Returns Home
Mrs. U. N. Arnett has returned to her home on Fairmont avenue from Wilmington, Del., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Ferriday and family. Mrs. Arnett, Mrs. Ferriday and son Edward, spent some time at Atlantic City this summer.

Celebrating Anniversary
Mrs. Eliza Hawkins, one of the esteemed older women of this city is today celebrating the eighty-first anniversary of her birth. A dinner was served at 12 o'clock today at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Asha Hawkins at 1000 Locust avenue, at which members of the immediate family and a few friends were guests. Honor guests on this occasion were the two sisters of Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. H. T. Lough of Farmington and Mrs. Margaret Bonaway of Jerusalem. All of the children of Mrs. Hawkins were present with the exception of her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Cunningham of Belaire, Ohio. A number of friends called today to extend congratulations and best wishes to the honor guest on the occasion of her eighty-first anniversary. Mrs. Hawkins is enjoying splendid health at this time, and with her friends she spent a most enjoyable day.

For Bride To Be
A number of social affairs are being held at Clarksburg to honor Miss Pearl Young, fiancée of Horace Hill of this city, whose marriage will be an event of October 13. Mrs. Roy Stealy entertained on Friday at a linen showing complimentary to Miss Young and Miss Margaret Johnson of Clarksburg, whose marriage will also be an event of October. On Saturday Miss Duclie White and Miss Beatrice Wordell entertained at bridge complimentary to Miss Young.

Entertains Friends
Mrs. Harry W. Pratt delightfully entertained a number of friends at her home in Barnes street Thursday evening complimentary to her husband and in celebration of his birthday anniversary. Mr. Pratt had been invited to dinner at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. J. Harvey Vanatta, and Mrs. Pratt was to follow him. After the guests had assembled, Mr. Pratt was notified that his wife would be unable to attend and he was requested to attend home at once. When he arrived he found the guests assembled. Games, music and dancing featured the evening's entertainment, which lasted into the small hours of the morning. A salad course of refreshments were served. Mrs. Pratt was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Clarence Borman and Mrs. John Haney. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Pratt were the Misses Grace Simpson, Virginia Vanatta, Evelyn Morris, Margaret Vanatta, Mary Frances Arnette, Mrs. Charles Arnette, Mrs. Roy Argetsinger, Mrs. J. W. Ryan, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Lohman Satterfield, Mrs. John Haney, Mrs. Clarence Bowman and son Clarence, Jr., Mrs. Ored Henderson, Gordon Rosenmerkel, Toby Gaynor, Charles Shaw, Roy Argetsinger, J. W. Ryan, Coleman Satterfield, Harry Snider, Harold Dorita and Evelyn Pratt.

Quota Dinner

evening at the Fairmont. Dinner will be served shortly after 8 o'clock and the program will be in charge of Miss Lucie Ford. Another feature of the program will be selections on the violin by Robert C. Lee, an instructor in the New England conservatory of music who is a guest in this city.

Have Guest
Dr. and Mrs. A. Z. Smith have as their guest at their home on Gaston avenue, the latter's sister, Mrs. H. E. Kessler of New York. Mrs. Smith, who had been visiting with relatives at Bedford Springs and Altoona, Pa., returned home yesterday, accompanied by her sister, who had been visiting there.

To Be Hostesses
Mrs. Glenn Barnes and Miss Besse Mason will be hostesses at the weekly bridge tournament this evening at the Country Club.

Returned Home
Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Smith have returned from an automobile tour of the New England states. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johns of Morgantown on the trip. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. John being sisters. They traveled a distance of 2,000 miles and visited nine states and Canada.

To School
Miss Virginia Peddicord left yesterday for Hollidaysburg, Pa., where she will resume her studies at Highland Hall School. She will spend several days in Pittsburgh, the guest of Miss Elizabeth McMillan, a school friend who spent several weeks here this summer as the guest of Miss Peddicord.

Masons to Hold Dance
What promises to be one of the brilliant social functions of the season will be the combination dance and bridge whist party, to be held in Masonic Temple this evening under the direction of the Masonic Social Club.

An invitation has been extended to the members of the Masonic fraternity and their ladies to attend the affair. Indications are that there will be a large attendance. Music for the occasion will be rendered by Barrett's Orchestra. The committees have been active for some time in preparation of the event.

Reaser-May
The marriage of Miss Dessie May and D. Frank Reaser, both of this city, was solemnized Saturday evening at the home of the bride's father, Sylvanus May of 129 Haymond street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. C. Buckley, pastor of the Diamond Street M. E. Church, in the presence of the immediate family and friends. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. L. F. May, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of dark blue canton crepe. The house was tastefully decorated in a profusion of garden flowers and following the ceremony an informal reception was held, and the bride and bridegroom were showered with congratulations and best wishes. They will reside with the bride's father in Haymond street. Mrs. Reaser is a young woman of pleasing personality and has held for a number of years a position in the domestic department of Hartley's Store. Mr. Reaser is a native of Greenville, W. Va., but has been located here for some time, having a position with the Owen's Bottle Co.

Married Saturday
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Howard Fay Merrifield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Merrifield of Chestnut street, and Miss Florence Anna Flanagan, daughter of Mrs. Stacia Flanagan of Field street, which was solemnized Saturday morning at St. Peter's Catholic Church, rectory with the Rev. P. H. Gleason officiating. They were attended by Mrs. J. R. Miller of this city, sister of the bride, and Edward Devany also of this city.

The bride was prettily gowned in a suit of dark blue duvetyne, trimmed with tulle, with harmonizing hat and gloves. Following the ceremony, Mr. Merrifield and his bride left for a wedding journey to Washington and other eastern cities after which they will be at home at 1067 Field street. Mrs. Merrifield came here a number of years ago with her mother and sister from Oakland, Md., to reside. She is a young woman of charming personality and for some time has been employed in the linotype department of the Fairmont Times. Mr. Merrifield is among the most substantial young men of the city and holds a responsible position in the plant department of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co.

Here for Visit
Miss Sue Hall arrived here Saturday night for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. E. McCoy at her home on Spring street. Miss Hall had spent the summer at Buckeye Lake, Ohio, with her niece, Mrs. C. C. Morfit and family and with friends at Columbus and Newark, Ohio. After a visit here she will go to Welch, W. Va., where she will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Morfit, who recently moved from Huntington to Welch.

To Have Dinner
The local court of the Catholic Daughters of America will serve a dinner Saturday evening in the basement hall of St. Peter's Catholic Church on Jackson street.

There's a Joyous Note in the New Fall Wearables

The Autumn colorings are rich and so becoming. The fabrics are carefully chosen—and master tailors have made them up in garments of distinction. The beauty of the fabrics is further enhanced by the glory of the linings. There's a all-time liveliness about them that will make you envious in your Hartley garments. And, since you'll be having them anyway, why not have them now and enjoy the satisfaction of early wear.

The garments shown here daily are from fashion leaders. The styles are new and original. This assurance of originality and correctness, also being able to choose the newest styles immediately are the factors that send this fashion centre of ours in to new and larger figures of business each season.

Blouses Are Becoming and Vogueish

Overblouses still holds first place with its long hip-lines. Colored embroideries are the sort that youth can wear. Tuckings are smart from cuffs to collar and many will choose them.
