the woman's Liberty Loan committee for West Virginia and performed such service as to call forth high commendation from the national government. In 1919 Mrs. Poffenbarger was invited to become the head of the Republican women voters of West Virginia, but declined and was voted membership on the national advisory board of the party.

Mrs. Poffenbarger minced no words in her championship of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and made a stirring appeal to the voters both men and women to give him their support. The speaking campaign left early Friday morning for Jackson County. An ox roast was held in his honor at St. Charles at noon and was attended by people from all parts of the county. That night Mr. Ogden addressed a large audience at Ripley. After the meeting, Luther Wolf of Ripley, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of the county, stated that Mr. Ogden's candidacy was appealing very strongly to the people and that his speech had practically diffused what opposition there was in the county. He predicted Mr. Ogden would get a handsome majority in Jackson county. Mr. Ogden made two speeches on Saturday in Boone county. In the afternoon he spoke at Walton, and in the evening at Spencer. At both places Mr. Ogden was given a very flattering reception and was heard by a large number of interested voters, particularly in the morning.

Mr. Ogden's party left Saturday immediately after his address and drove in an automobile to Parkersburg where an early train was taken for Wheeling.

On Monday Mr. Ogden was in Tyler County, spending the morning in Sistersville greeting Republican voters and advocating his candidacy. In the afternoon he addressed a representative body of influential Republicans at Middlebourne. Mr. Ogden was accompanied on his tour of Tyler County by Stephen G. Bell and by C. T. Moore, both prominent citizens of the county. Just before Mr. Ogden's departure that afternoon, both Mr. Pyle and Mr. Moore expressed themselves as being confident that Mr. Ogden would carry the county by a good majority and they were very enthusiastic over his chances for the nomination.

At St. Marys the same evening Mr. Ogden made an address to a large number of Peasants County voters. He was given a very warm reception and made a most favorable impression upon his audience. He was introduced at this meeting by Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Powell. The following morning, Tuesday, Mr. Ogden and his party drove from St. Marys to Harrisville, the county seat of Ritchie County, arriving there about noon. Although the weather was extremely hot and the farmers busy making hay, the court room was crowded that afternoon when Mr. Ogden made an address there. He spoke at some length and was warmly received by the audience.

Captain Michael Ayres of Smithville presented Mr. Ogden to the Ritchie County voters as one of the state's greatest men and probably the best qualified and most deserving Republican to represent

West Virginia in the United States Senate. Captain W. S. Clark of Harrisville, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, is a strong supporter of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and expressed himself enthusiastically over Mr. Ogden's chances in Ritchie County. The younger element of the Republican voters in the county seemed to share Captain Clark's enthusiasm.

Mr. Ogden spent some time late in the afternoon at Cairo and at Pennsboro. On Wednesday Mr. Ogden spent a busy day in Wirt County. Leaving Parkersburg at an early hour he arrived in Elizabeth, which was in session that day, to greet a large majority of the town's population. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the banks and stores closed their doors while Mr. Ogden was speaking. The County Court, which was in session that day, recessed to attend the meeting. Mr. Ogden received one of the most enthusiastic welcomes at Elizabeth that he received during his entire speaking tour in the 4th district. He was introduced at the meeting by The Rev. J. C. Black, who praised him for his integrity and his ability.

On Thursday Mr. Ogden visited Mason County. He left the Parkersburg going down the Ohio River to New Haven where he was met by an automobile and escorted through the intervening towns to Point Pleasant, where he made a masterful address in the courthouse the evening.

It was here that the most striking event of the week occurred. Following Mr. Ogden's address, Mrs. Livia Simpson Poffenbarger, wife of Judge George Poffenbarger of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, was introduced and for nearly half an hour spoke in the interest of Mr. Ogden's candidacy. Mrs. Poffenbarger is one of the best known and most influential women in the state and among her friends in every county. She was chairman of the woman's Liberty Loan committee for West Virginia and performed such service as to call forth high commendation from the national government. In 1919 Mrs. Poffenbarger was invited to become the head of the Republican women voters of West Virginia, but declined and was voted membership on the national advisory board of the party.

Mrs. Poffenbarger minced no words in her championship of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and made a stirring appeal to the voters both men and women to give him their support. The speaking campaign left early Friday morning for Jackson County. An ox roast was held in his honor at St. Charles at noon and was attended by people from all parts of the county. That night Mr. Ogden addressed a large audience at Ripley. After the meeting, Luther Wolf of Ripley, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of the county, stated that Mr. Ogden's candidacy was appealing very strongly to the people and that his speech had practically diffused what opposition there was in the county. He predicted Mr. Ogden would get a handsome majority in Jackson county. Mr. Ogden made two speeches on Saturday in Boone county. In the afternoon he spoke at Walton, and in the evening at Spencer. At both places Mr. Ogden was given a very flattering reception and was heard by a large number of interested voters, particularly in the morning.

Mr. Ogden's party left Saturday immediately after his address and drove in an automobile to Parkersburg where an early train was taken for Wheeling.

On Monday Mr. Ogden was in Tyler County, spending the morning in Sistersville greeting Republican voters and advocating his candidacy. In the afternoon he addressed a representative body of influential Republicans at Middlebourne. Mr. Ogden was accompanied on his tour of Tyler County by Stephen G. Bell and by C. T. Moore, both prominent citizens of the county. Just before Mr. Ogden's departure that afternoon, both Mr. Pyle and Mr. Moore expressed themselves as being confident that Mr. Ogden would carry the county by a good majority and they were very enthusiastic over his chances for the nomination.

At St. Marys the same evening Mr. Ogden made an address to a large number of Peasants County voters. He was given a very warm reception and made a most favorable impression upon his audience. He was introduced at this meeting by Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Powell. The following morning, Tuesday, Mr. Ogden and his party drove from St. Marys to Harrisville, the county seat of Ritchie County, arriving there about noon. Although the weather was extremely hot and the farmers busy making hay, the court room was crowded that afternoon when Mr. Ogden made an address there. He spoke at some length and was warmly received by the audience.

Captain Michael Ayres of Smithville presented Mr. Ogden to the Ritchie County voters as one of the state's greatest men and probably the best qualified and most deserving Republican to represent

West Virginia in the United States Senate. Captain W. S. Clark of Harrisville, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, is a strong supporter of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and expressed himself enthusiastically over Mr. Ogden's chances in Ritchie County. The younger element of the Republican voters in the county seemed to share Captain Clark's enthusiasm.

Mr. Ogden spent some time late in the afternoon at Cairo and at Pennsboro. On Wednesday Mr. Ogden spent a busy day in Wirt County. Leaving Parkersburg at an early hour he arrived in Elizabeth, which was in session that day, to greet a large majority of the town's population. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the banks and stores closed their doors while Mr. Ogden was speaking. The County Court, which was in session that day, recessed to attend the meeting. Mr. Ogden received one of the most enthusiastic welcomes at Elizabeth that he received during his entire speaking tour in the 4th district. He was introduced at the meeting by The Rev. J. C. Black, who praised him for his integrity and his ability.

On Thursday Mr. Ogden visited Mason County. He left the Parkersburg going down the Ohio River to New Haven where he was met by an automobile and escorted through the intervening towns to Point Pleasant, where he made a masterful address in the courthouse the evening.

It was here that the most striking event of the week occurred. Following Mr. Ogden's address, Mrs. Livia Simpson Poffenbarger, wife of Judge George Poffenbarger of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, was introduced and for nearly half an hour spoke in the interest of Mr. Ogden's candidacy. Mrs. Poffenbarger is one of the best known and most influential women in the state and among her friends in every county. She was chairman of the woman's Liberty Loan committee for West Virginia and performed such service as to call forth high commendation from the national government. In 1919 Mrs. Poffenbarger was invited to become the head of the Republican women voters of West Virginia, but declined and was voted membership on the national advisory board of the party.

Mrs. Poffenbarger minced no words in her championship of Mr. Ogden's candidacy and made a stirring appeal to the voters both men and women to give him their support. The speaking campaign left early Friday morning for Jackson County. An ox roast was held in his honor at St. Charles at noon and was attended by people from all parts of the county. That night Mr. Ogden addressed a large audience at Ripley. After the meeting, Luther Wolf of Ripley, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of the county, stated that Mr. Ogden's candidacy was appealing very strongly to the people and that his speech had practically diffused what opposition there was in the county. He predicted Mr. Ogden would get a handsome majority in Jackson county. Mr. Ogden made two speeches on Saturday in Boone county. In the afternoon he spoke at Walton, and in the evening at Spencer. At both places Mr. Ogden was given a very flattering reception and was heard by a large number of interested voters, particularly in the morning.

Mr. Ogden's party left Saturday immediately after his address and drove in an automobile to Parkersburg where an early train was taken for Wheeling.

On Monday Mr. Ogden was in Tyler County, spending the morning in Sistersville greeting Republican voters and advocating his candidacy. In the afternoon he addressed a representative body of influential Republicans at Middlebourne. Mr. Ogden was accompanied on his tour of Tyler County by Stephen G. Bell and by C. T. Moore, both prominent citizens of the county. Just before Mr. Ogden's departure that afternoon, both Mr. Pyle and Mr. Moore expressed themselves as being confident that Mr. Ogden would carry the county by a good majority and they were very enthusiastic over his chances for the nomination.

BOOKS FOR RURAL SCHOOL SELECTED

Federal Commissioner of Education Announces List of Twenty-Five.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A library of twenty-five books for a one-room country school has been selected by Dr. John J. Tigert, U. S. commissioner of education. The list is Doctor Tigert's ballot in the voting contest which is being conducted among librarians and teachers on a two-foot shelf for a country school, and sponsored by the American Library Association and the National Educational Association.

Dr. Tigert's list follows:

For First Grade.
Indian Child Life. By Deming.
Mother Stories. By Maud Lind-say.
Mother Goose. Illustrated by Arthur Rackham.

For Second Grade.
After They Came Out of the Ark. By E. Boyd Smith.
The Snow Baby. By Josephine D. Peary.
The Early Cave Men. By Katherine Dopp.

For Third Grade.
All the Year Round.
Vol. I. Autumn.
Vol. II. Winter.
Vol. III. Spring.
Children's Book. By Horace Scudder.

Child's Garden of Verses. By Robert Louis Stevenson.
For Fourth Grade.
Alice's Adventures in Wonderland. By Lewis Carroll.
The Fairlight Fairy Book. By H. B. Boston.

Just So Stories. By Kipling.
For Fifth Grade.
Trees Every Child Should Know. By Rogers.
The Bible for Young People. Robinson Crusoe.

For Sixth Grade.
Uncle Remus and His Songs and Sayings. By J. C. Harris.
New Europe. By Allen.
Hans Brinker. By Dodge.

For Seventh Grade.
Little Women. By Alcott.
George Washington. By Scudder.
Tom Sawyer. By Mark Twain.

For Eighth Grade.
Tales from Shakespeare. Ivanhoe. By Scott.
Natural History of the Farm. By J. G. Needham.
The Home and the Family. By Kinne and Cooley.

The two associations planned the voting contest in the hope that many schools now without books for general reading will be encouraged to make new efforts to establish school libraries and will be helped in the choice of books.

At Quito, Ecuador, the only city in the world situated exactly on the equator, the sun rises and sets at six o'clock the year round.

At St. Marys the same evening Mr. Ogden made an address to a large number of Peasants County voters. He was given a very warm reception and made a most favorable impression upon his audience. He